NOTICE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION REPORTS PURSUANT TO CALIFORNIA LAW

(C.A.R. Form BIRN, 12/19)

The person signing below (on behalf of the Landlord, if not the Landlord) intends to obtain information about you from an investigative consumer reporting agency and/or a consumer credit reporting agency for the purpose letting a dwelling. Thus, you can expect to be the subject of "investigative consumer reports" and "consumer credit reports" obtained for housing purposes. Such reports may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living. With respect to any investigative consumer report from an investigative consumer reporting agency ("CRA"), the Landlord may investigate the information contained in your rental application and other background information about you, including but not limited to obtaining a criminal record report, eviction report, verifying references, work history, your social security number, and other information about you, and interviewing people who are knowledgeable about you. The results of this report may be used as a factor in making housing decisions. The source of any investigative consumer report (as that term is defined under California law) will be:
