AUGUST

From the Director's Desk:

This year, Major League Baseball's annual All-Star game was played in Cleveland. Two things I love – baseball and Cleveland. I have loved baseball since I was a kid and my grandfather would take us to see the Orioles play. I have loved Cleveland since I fell in love with Mr. Green. He grew up in Parma and went to Cleveland State and I feel an obligation to embrace a city that has played such a big role in my husband's life. So I have combined my love of baseball and my love of Cleveland and I am now a huge Cleveland Indians fan (never mind that I actually promised in my wedding vows to root for Cleveland sports teams). We have a summer tradition of going to at least one game before the end of the season. Another tradition is to watch the Fourth of July fireworks together. We have done this every year for the last 19 years—even when Mr. Green lived in North Carolina and I lived in Indiana, we made it happen. What are some of the summer traditions you have developed over the years? What are some that you'd like to start? What are some that have ended? Traditions are a hard thing to let go of. They become a fabric of who we are, what holds meaning and memories as we move forward in life. They provide comfort and stability in a sea of change. A tradition that has been a part of Senior Day at the Fair is coming to an end. Bingo will no longer be offered. This was not an easy decision and in some respects the decision was out of local hands. State regulators have frowned upon "games of chance" at county fairs for years, and Mercer County was one of the last hold outs. Last year, the new bingo cards that the fair had purchased didn't work well and created all sorts of problems. It just seemed a good time to try something new. This year we will host trivia. Everyone will have an opportunity to win and there will be plenty of prizes. I promise, it will be fun. If you really want to play bingo, I invite you to the Senior Center the day after Senior Day at the Fair. Our bingo is air-conditioned, you can hear well, you don't have to balance a bingo card on your lap, and we have lots of prizes to choose from.

WE NEED YOUR HELP

Have you ever heard the statement "Many hands make the work light?" In my experience it is very true. I know you see this in almost every newsletter.... But we are putting it out once again. We need your help. As you probably know, we have five garage sales each year. Did you know that we use the funds raised from those sales to help the seniors in Mercer County? If you have even a spare hour or two each month that you could donate helping us prepare for the next sale, it would be so very appreciated. If you haven't had the chance to meet Tash Schulze you are missing a wonderful opportunity. She works diligently and efficiently helping people find the perfect fit for their volunteer desires. I encourage you to take a moment today, look at your calendar, and give Tash a call. She is very busy so if she can't come to the phone, leave her a message. She will call you back. You will be glad you did. We have a lot of fun. Thanks for helping out!!!

Spotlight on our OFFICE MANAGER!!!

Hi, I'm Mike Fuller. Mercer County is my adopted home, having moved here after I married a Mercer County girl. My first contact with the Council on Aging came when my mother-in-law became ill and we started getting help with taking care of her. Thanks to the hard work of my wife, and the outstanding help we received at the Center, we were able to keep her in our home with us as long she needed. I thought then this place was special, and I am glad to get the chance to be part of that now. I'm sure I have met some of you in my travels as a Driver for Mercer County Council on Aging Transportation Department. I look forward to meeting the rest of you in my new position as Office Manager.

I am very grateful for this chance to be even more of a help to our team here at the Senior Center. As a Driver, I always felt like I was on the front line helping folks get to all the places they needed to go. As Office Manager, I will be part of helping solve some of those same problems, but I will also have more time to help all the wonderful people here at the Council on Aging. Helping all the wonderful Seniors we call friends and clients, is the real reason we all work here.

I may be moving more in the background now, and I want to give all the credit due to the amazing people I work with, the ones that make the center a clean, bright place filled with good food, good company, and fun activities. Those of you that come here, know what I'm talking about. Those of you that don't know what I mean, come on in and see what all the buzz is about, we'd love to have you.

Let me close by saying to all my friends, old and new, please look me up when you are at the Center, I really do look forward to talking with you.

Spoofers, Scammers, and Robocalls ..... Oh My!

Well it may seem we are in Kansas these days, but there are some disasters at home that we can prevent with a little vigilance.

With vigilance and due diligence we can avoid new scam techniques that might get us into some trouble by inadvertently giving out important information. The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) indicates that, “Scammers use a technique known as spoofing to mask their caller ID on your phone and disguise their identities to steal valuable personal information, including your bank account passwords and Social Security number.” Recent scams that have been recognized in our county are people posing as Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) agents and scammers calling stating they are with Medicare to sell durable medical equipment (which is Medicare fraud). For the most recent list, the FCC “post timely articles on the FCC Consumer Help Center website (<https://www.fcc.gov/consumers>) to alert you to the latest scams and amplify consumer warnings from Social Security and other government agencies.” Also, “consumers can keep track of these alerts by following @FCC on Twitter.”

The FCC gives us good advice in the FCC | Consumer Connections article about “What You Can Do” to help prevent a potential disaster; so take these tips into consideration to help fight the reductions in scams, spoofs, and robocalls!

FCC | CONSUMER CONNECTIONS

What You Can Do

-  Put your mobile and landline numbers on the national Do Not Call Registry. Visit donotcall.gov or 1-888-382-1222 from the number you want to register.
-  Research apps, services or devices that help block unwanted calls.
-  Don't answer calls from unknown callers. That could verify you have an active line. Never call back an unfamiliar number – it may lead to a scam.
-  Spoofed caller ID numbers may trick you into answering. If you answer a spoofed call, hang up immediately. Do not respond to even simple questions or requests.
-  Scam callers may pretend to represent an organization, business or even a government agency. Never reveal any personal or financial information unless you can independently verify the caller.
-  FCC rules offer protection against unwanted calls and texts. File a complaint with the FCC to help us determine where to take action. Visit consumercomplaints.fcc.gov
