

DRAGON CODE

I am what I am because I choose to be. I am a Dragon by choice and am subject to its law. My brothers and sisters are my heart and my mind. Even though we may disagree with each other, we still strive to be one. Forgetting all categories and letting energy which wishes to exist, exist. But as a Dragon, I must go forth to seek the Tao and the Void, Understanding myself and finding peace within.

PRAYER OF MASTER CHING

Though struggling through the veil of ignorance, I place faith in the precious protectors of the law, knowing that my heart shall forever change, I vow to perfect the understanding of the Great Way. Fearlessness of death and life is the double-edged sword of enlightenment which I shall carry. Respect to all, trust in the way, and service to the teachers are the doors to the path. All else is wasteful. Those of caution, fear, and doubt need not enter within this great secret road, for it is strewn with the bones of those who could not defeat the dragons of desire and wastefulness. Therefore, O wise one, I pray that you guide me and direct me upon the path to attainment which I hereby promise to observe and follow faithfully. In the union of the ten directions and the voidness of idea, lies expression and wisdom. I vow to attain them.

WARRIOR CODE

The warrior is a man who dedicates his life to the cause which made him what he is. What governs the warrior is the foresight that he has to see beyond the present and into the future, beyond the capabilities of those who follow him. The warrior is dedicated to defend the Honor, the Creed, the Pride, and Self Respect for what he wishes to be called...DRAGON, DRAGON, DRAGON...WISDOM, COURAGE, HONOR, STRENGTH, PURITY, ALL KNOWLEDGE.
