MORROW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Morrow Presbyterian Herald

THE PASTOR'S PEN

"The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death, a light has dawned. You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy; they rejoice before you as people rejoice at the harvest, as men rejoice when dividing the plunder" (Isaiah 9:2-3).

People have been busy these few days. Christmas has come and gone, and so folks are rapidly "taking down Christmas" to be stored away for next December. In our church, we jokingly call it "taking down the browns" with the idea that our fresh green decorations have somehow decayed. We see crews unstringing lampposts in public parks and at the entrances of neighborhood associations. Husbands stand atop tall ladders to remove lights from roofs, while wives holding those ladders demand that their husbands be careful. Garlands and decorations are coming off the walls and doorways. Artificial trees are disassembled, and live trees are pitched and burned. Christmas will soon become a fleeting memory.

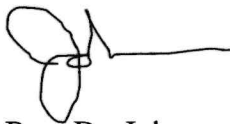

No matter what we take down, there is yet one Light that will never be taken down. We should still be able to see the one Light and, in fact, this Light is the only one we really need to see. He is Christ himself. His brilliance still shines on us in January and throughout the year. His love and compassion envelopes us like a warm, familiar blanket.

The Reason for the Season hasn't gone away just because the decorations and lights are gone. His everlasting life and unfailing authority don't shatter, even though some of the toys children have received are already broken or misplaced. Christ is still Emmanuel, God with us, in a world that is looking for gleaming hope amid the thick darkness.

Jesus says, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life" (John 8:12). The Light of the world illuminates our lives, so that we may become lights to the people around us. They may have some brightness in their gray lives by the beams of love and compassion radiated from our actions and words. People are filled with brilliance like they haven't been before - they don't miss the lights of Christmas because we are all lights to each other. And, of course, the one true Light still remains in and around us.

Celebrate Jesus as our Light. He glows brightly. He invites us eagerly to receive him. He walks with us from season to season, ever increasing our brilliant joy.

Peace in Christ,

Rev. Dr. John

Thank You Note...

From MPC Church Staff... To our wonderful church family, Thank you so very much for the very generous love gifts received at the Staff Recognition. We love this church and are grateful to be a part of a loving, generous congregation. You are very good at showing your appreciation. Thank you!

Kid's Club

Kid's Club Volunteers Needed. We are currently looking for volunteers to help work with the children's ministry ages 4 to 5th grade. This is a meaningful way to serve and support the next generation. If you're interested, please contact Twarna Johnson @ 678-683-8030. We would love to have you join the team!

Ordination/Birthday Celebration

Ordination/Birthday Reception, January 11, 12:15 p.m. Florette Njonu would like to invite the congregation to a reception following the worship service next Sunday, January 11, in celebration of her ordination and her birthday. Please join her and her family in the fellowship hall following the service.

Downing of the Browns, January 4, 12:15

Downing of the Browns, January 4, 12:15 p.m. If you are able, please stay after worship and the congregational meeting Sunday to help undecorate the church and put things back in storage for another year. Hopefully, you have enjoyed the beautiful decorations and can help put the church building back in its regular order.

Giving Envelopes

2026 Offering Envelopes

Offering envelopes for 2026 are available near the library.

See Dianne Hooten if you don't see your envelopes.

In Memory of Jim LeDuke

James Neville LeDuke, Jr. (Jim, or Jimmy, to the many who loved him), age 82, of Ellenwood, Georgia, passed away on December 21, 2025.

He was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Catherine Frazier Patty LeDuke and James Neville LeDuke, Sr., and by his sister, Cathie LeDuke.

He is survived by his loving wife of 37 years, Marty LeDuke; his daughters, Jennifer Lott (Dan), Amanda LeDuke (David), and Denise Chapman (John); his son, H.R. Tuttle (Marie); his brother, Richard LeDuke; his "sister" Sue Hurst; his grandchildren, Bethany Singleton, Emily Chapman, Ashlyn McNabb, Alyssa Tuttle, Henry Lott, and Kate Lott; his great-grandchildren, Andy, Jonathan, and Waylon, as well as many cousins, nieces, and nephews from the family he held so dear.

Born in Tiptonville, Tennessee in 1943, he had a childhood he often compared to Andy Griffith's "Mayberry." His childhood friends became lifelong friends, evidenced in part by how much he looked forward to the regular Tiptonville High School Class of '61 reunions. He went on to graduate from the University of Tennessee, where he met his first wife Katherine Roach LeDuke, and continued his pattern of securing lasting friendships. He spent time in the Army, and then in Philadelphia, before settling down in Atlanta in 1972, first as a manager at Stouffer's Top of the Mart, then at Herren's Restaurant, and eventually owning a business fixing and selling restaurant equipment.

Jim, along with his wife Marty, joined Morrow Presbyterian church on March 27, 1994. Jim became ordained as an elder on January 14, 1996 and served two separate terms during the years.

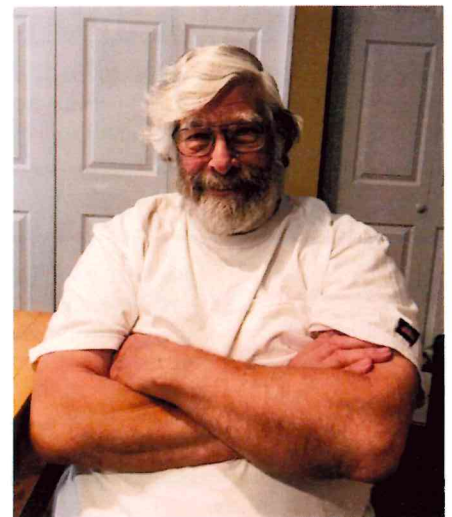

Though always humble, he was truly a man of many talents and constant hobbies; he could hold his own in a poker game, knew his way around a fishing hole, was able to reimagine uses of any number of random items (treasures) he would find at local auctions or thrift stores. He built decks and bookcases and porch swings and birdhouses and much of the house he called home for many years. He could make the shortest story long. He was an enthusiastic solver of crossword puzzles and Sudoku. He loved to read and, especially, to write, whether it was his blog about growing up in Tiptonville or his occasional meandering notes jotted off to family or friends. He was especially proud of the two books he wrote with his daughter Amanda about the great love story of his parents, Catherine and "Duke." The number of dollars in his pocket was completely unrelated to his generosity and his big heart whenever he met someone in need. He was many things to many people, and almost everyone you meet would be able to tell you a "Jimmy story" that would make you laugh.

A celebration of his life will be held at a future date.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Morrow Presbyterian Church Food Pantry in his honor.

The family wishes to extend their sincere gratitude to the staff of Emory Decatur Hospital and Longleaf Hospice for their compassion and care.

Jim, you will be missed.
