

Any Day Now

Words & Music by James C. Burns

I've been standing outside your door
Through the wind and the rain.
Waiting for an opportunity girl too,
Tell you why I came.
That night I saw you...You were dancing all alone
And I swear in this whole world
There's not an Angel like you girl.

Any day now, I'll get through to you.
Any way now, I'll get through to you.

The rain is cold when it hit's my heart,
But I won't freeze.
Your smile warms the dark. Like a summer breeze.
My friends all tell me.. That I just might be insane.
But I swear in this whole world
There's not an Angel like you girl.

Chorus

I've been standing outside your door
Through the wind and the rain.
Waiting for an opportunity girl too,
Tell you why I came.
That night I saw you...You were dancing all alone
And I swear in this whole world
There's not an Angel like you girl.

Any day now, I'll get through to you.
