Staff, vendors and spectators photo and video shows for business, promotional and personal use. By participating, exhibitors agree to being visible in public footage.

Accommodations:

Enjoy island living while you're here!

The island town of Matlacha is a drinking village with a fishing problem about 10 minutes west of the event facility. It's an island with about a dozen hotel options.

There's also a Resident's Inn about 25 minutes away just over the river into Ft. Myers who offers multi-room suites.

No Camping Onsite:

For campers there's a KOA campground on Pine Island in St. James City which is about 15 minutes from the facility.

OUTDOOR NAUTICAL MARKET

Vendor Application

Seafood Festival
 & Nautical Market
Cape Coral - May 28-29-30, 2022

No application fee

Vendors agree not to transport supplies during show hours other than anything you can carry in your arms unless you have someone to walk with you to watch for people.

Vendors are expected to be present at their booth during show hours. This is a family oriented public show and vendors are expected to behave in a professional manner without wandering or soliciting outside of their booth area. The show will not tolerate loud or rude behavior or allow the display of an offensive nature.

Vendors agree to accept responsibility, for themselves as well as attendees, caused by neglect or carelessness.

The event has the right to dismiss, with no refund, any vendor who refuses to follow terms on both application pages based on the discretion of the event host and/or property management.
