

ALICE DROZDOVA

Alice is a rising Ukrainian artist and creative force in Central Oregon. She arrived just over a year ago as a child refugee and immediately became a vibrant part of the Ukrainian diaspora community. Through her artwork, Alice channels resilience, identity, and hope—recently organizing a fundraiser to support UA&Co. Her generosity, talent, and joyful spirit continue to inspire all who meet her.

CELEBRATING OUR GIRLS!

ANHELINA HRYHORENKO

Anhelina Hryhorenko is a talented Ukrainian cross-country skier and vibrant young voice in the Central Oregon community. A former junior national champion in Ukraine, she relocated to Bend with her family in late 2023 and now trains with the Mt. Bachelor Sports Education Foundation nordic team. Known for her determination, grace, and quiet leadership, Anhelina is not only excelling on the trails but also helping to bridge cultural connections in her new home. Whether skiing in her Ukrainian team suit or sharing her story through community events, Anhelina embodies resilience, pride, and the spirit of belonging.
