

Rev. Tiffania Icaza Willetts has served as the pastor of Seminole Heights United Methodist Church in Tampa, FL, since July 2018. She has a love and commitment to serving Christ and the church, and she is a dynamic and biblical preacher and teacher.

Pastor Tiffania grew up as a pastor's kid to two United Methodist pastors in Florida, and she has been involved in the church on a local, district, and conference level for several years. Before pursuing ordained ministry, she spent three years as a United Methodist missionary, first in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and then in campus ministry at Central Methodist University in Fayette, Missouri.

Pastor Tiffania holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics with a minor in Latin American Studies from Princeton University, and in May 2018 she received a Master of Divinity degree from Candler School of Theology, Emory University. In September 2020, Pastor Tiffania was ordained an Elder in The United Methodist Church. Pastor Tiffania lives in Tampa with her husband, Laurence, and puppy, Mia. She loves cooking, yoga, and watching movies in her free time.
