Validity of the Board

All India Board for Education & Training (AIBET) has been originated through a resolution passed on May 23, 2008 through by the governing body of Dr Ambedkar Chintan Samajik Sodh Sansthan (DACSs), a Society Registered under Societies Registration Act 21, 1860.

The Societies Registration Act 21, 1860 is legislation in India which allows the registration of entities generally involved in the benefit of society — education, health, employment etc. the Societies Registration Act 1860 (21 of 1860) came into force on 21 May 1860 during British India. The act continued until today being an Act of Parliament. Under the act societies may be formed by way of memorandum of association. A copy of the rules regulations of the society also has to be filed with the registrar of the society. The Societies Registration Act 1860 (21 of 1860) which came into force in 21, May 1860 during British India continues until today being an Act of Parliament. This principal Act of Parliament needs specific laws to be made by executive branch creating legally enforceable regulation and the procedures for implementing them.

All India Board for Education & Training enjoys the legal status as an origin and operating professional institution of Dr Ambedkar Chintan Samajik Sodh Sansthan (DACSs). All India Board for Education & Training in professional institute category and registered by Quality Council Of India. Likewise Dr Ambedkar Chintan Samajik Sodh Sansthan also obtained QCI membership.

Dr Ambedkar Chintan Samajik Sodh Sansthan is incorporated by Societies Registration Act 21, 1860 under Central Act 21, 1860 by The Department of Excise Prohibition And Registration, Govt. of Bihar, Patna.

All India Board for Education & Training has been legalized further in pursuance of the letter no. 1236 dated 29.06.2009 issued by the office of the Deputy Registration General, Department Of Excise, Patna, Bihar. The issue of such letter is in response of RTI asked by Prakash Kumar, Advocate, and Surprise Govt. of India.

By this letter, the Deputy Registrar General confirm Autonomy of work for the society, Dr Ambedkar Chintan Samajik Sodh Sansthan (Bihar) within its memorandum and rules and regulation approved by societies registration act 21, 1860 by the registration department of the Govt of Bihar.

Thus, the establishment and functioning of All India Board for Education & Training is legitimate within the framework of memorandum and rules regulation of its parent organization, Dr Ambedkar Chintan Samajik Sodh Sansthan (Regd.).

Autonomous Board for Secondary & Post Secondary Education

This board is admitted in professional institute category registered by the Quality Council of India (QCI) membership no. CORP/EDU/S320/2021 valid up to December 09, 2021. Further, QCI membership could not be renewed because of closure of QCI membership scheme during and after the year 2022-23.

Quality council of India (QCI) operated national accreditation structure and promoted Quality through national quality campaign in education and other areas that had significant bearing in improving the quality of life. Because of QCI membership in the category of university/professional institution, the board (All India Board for Education & Training) proceeded globally for quality assurance in education by recognized accrediting bodies of the globe.

All India Board for Education & Training (AIBET) succeeded in gaining QAHE (USA) accreditation on July 2023 for the accreditation year 2023-24 subject to renewal every year.

QAHE (USA) is qualifies assurance in higher education organization. QAHE (USA) has been licensed by the State of Delaware (USA). QAHE (USA) is renowned organization with global impact dedicated to promoting and ensuring quality assurance in education. QAHE (USA) provides accrediting services recognition and support to educational institution and individual seeking international recognition of their credentials.

Here it is relevant to mention about the nature of USA accreditation. Earning an accreditation in the USA is voluntary and non-governmental, the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) and US Department of Education (USDoE) are two government and non-government organization that oversee higher education accreditation but are not involved in actual process of accreditation rather they provide resource, guidelines and information about accrediting agencies.

All India Board for Education & Training (AIBET) has legitimate status and validity in international education with its credentials earned globally through affiliation, accreditation and membership granted and accepted by recognized accrediting institutions worldwide governmental and non-governmental.
