VIBRANT ECONOMY IN GREAT VANCOUVER

- Top start-up city as ranked by Startup Compass The Fourth greenest city in the world
- Vancouver is one of the top 10 lowest-risk cities in the world to recruit, employ, and redeploy business
- Vancouver is a magnet for global talent and investment, attracting over half a billion dollars in venture capital every year
- Supportive business environment

• Economically Strong – Vancouver boasts one of Canada's most dynamic economies. As the official gateway to the Pacific Rim, this British Columbian city serves as a crucial port and the main western terminus for transcontinental highway and rail networks. Over time, Vancouver has impressively shifted from its primarily resource-oriented economy to a diverse, knowledge-based one, making it the fastest-growing economy in Canada in recent years.

WESTERN
BRITISH COLUMBIA POLYTECHNIC
COLLEGE

• Technology and Innovation – Vancouver is home to about 75,000 of B.C.'s 100,000 tech professionals, making it a leading hub for innovation and startups. The city hosts over 10,000 tech companies with combined revenues exceeding $23 billion, contributing $15 billion to the province's GDP. With steady 6% annual growth, Vancouver continues to attract global talent and drive the expansion of the technology sector.

• Social Diversity – Vancouver's rich cultural mix is shaped by its social, racial, and ethnic diversity. About 52% of residents identify as visible minorities, and 46% speak a mother tongue other than English, creating a vibrant tapestry of languages, traditions, and heritage.
