JORGE A. GONZALEZ, DO

Jorge A. Gonzalez, DO, born in Havana, Cuba, has been a family physician for more than 32 years. Dr. Gonzalez is fluent in Spanish and English and has been a solo practioner since 1991 with hospital privileges to top hospitals in South Florida.

Dr. Gonzalez graduated from The University of Miami in 1979 with a bachelor of science, and then attended Rowan University School of Osteopathic Medicine (formerly The University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey) where he graduated in 1983 with a degree of doctor of osteopathic medicine. From 1983 to 1984, Dr. Gonzalez completed his osteopathic rotating internship at Nova Southeastern. He began his family medicine residency in 1984 at Jackson Memorial Hospital and completed it in 1987. During his residency, Dr. Gonzalez acted as chief resident at Jackson family medicine from 1986 to 1987. From 1987 to 1991, he provided family medicine services to a medically underserved community in Immokalee, FL while working with The National Health Service Corps, a federal program.

Dr. Gonzalez has been providing complete care to patients from ages 12 years and older for more than three decades and strives to take his time with each patient to make sure they are comfortable and understand his plan of care moving forward. Dr. Gonzalez' primary goal has always been the early prevention of disease in his patients, and he achieves this goal by providing individual attention to all patients while supplying them with the skills for a healthy lifestyle. Dr. Gonzalez has two office locations; one in South Miami near Sunset Drive and his primary office located in the medical office building of Mount Sinai Medical Center in Miami Beach.

With years of personal hands-on experience and staying current with continued education, Dr. Gonzalez has established himself as a top primary care physician in South Florida. He has received multiple awards including Top Doctor, Patient Choice Award, Compassionate Doctor Award, On-Time Doctor Award, and America's Most Honored Doctors with multiple years running. These awards were only made possible by patients' appreciation for Dr. Gonzalez, and their trust in him as a primary care physician.
