- Engineering - Engineering is all about solving problems. So if your team has a community problem they are trying to solve, this is the Mission Method they should choose

What is the Student Eligibility Requirement

1. A team's competing region is determined by the address of their school/organization.
2. Students must be officially enrolled in either sixth, seventh, eighth or ninth grade at a U.S.-based public, private or home school, Department of Defense Dependents Schools (DoDDS), or a Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) school abroad. Students residing in one of the U.S. Territories, DoDEA or DoDDS schools should use the proper registration code and should not use the "International" code unless their location is not represented.
3. All U.S. Citizens and Lawful Permanent Residents (LPR) are eligible to participate in eCYBERMISSION. F1-Visa holders are not eligible for the eCYBERMISSION competition. Reporting U.S. Citizenship or LPR status is not required at the time of registration. However, only those students with a valid Social Security number or that are able to prove LPR status are eligible to receive an eCYBERMISSION award and advance in the competition. For administration of awards, competition winners must provide the Social Security number of the registered student and must be able to set up a minor-linked Treasury Direct Account (which will be kept confidential). eCYBERMISSION awards are distributed via U.S. Savings Bond Treasury Direct, a service of the U.S. Department of Treasury. Students without a Social Security number cannot be issued a U.S. Savings Bond.

Curie Creative Talents

What are the Awards?

Each grade level participating in eCYBERMISSION will receive the following awards:

State Awards:

- First-Place State Winners - $1,000 U.S. Series EE Savings Bond at maturity per student.
- Second-Place State Winners - $500 U.S. Series EE Savings Bond at maturity per student.
- Honorable Mention Awards - Award certificate.

Regional Awards:

- All Regional Finalists - additional $1,000 U.S. Series EE Savings Bond at maturity per student.
- First-Place Regional Winners - additional $2,000 U.S. Series EE Savings Bond at maturity per student and an all-expenses paid trip to the Washington, DC Metropolitan Area to compete for the First-Place National Award.

National Awards:

- First-Place National Winners - additional $6,000 U.S. Series EE Savings Bond at maturity per student.

What is the Award Eligibility?

In order to be eligible for an eCYBERMISSION award, the Mission Folder must receive a composite score of at least 300 during the Virtual Judging process. Only students with a valid Social Security number or that are able to prove Lawful Permanent Resident (LPR) status are eligible to receive an eCYBERMISSION award. For administration of awards, competition winners must provide the Social Security number of the registered student and must be able to set up a minor-linked Treasury Direct Account (which will be kept confidential). eCYBERMISSION awards are distributed via U.S. Savings Bond through Treasury Direct for the U.S. Department of Treasury. Students without a Social Security number cannot be issued a U.S. Savings Bond.
