Home's Release— Help To Sell your Home

*By hearth and stone, by roof and door, this house has held, and now holds no more.
May burdens lift, may new hands come,
to love these walls, to keep them warm.*

Here is the way:

Take this sigil and draw it into the dirt near your threshold.

As you do,
whisper your intent —
to welcome the right
buyers,
to free your path, to open the next chapter with ease.

When the lines are drawn,
place a rock or stone upon
it,
sealing the spell,
anchoring the transition,
and calling the new
keepers home.

So it is spoken.
So it is guided.
