JERRY BELL SOUNDING OFF SOUL

WRITTEN BY NATASHA OLSON

Interviewing Mr. Jerry Bell was an incredible moment in my career. As a musician myself, who grew up in a house always playing The Dazz Band and all of Jerry's Motown contemporaries, to have the opportunity to gain insight into the wisdom of a musical legend was invaluable. This interview was not only exciting but inspiring to me on a spiritual level and hopefully the same for all of our readers.

Q: What is a major highlight in your career, musical or otherwise?

A: The major highlight in my career is always being able to be on stage. I love it with all my heart. When I am entertaining on stage, I see life in a different view.

Q: What separates true old-school R&B from the rest of music today? What makes it remarkable to you on a musical level?

A: Well, what you are hearing today is not music. It is synthetic, it has no real life! There is no substance. What I do is create a sound, we play real instruments, we write and compose real music note by note, and sing. In my world, there is no such thing as auto-tune! And the frequencies are different. What God-given man cannot re-create. In other words, it's not original.

Q: Being a part of funk group The New Birth, how did it feel to be a part of the R&B and Funk movement in the 1970s? Why do you think there's such a lasting legacy today?

A: The only explanation I can give you is that it was overwhelming, one of the extraordinary experiences of my life. I feel like it is my responsibility to keep the music alive! This music is for the soul, and that is why it is called soul music! R&B, meaning the rhythm is from the body and the blues is from the soul. It is an expression from our ancestors who experienced the tragedy of slavery and being sold and tortured and being torn from the knowledge of self. Whatever is original will always have a legacy.

Q: Motown has such a strong legacy in the world of music. How was it working with Motown Records while singing for The Dazz Band?

A: I was working with Motown long before The Dazz Band, with the likes of Marvin Gaye, Stevie Wonder, The Jacksons, and Iris Grody. But singing for the Dazz Band was great. Phillip Bailey and Ralph Johnson of Earth Wind & Fire introduced me to Bobby Harris, who was the leader of the group at the time as their new lead vocalist.

Q: What advice would you give to aspiring R&B musicians today?

A: Practice, patience, persistence and perseverance, and an undying will for truth.

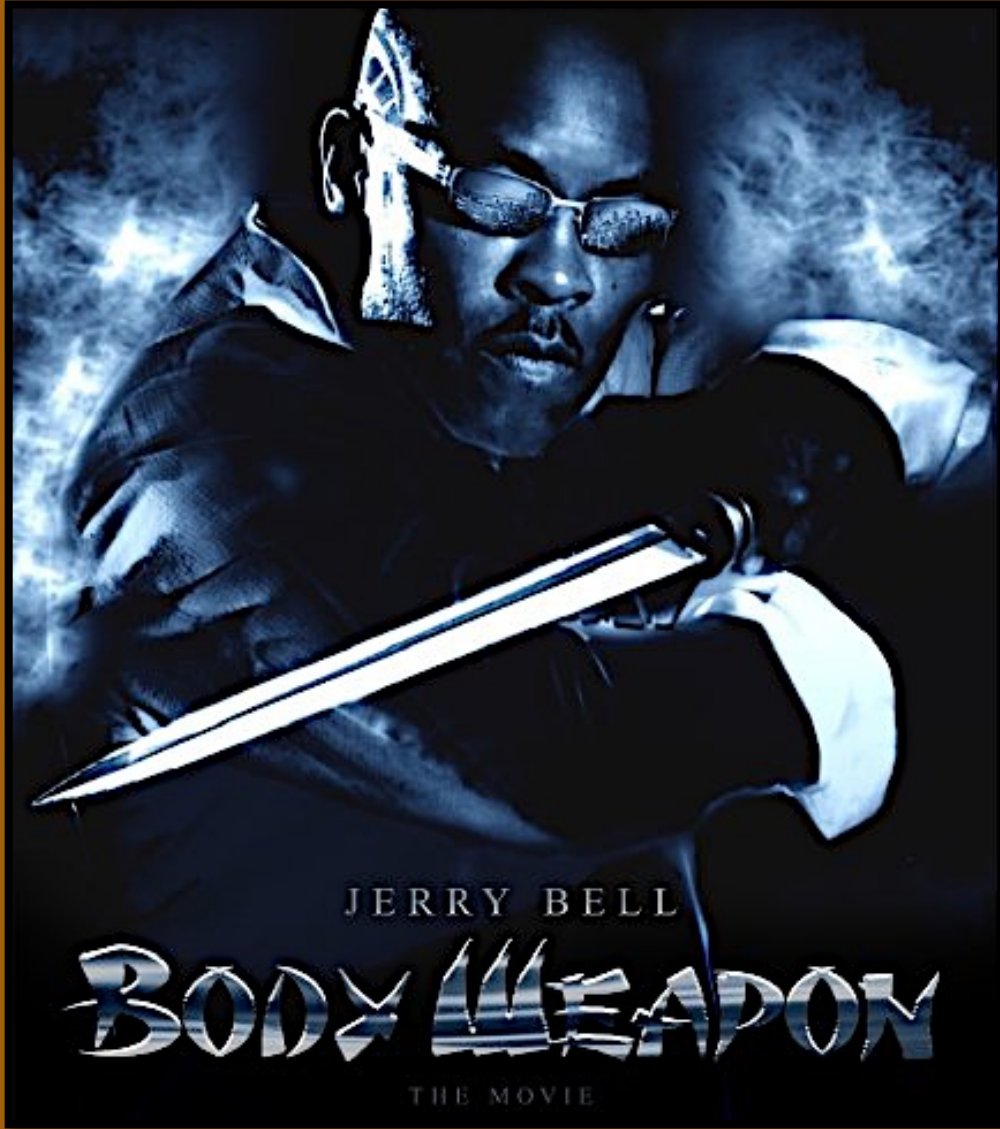

Q: What upcoming projects are you most excited about?

A: I have a concert at Universal Studios Hollywood on April 16, 2022, and a new CD coming out in June, plus more shows.

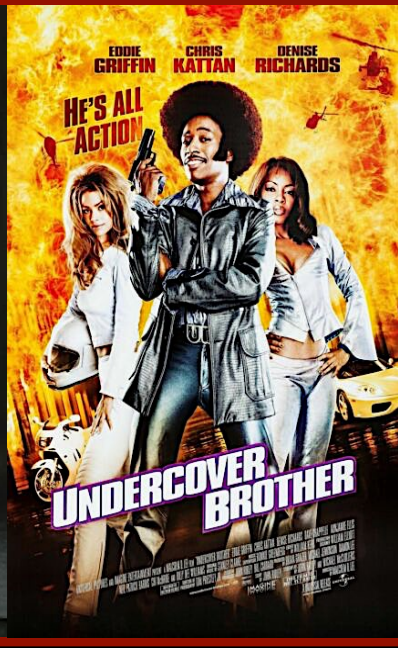

Q: In a few of your own words, how would you describe your essence?

A: My essence is to serve all mankind and all other life forces that exist for the betterment of the universe, through my music and my example of how I live in this journey called life.

Dear Jerry Bell -San

This is Kanji Ishikawa, my father ask me to write this letter to you for him, his eyes don't do him well now days. Please for give me! First I want to say domo to you for your love for my father and mother and me! Im so glad you came into our lives, if it wasn't for your inspiration in my life I would not be doing music.

Now I am directing the Osaka Philharmonic! The last time I saw you I think I was 10 years old. How time moves so fast now. My father is now 89 years and my mother is 78. My father wish for you to come back to Nihon, he miss's you very much and he speaks of you often. My father love's you as a son and I look to you as my older brother. I will always remember the day you went with us to the Meiji Shrine that was a wonderful time.

The dojo has grown a lot, we have now about 200 students here in Osaka and about 170 in the prefecture of Chiba and 80 in Fukuoka. Everyone here knows of you as the great Bushi my father lets everyone know of you every chance he gets. He is afraid that he will not see you before he joins the next world. He is not sick or anything but he is getting old, and I think your just on his mind a lot. I take him onto my facebook page and youtube for him to see how you are doing but you know my father he is still Sensei and is very old school, he needs to see your face in front of him.

Please write us back or you can call the house phone, after all these years the number is still the same and the dojo number is also. My cell number is 06-6324-7723. We miss you big brother! Sensei says to tell you this!
 The true essence of the Budo can only be realized through experience. Knowing this, learn never to fear its demands and always remember in Budo the rewards of a confident and grateful heart are truly abundant!
