CONFLICT RESOLUTION FOR THE HELPING PROFESSIONS NEGOTIATION, MEDIATION, ADVOCACY, FACILITATION, AND RESTORATIVE JUSTICE THIRD EDITION

By Allan Edward Barsky

When people think of conflict, they often think of fights, wars, arguments, hot tempers, and hurtful consequences. Conflict Resolution for the Helping Professions provides helping professionals with the theory, strategies, and skills they need to deal with conflict in a manner that is respectful, collaborative, and constructive. This text illustrates how helping professionals can incorporate evidence-based models of conflict resolution to work more effectively and enjoyably with clients, coworkers, supervisors, and others. Practitioners will learn practical strategies for dealing with others using power, positions, and competition. Whereas many conflict resolution texts focus on one method or approach to practice, this textbook provides practitioners with various models that they can incorporate in their roles as negotiators, counselors, mediators, facilitators, advocates, and peacebuilders.

“Once again, Dr. Barsky's newest edition of Conflict Resolution for the Helping Professions arrives at a critically important time when conflict – either avoided or negatively interpreted – permeates our world, and yes, even within our helping professions. With the third edition, Dr. Barsky has provided essential updates in mindfulness, restorative justice, and online dispute resolution while still maintaining the core of negotiation and mediation theories and their application to practice.”
