

10/28/25

The Bartlesville food pantries met this morning in an effort to make sure those recipients losing their SNAP benefits for November will be able to make the most of our services in providing meals to their families. Below is a list of the larger local food pantries, the hours and days they distribute food, and their holiday closing schedules. For information on what documentation is needed for new clients at each of these agencies, call them or visit their websites. Please ignore any other information that you are seeing on social media - this is correct and up-to-date information. ALL locations are accepting food donations and volunteers.
