

And It Feels Like Rain

Words & Music by James C. Burns

Saw her from across the street, we met eyes and I believe in love, at first sight. She 's my destiny.

Lost control and now I'm flyin'. No restraint, no denyin'.
Destiny will have it's laugh on me...And it feels like rain.
Pouring down on my head today, Feels like rain.

When it comes it washes me away,
All I am and all I've made.
But it feels so good, that's my demise,
And it always takes me by surprise.
When it feels like rain.
When it feels like rain, pouring down on my head today.
Feels like rain.

[Bridge]
Why is it love can go so bad? Whenever love has found me.
It's sent the world around me, Crashing to the floor.
And I'm lost again. Once more, it feels like rain.

Yeah, It feels like rain,
Here comes those mighty clouds of pain.
And it feels like rain.
And it's gonna wash me a way.
And it feels like rain.
Feels like rain.
