

Acknowledgment by Cyclist

1. Cycling is a sport for enjoyment, used by LTDC Cycling Club as a strategy to get closer to Christ. The LTDC Cyclists are:
 - a. Messengers of LOVE, PEACE & HOLINESS;
 - b. They always bring People to Christ, especially on Tours;
 - c. They promote Family Time & Unity with the LTDC Child Tour Experience, and the LTDC Tour Picnic at the Finish Line.
 - d. They Help Jesus to transform Disciples into Loved Disciples.
 - e. They Help the Neighbor to Have Fun, by Sharing Happiness.
2. The traffic laws should be regarded as mutual agreements, used to promote safety for drivers of motor vehicles and cyclists. Therefore, no one should try to evade or break these laws.
3. Visiting cyclist and spectators are honored guests, brothers in Christ, children of God, that the same God has drawn them to Christ, through us, the LTDC Cycling Club. Therefore, treat them that way, as they can become future LTDC Cyclists for Jesus Christ.
4. LTDC Officials & Cyclists should be treated and regarded as honest in intention that have accepted and are following the LTDC Code of Conduct to the best of their knowledge and ability.
5. LTDC Officials decisions shall be accepted without looking angry.
6. Decisions or directives from Traffic Officials that enforce the law on the streets, shall be accepted without looking angry.
7. The riding of LTDC Tours are Non-Competitive. Remember always the teachings of Jesus Christ: "So the last shall be first, and the first shall be last; for many will be called, but few chosen." Matthew 20:16
8. The Act of Waiting or Helping the LTDC Cyclists (other club's cyclist or individual cyclist) that is behind, for being slow, or due to a mechanical or health problem, will be considered: Triumph for the Club.
9. In cycling, as in life, treat others as you would have them treat you.
