Professional Experience

Assistant Vice President of Education for Equity and Inclusion	Nov. 2021 - present
Director of Education for Equity and Inclusion Middlebury College	Aug. 2018 - Oct. 2021 Middlebury, VT

Administration

- Co-created (with CDO) a five-year, campus-wide Action Plan for Anti-Racism, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. (Campus Climate Study conducted in 2018-2019, data analysis and action plan development in 2019-2020, and plan roll-out in fall 2020.)
- Partner with academic and administrative departments to identify unit-level goals and action items related to anti-racism, diversity, equity, and inclusion.
- Provide consultation and support related to strategic planning, climate assessment, bias response, facilitating difficult dialogues, reducing access barriers, inclusive pedagogy, curriculum development/revision, and employee and organizational development for administrators, faculty, and staff at Middlebury College (undergraduate college in Vermont), Middlebury Institute of International Studies (graduate institute in California), Middlebury C.V. Starr Schools Abroad (operating in 37 cities in 17 countries), and Middlebury Language Schools (immersive summer undergraduate and graduate programs in Vermont).
- Collaborate with staff from Advancement on language/framing to support fundraising campaigns focused on anti-racism, diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice and to develop DEI-focused content for institutional or divisional grant proposals.
- Provide summary DEI data to Advancement for grant reports and to Associate Provost for accreditation.
- Drafted language for a revised (beyond compliance and non-discrimination) EOE statement that was adopted for use by the AVP of Human Resources for future job postings.
- Worked with the VP of Academic Affairs/Dean of Faculty to implement and make mandatory workshops on inclusive hiring practices for all faculty serving on search committees that address expanding academic position descriptions to include information designed to attract historically minoritized applicants, strategies to ensure equity in the evaluation process, and how to assess applicants' capacity to provide culturally responsive teaching, advising, and mentoring.
- Worked with the VP of Academic Affairs/Dean of Faculty to revise the faculty job posting template to require all applicants to submit a separate statement on inclusive practices.
- Drafted language that was adopted for use by the VP of Academic Affairs/Dean of Faculty for a new section on the annual review form that addresses faculty efforts to advance diversity, equity, and inclusion.
- Developed an Anti-Racism Self-Assessment tool for use by staff in Student Affairs.

- Collaborated with the VP of Human Resources and the AVP of Organizational Effectiveness and People Experience to develop an employee development model focused on 13 workplace practices that foreground community building and cultural responsiveness and that advance the principles of the Envisioning Middlebury institutional framework.
- Collaborated with the CDO to advocate for the reorganization of Student Disability Services (SDS) from the Risk Management division to the Office of Institutional Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (OIDEI) and for the renaming of SDS to the Disability Resource Center (DRC) to shift the framework from a medicalized, compliance approach to one that centers identity and frames the responsibility for access as both proactive and campus wide.
- Collaborated with the CDO to advocate for the restructuring of the intercultural center and created position descriptions for two new approved positions (Director and Assistant Director) to better support BIPOC, first-generation, and LGBTQ students.
- Served on the Faculty Council Working Group on Protests and Demonstrations Policy, aided the implementation of the revised policy by facilitating workshops for students on planning and hosting campus protests, and partner with student organizers to ensure they understand their rights and have administrative support during the protest planning process.
- Collaborate with the VP of Communications and the President on institutional messaging related to anti-racism, diversity, equity, and inclusion and in response to incidents that have impacted the campus community.

Climate Assessment, Advocacy, and Institutional Change

- Chair the Community Bias Response Team (CBRT).
- Drafted the framework for CBRT to provide both educational and restorative options in response to bias incidents.
- Facilitate 1:1 discussions with faculty, staff, and students who have committed bias incidents.
- Serve on the Restorative Practices Steering Committee.
- Provide social justice-based conflict mediation and restorative processes (harm circles, climate circles, restorative conferences, community conversations, etc.) for students, staff, faculty, and administrators related to interpersonal conflicts, dynamics of power and privilege, fair process, bias incidents, and structural harm.
- Developed the framework for the implementation of adaptable resolution (restorative justice) as an option for response to Title IX complaints.
- Facilitate adaptable resolution processes as a way for students to foreground acknowledging and taking accountability for harm in response to Title IX complaints.
- Serve as a resource and advocate for students, staff, and faculty who are navigating bias incidents, access barriers, dynamics of marginalization, or other forms of interpersonal or institutional harm.
- Develop and facilitate case study analysis and discussion for staff from Public Safety to explore on-campus incidents involving students, staff, and faculty and their implications for perceptions of campus climate, bias, and profiling.
- Collaborated with the Space Committee to relabel all single-occupancy restrooms with gender-inclusive signage and to identify multiple-occupancy restrooms in high-traffic buildings to renovate for gender-inclusive use.
- Collaborated with the VP of Information Technology Services/CIO to revise the policy for chosen names and pronouns, partnered with the ITS work group to provide education and implementation sessions for campus offices to ensure they know how to access and use data under the new policy, and meet monthly to track progress on implementation across campus data systems.

- Drafted revised language for use by Athletics to make the policy on transgender student-athlete participation more inclusive.
- Worked with staff from Residential Life to revise the student housing application to make it more inclusive for transgender and disabled students.
- As chair of the LGBTQIA+ Center Taskforce, successfully advocated for both the establishment of the Prism Center for Queer and Trans Life (scheduled to open in Spring 2024) and the renovation of the allocated space to be fully ADA accessible.
- Co-chair the Advisory Group for Disability Access and Inclusion (AGDAI).
- Worked with AGDAI to get the administration to agree to hire an external consultant for all future renovation and construction projects and to commit to employing best practices of inclusive design for the built environment.
- Worked with VP of Student Affairs and Dean of Students to make available electric scooters to reduce access barriers with respect to navigating the campus environment for students with mobility-related disabilities (given the absence of a campus-wide transit system).
- Collaborated with the VP of Information Technology Services/CIO to conduct a campus-wide web accessibility audit and meet monthly with ITS staff to track progress towards digital accessibility goals.
- Collaborated with AGDAI and Facilities to hire external consultants to conduct an accessibility audit of the built environment.
- Worked with AGDAI to develop a syllabus template that foregrounds accessibility and collaborated with the Provost and Faculty Council to garner faculty support for a new basic syllabus policy that was approved and added to the faculty handbook.
- As co-chair of AGDAI, successfully advocated for a dedicated Testing Center (launched fall 2022) to ensure students can complete exams in spaces designed to meet their access needs.
- Collaborated with AGDAI and the Director of Environmental Health, Safety, & Compliance to revise Emergency Response Plans to update evacuation guidelines for disabled individuals.
- Serve on the Antisemitism Working Group.
- Provide consultation and advocacy related to religious observance regarding inclusive dining practices (e.g., providing halal food options), inclusive teaching practices (e.g., rescheduling afternoon exams for students fasting during Ramadan), and inclusive supervisory practices (e.g., supporting employees whose religious observance includes suspension of work).

Faculty and Staff Development

- Created the Inclusive Practitioners Program (IPP), a continuing education program for faculty and staff, and develop and facilitate workshops in the Anti-Racism as Everyday Practice track, Engaging and Supporting Diverse Communities track, Building and Restoring Communities track, and Inclusive Design for Learning track.
- Facilitate ongoing practitioner conversations for faculty and staff to discuss ways they are applying inclusive practices in their respective campus environments and to explore ways to address any challenges they are facing.
- Worked with the VP of Academic Affairs/Dean of Faculty to implement monthly development workshops for academic department chairs and program directors; utilize these sessions to facilitate critical reflection and skill building on intradepartmental dynamics, supporting historically minoritized faculty, and building and restoring community with and among colleagues.
- Provide individual consultation and coaching to academic department chairs as needed to address classroom climate concerns raised by students and/or climate concerns raised by faculty occurring within departments.

- Provide mediation and/or restorative processes to resolve conflicts or climate concerns between faculty and/or between faculty and department chairs.
- Developed a “Guide to mentoring and retaining new faculty” for academic departments.
- Facilitate a series of workshops on identity-conscious and culturally responsive supervision for managers of full-time staff.
- Provide individual consultation and coaching to managers as needed to address climate concerns raised by staff related to the workplace environment.
- Provide mediation and/or restorative processes to resolve conflicts or climate concerns between staff and/or between employees and their managers.
- Facilitated a year-long series of development workshops for all employees in Human Resources to align DEI and HR approaches to employee support and supervisor development to ensure institutional efforts are community centered, identity conscious, and culturally responsive.
- Facilitate annual dialogues with the Promotions Committee, Reappointments Committee, academic department chairs, and program directors on “Reducing Bias in the Review Process.”
- Provide department-level and individual consulting for faculty related to curriculum, assessment, pedagogy, classroom dynamics and climate, advising, and mentoring.
- Collaborated with the VP of Academic Affairs and Dean of the Language Schools to implement a development framework for faculty teaching in the 12 immersive summer language programs; provide annual workshops for incoming (mostly international) faculty focused on affirmative listening, empathetic response, dynamics of marginalization, and addressing microaggressions experienced by historically minoritized students in a domestic context.
- Collaborate with staff from Study Abroad to provide pre-departure education for students about the cultural dynamics of race, ethnicity, class, religion, disability, gender, and sexual orientation in international contexts.
- Collaborate with the Dean of International Programs to provide annual development for directors of the Schools Abroad on supporting historically minoritized students as they navigate their identities in new cultural contexts.
- Collaborate with staff from International Student & Scholar Services to support incoming international students as they navigate their identities in a domestic cultural context.
- Facilitated a Disability Studies Reading Group for faculty and staff to discuss common readings and their application (2019-2020).
- Facilitate a monthly Anti-Oppression Reading Group for staff to discuss common readings and their application.

Student Development

- Develop and facilitate workshops for Residential Life student staff, Orientation Leaders, International Student & Scholar Services’ Pre-Arrival Leaders, Judicial Board members, MiddSafe Survivor Advocates, Mental Health Peer Educators, Center for Careers and Internships Peer Advisors, First-Year Peer Mentors, STEM Peer Educators, Computer Science Peer Tutors, Middlebury College Activities Board, Student Government Association, Sex Positive Education College Style (SPECS) Peer Educators, student organizations, and student athletes.
