The Mayor and Town Council of Kitzmiller MD, would like to publicly thank Cory Stieringer for the image he drew for his community.

For those of you who don't know Cory, he has been a Kitzmiller resident his entire life. His parents are Lori and Chip Stieringer, of Vindex. He has a wife Kelsey, and a daughter.

Cory takes pride in his artistic ability. When the Mayor and Council approached him asking for him to help draw a design for on the back of the coin to represent Kitzmiller, Cory did not hesitate in saying yes. We believe Cory took the design of the coin very seriously and put in a lot of time, effort, and thought. We appreciate everything that you do for our community Cory, and we hope that you never stop believing in your artistic talent!

Thank You, again.
