

Job Opening: Director of SecurityCompany: Conglom EntertainmentPosition Type: Full timeLocation: Multiple event locationCompensation: Based on experience ($90,000 to $110,000)

About Us:

Conglom Entertainment is a premier live event production company known for delivering large-scale festival and concert events that celebrate culture, music, and community. We're seeking a highly experienced and strategic Director of Security to lead comprehensive security operations across our schedule productions.

Position Summary:

This role requires an individual with a proven track record in developing and executing robust security strategies across diverse environments—including live events, corporate spaces, and digital platforms. The Director of Security will oversee all aspects of event safety, manage personnel, and ensure full compliance with local, state, and federal guidelines. You will be instrumental in creating a secure and seamless experience for guests, artists, staff, and vendors alike.

Key Responsibilities:

- Design and execute detailed security plans for large-scale outdoor concerts and festivals
 - Lead and supervise on-site security personnel, staff, and contracted security teams
 - Liaise with law enforcement, fire departments, EMS, and municipal agencies
 - Oversee crowd management, entry checkpoints, artist protection, and emergency response
 - Implement digital security protocols (if applicable) for ticketing and communication systems
 - Monitor for and mitigate risks such as theft, threats, and unauthorized access
 - Maintain situational awareness through regular site checks and security reporting
 - Ensure all safety standards and legal regulations are strictly followed
-

Qualifications:

- 7+ years of leadership experience in security management (live events, corporate, or government)

- Proven ability to build and manage security teams in high-pressure environments
 - Experience working in both physical and digital security contexts is strongly preferred
 - Strong knowledge of safety regulations and emergency response protocols
 - Excellent communication, decision-making, and conflict-resolution skills
 - Current security license(s), where required (Florida and Connecticut preferred)
 - CPR/First Aid and crowd control certifications are a plus
 - Prior law enforcement, military, or private security background preferred.
-

To Apply:

Submit your resume and a brief statement of qualifications to hr@conglom-ent.com. Use the subject line: Position Applying for