

My Family IS moving!

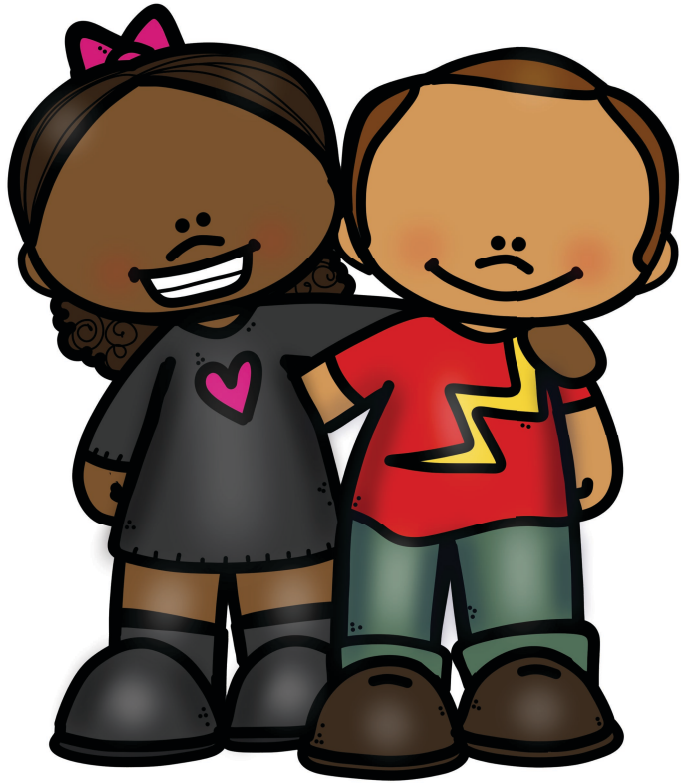

My family is going to be moving.

When families move, it means that they pack up all the things in their home and move it to a new home.

Some people are happy to move and some people feel a little sad.!

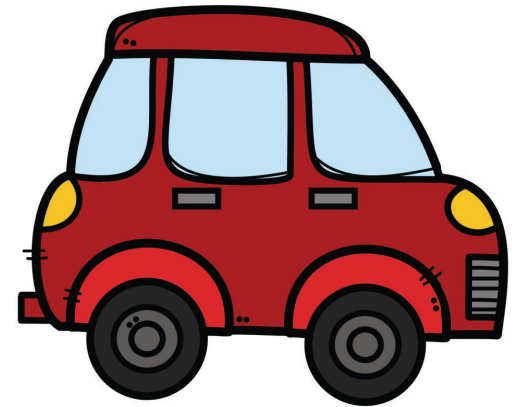

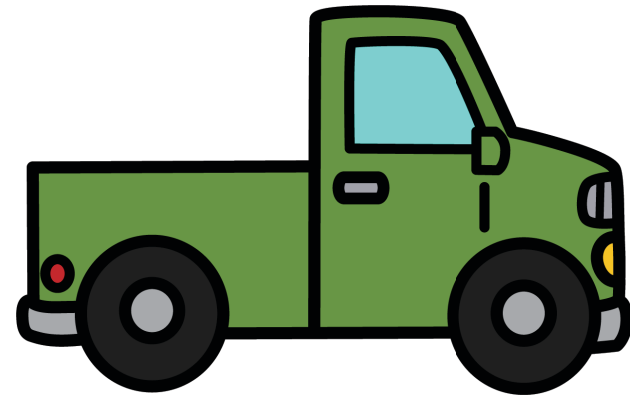

But, moving can be fun! I will get to see new places and make more friends.

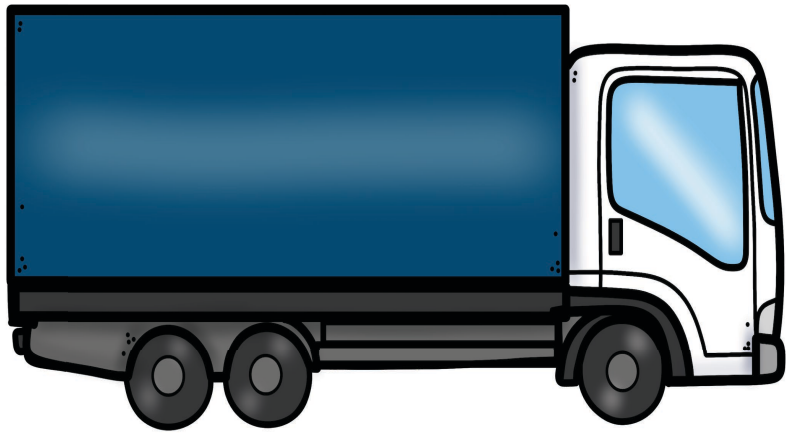

Before we move, we will put many of the things in our house into boxes.

My toys and clothes will go in boxes. Those things only go in boxes to move them to the new home. I WILL see them again!

When everything in my home is packed, we will use our car or truck to move the boxes.

Some people get a very big truck to move everything
all at once!

The cars and trucks will move
everything to the new home.
Then we can unpack all the boxes.

It will be so fun to find all of my favorite things in the boxes!

Moving can make me feel a little worried, but it can be really fun to live in a new place!
I can handle the change!
