Beth Estock

Beth Ann Estock was raised on the shores of Lake Erie in a loving family. She traveled the world and studied theology in her 20's, married and had two delightful daughters in her 30's and had her heart strangely warmed in a mystical way in her 40's. Now she is trying to be the change that she wishes to see in the world!

She is a co-author of “Weird Church: Welcome to the 21st Century”. She also coaches and does consulting with Epicenter Group for people starting new faith communities and revitalizing existing churches. She travels all over North America speaking on the future of the church and is on the faculty of the Missional Wisdom Foundation. Her passion is to work with leaders who are experimenting with fresh expressions of church.

She has a BA in Spanish and Political Science from Hiram College and an MDiv from Candler School of Theology at Emory University. She is an ordained elder in the United Methodist Church, a certified Associate Integral Coach and a Prakriti Yoga instructor.
