

Sigil of

Invocation for Ancestral Guidance

*By star and root, by leaf and stone,
I call to those whose hands built my path.
Ancestors, elders, keepers of the hearth,
Lend me your wisdom, walk beside me.*

*Light my steps with the lessons you carried,
Steady my heart
with the strength
you knew,
And weave your blessings
through my home and kin.*

*So it is asked,
so it is guided.*
