Ocean
Road*

YOU'RE WELCOME

I AM HUNGRY FOR TODAY.

In Port Fairy, on the Great Ocean Road, every day unfolds with simple pleasures: romance and whimsy, art and music, nature and nurturing. Beat to the rhythm of life of a perfect fishing village nestled on the edge of the Southern Ocean.

CRAFT YOUR STORY IN THE MAKING.

Inspire your imagination in our creative enclave. Mingle in a passionate community of local artists, artisans, musicians, crafters and makers. Soak up the energy of the iconic Port Fairy Folk Festival or meander through quaint galleries and quirky boutiques.

Celebrate your own creativity with like-minds against a backdrop of nature's finest work.

OLD-WORLD CHARM AND NATURE AT YOUR FEET.

Walking or cycling is the best way to explore our superbly preserved 19th century village streetscapes. Unearth a watercolour vista on a harbour-side amble. Poke around a still-thriving fishing village rippling with old-world charm. Take a trail to the Southern Ocean, Moyne River, surf beaches, swimming spots or a lighthouse that feels a million miles away from care.

BE SURPRISED.

By foodie adventures into incredible regional produce. By hand-made treasures and local talent. By boats bobbing gently on the river, superb coffee, wide open streets and big, beaming smiles. By the sense of belonging you feel in a place you've never been.

CREATIVE + HERITAGE

I AM A MAKER, THINKER, DOER AND CREATOR.

Find your tribe in a passionately creative community inspired by nature. Follow the sound of fiddles to toe-tap with the crowd at the local pub. Express yourself – grab your sketchbook or your paintbox and join the arty types capturing the harbour scenery on paper. Nurture your creative heart with an art class or studio visit. Contemplate an inspiring calendar of music and art festivals stretching year-round.

I AM A TRIP BACK IN TIME ON A BRAND NEW DAY.

Where maritime mystery ripples through the sea and the river and into the streets. Tap into the past and imagine a simpler life centred on the harbour and bustling fishing fleet. Wander to Battery Hill to discover historic cannons or fossick through photos, relics and time-worn tales at the Historical Society Museum.

CULTURE HIGHLIGHTS

- > The hardest thing about an enclave of talented artists is finding them. Grab the Port Fairy Art Walk Map and guide your own tour through a collage of galleries and working studios.
| portfairyartmap.com
- > Plan your stay around the iconic Port Fairy Folk Festival, a toe-tapping, thigh-slapping March weekend that has thousands thronging to enjoy a program bursting with talent old and new.
| portfairyfolkfestival.com
- > Lay your eyes on the oldest surviving self-righting lifeboat in the world at the Lifeboat Station, along with a collection of 19th century maritime rescue equipment. Book a guided tour through the Visitor Information Centre.
- > Get to know our town. Take a stroll past charming fully restored buildings and stone cottages built by whalers and seamen. Grab a map at the Visitor Information Centre and head out on the Port Fairy Historic Town Walk.
- > Wander on foot around windswept Griffiths Island where 19th century whalers toiled. The 1859 bluestone lighthouse still casts its warning light out across the ocean. Collect a brochure before following the interpretive walking trail. Or head a little further out of town and take a tour of Tower Hill Nature Reserve for a wildlife experience.

Merrijig Kitchen Front & Garden Bars

Afternoon drinks in Summer must be done in our Garden Bar. Seasonal cocktails that make the most of our garden (boozy or booze free), a snappy little beer list... and bar snacks of our flavourful & rustic food, flowing from our little garden shed. Drink & chat sitting within our veggie patch, under the pines, with a view of the River Moyne. Our Front Bar might be Port Fairy's smallest, but it's a little gem & unique to our historic Inn. Open Thu-Mon 3pm-sundown.
