Get Ready to Celebrate with Art Bonita!

Hope you're all doing well and getting ready to enjoy the up-coming 4th of July Holiday this year!

Please Save The Date for the Grand Opening of Art Bonita's on-line store, starting July 1st, 2021. The 30 day countdown timer was set several days ago for the perfect time to blast-off this announcement, right before the 4th of July weekend!

It's been a long year of test marketing, designing and developing a user friendly site that enables fans and followers to purchase fine art prints of my artworks. Besides the fact that I am so excited to finally open my very first eCommerce site and bring all my hard working efforts right to your inbox. The on-line ordering experience has never been easier and most importantly, it's private and SSL secure .

At first glance, you may wonder why there's only a few items in the shop... and that's because I am starting small. In order to provide great service and make sure I have a well-oiled machine that runs smoothly, I must start by wearing "little wings" in order to learn how to fly.

OK, I 'm no angel... but you get the picture!

However, over the next six months I am consistently making changes and updates to the site. Also, I will be offering some wonderfully colorful, original Art Nouveau style posters with marquee style, handmade lighted frames, by yours truly. As well as beautiful high quality art prints, including acrylic art blocks, metal prints, fine art papers and more!

So, when the doors open, I am offering a 20% First Time Order Discount to all my subscribers. Just enter the coupon code: 20FIRSTORDER at check out.

Meantime, stay tuned for updates on the artworks coming soon. For I believe you will be wildly entertained by some of the fun and eclectic pieces I have in store!

Cheers,

Cassandra Kendall, Art Bonita
