BEHAVIORAL ANALYSIS TRAINING GROUP: REAL TRAINING. REAL IMPACT.

We go beyond "check-the-box" training, transforming how law enforcement officers think, react, and engage in the field.

Our specialized psychological and behavioral-based courses enhance situational awareness, deception detection, and threat assessment while teaching officers to articulate their observations in court testimony and reports.

Backed by years of law enforcement experience and psychological expertise, our training is real, relevant, and immediately applicable. Every student leaves with practical skills—and my personal cell phone number for ongoing support throughout their career.

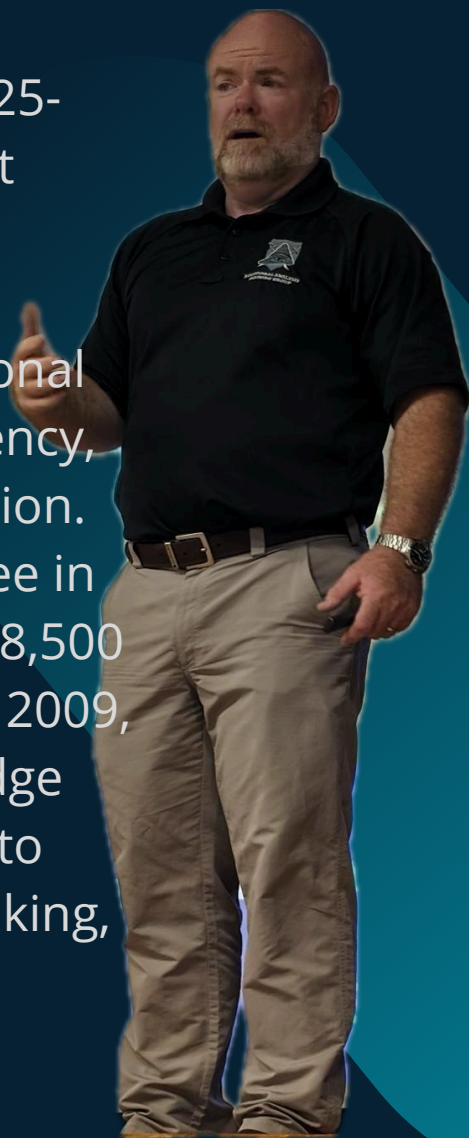

We also assist police unions and agencies by analyzing use-of-force incidents, decoding officer and suspect body language to reveal true intent and justification. If you want real training with lasting impact, let's talk.
Elevate your agency's skills today.
