

Mission

I provide a range of operational oversight through my academic background and professional experience spanning supply chain management, logistics, healthcare finance, and health education.

Values

I am a proponent of standard operating procedures that enhance the delivery of quality health services and pedagogy that delivers plain language healthcare information to facilitate literacy and learning.

