

We Belong In A Love Song

Words & Music by James C. Burns

Baby, baby, take a look inside.
There's no place left to hide from me. You see.
Baby, baby, It took some time.
To slow it down and finally see.
It's always been me.

You've been waiting for so long.
To feel a love, Safe and strong. And I believe.
You were waiting for me.

Long legs wrapped around my hips.
I feel the softness of your lips, so free.
When your with me.
At night when the world is done,
I see your eyes holding on to me.
And we just breathe.

We've been waiting for so long.
To feel a love safe and strong.
Two hearts now move as one, And I believe.
You've been waiting for so me. To sing you a love song.
To sing you a love song...a love song.

Now I see it's all so clear.
Every moment that led us here was divine.
And right on time.
Every twist and every bend our love grows.
Without end in sight. That's you and I.

We've been waiting for so long.
To feel a love safe and strong.
Two hearts now move as one, And I believe.
You've been waiting for so me. To sing you a love song..
To sing you a love song. We belong.. in a love song.
In love.
Baby, baby, take a look inside.
