Book of Revelation Bible Study Plan

Introduction:

The book of Revelation is a fascinating and often challenging book of the Bible. Written by the Apostle John, it is filled with vivid imagery and symbolism that can be difficult to understand. However, with careful study and prayer, we can gain a deeper understanding of the message that God has for us through this book. This Bible study plan is designed to guide you through the book of Revelation, helping you to explore its meaning and apply its truths to your life.

Week 1: Revelation Chapters 1-3

During this week, focus on the opening chapters of Revelation, which set the stage for the rest of the book. In chapter 1, we see Jesus in his glory and hear his message to the churches. In chapters 2-3, we see Jesus addressing specific churches, offering praise and critique, and calling them to repentance. Spend time reflecting on what Jesus says to each church and consider how his words might apply to your own life and the church today.

Introduction:

The book of Revelation is a highly symbolic and apocalyptic text, written by John while he was exiled on the island of Patmos. It is a vision given to John by Jesus, providing a glimpse into the future events of the world, and ultimately, the end times. Chapters 1-3 of Revelation are known as the letters to the seven churches, where Jesus addresses seven different churches in Asia Minor. Through these letters, Jesus provides commendation, correction, and exhortation to each church. In this study, we will examine each of these letters, seeking to understand their significance and application for our lives today.

1. Revelation 1:1-20 - Introduction and Vision of the Son of Man
  - What is the significance of the phrase "the revelation of Jesus Christ" (v. 1)?
  - What does John see in his vision of the Son of Man (vv. 12-16)?
  - What is the significance of the seven stars and seven lampstands (vv. 16-20)?
2. Revelation 2:1-7 - Letter to the Church in Ephesus
  - What is the commendation that Jesus gives to the church in Ephesus (v. 2-3)?
  - What is the correction that Jesus gives to the church in Ephesus (v. 4)?
  - What is the exhortation that Jesus gives to the church in Ephesus (v. 5)?
  - How can we apply this letter to our lives today?
3. Revelation 2:8-11 - Letter to the Church in Smyrna
  - What is the commendation that Jesus gives to the church in Smyrna (v. 9)?
  - What is the warning that Jesus gives to the church in Smyrna (v. 10)?

CONCLUSION:

THE BOOK OF REVELATION IS A CHALLENGING BUT REWARDING BOOK TO STUDY. AS WE SEEK TO UNDERSTAND ITS MESSAGE AND APPLY ITS TRUTHS TO OUR LIVES, MAY WE BE ENCOURAGED AND STRENGTHENED IN OUR FAITH, AND MAY WE LIVE WITH A GREATER SENSE OF URGENCY AND HOPE IN THE MIDST OF A BROKEN WORLD.

  - How can we apply this letter to our lives today?
7. Revelation 3:7-13 - Letter to the Church in Philadelphia
- What is the commendation that Jesus gives to the church in Philadelphia

Week 2: Revelation Chapters 4-7

This week, focus on the vision of God's throne room in chapter 4 and the seven seals in chapter 5. In chapter 6, we see the opening of the seals, which reveal the four horsemen of the apocalypse and other cataclysmic events. As you study these chapters, consider what they reveal about God's sovereignty and the ultimate triumph of his kingdom.

Introduction:

In Chapters 4-7 of Revelation, John continues his vision of the end times. In Chapter 4, John sees a vision of the throne room of God and the worship of the creatures around it. In Chapter 5, John sees a vision of the Lamb who was slain, who is worthy to open the seals of the scroll. In Chapter 6, the seals are opened, revealing events that will take place on earth during the end times. In Chapter 7, John sees a vision of the sealing of the 144,000 and the great multitude that no one can number. In this study, we will examine each of these chapters, seeking to understand their significance and application for our lives today.

1. Revelation 4:1-11 - The Vision of the Throne Room of God
  - What does John see in his vision of the throne room of God (vv. 2-6)?
  - What is the significance of the creatures and elders worshiping around the throne (vv. 8-11)?
  - How can we apply this vision of the throne room of God to our lives today?
2. Revelation 5:1-14 - The Vision of the Lamb Who Was Slain
  - What is the significance of the scroll with seven seals (v. 1)?
  - Who is worthy to open the scroll (v. 5)?
  - What is the response of the creatures and elders to the Lamb who was slain (vv. 8-14)?
  - How can we apply this vision of the Lamb who was slain to our lives today?
3. Revelation 6:1-17 - The Opening of the Seals
  - What are the events that take place when the first four seals are opened (vv. 2-8)?
  - What are the events that take place when the fifth seal is opened (vv. 9-11)?
  - What are the events that take place when the sixth seal is opened (vv. 12-17)?
  - How can we apply this vision of the opening of the seals to our lives today?
4. Revelation 7:1-8 - The Sealing of the 144,000
  - Who are the 144,000 that are sealed (v. 4)?
  - What is the significance of the sealing of the 144,000 (vv. 2-3, 9-10)?
  - How can we apply this vision of the sealing of the 144,000 to our lives today?
5. Revelation 7:9-17 - The Great Multitude
  - Who is the great multitude that John sees (vv. 9-10)?
  - What is the significance of the great multitude (vv. 13-17)?
  - How can we apply this vision of the great multitude to our lives today?

Conclusion:

The visions in Chapters 4-7 of Revelation provide a glimpse into the end times and the events that will take place. They remind us of the majesty and power of God, the sacrificial work of the Lamb who was slain, and the hope that we have in Him. As we seek to apply these visions to our lives today, may we be encouraged to trust in God's sovereignty, to live in readiness for His return, and to share the good news of salvation with others.

Week 3: Revelation Chapters 8-11

During this week, focus on the seven trumpets, which are sounded in chapters 8-11. These trumpet blasts herald the coming of judgment and the culmination of God's plan. As you study these chapters, consider what they reveal about the nature of God's judgment and the importance of repentance.

Introduction:

In Chapters 8-11 of Revelation, John continues his vision of the end times. In Chapter 8, John sees the opening of the seventh seal and the sounding of the first four trumpets. In Chapter 9, the fifth and sixth trumpets are sounded, revealing the release of demonic locusts and horsemen. In Chapter 10, John sees a vision of a mighty angel with a little scroll. In Chapter 11, John is told to measure the temple and sees the ministry of the two witnesses. In this study, we will examine each of these chapters, seeking to understand their significance and application for our lives today.

1. Revelation 8:1-13 - The Seventh Seal and the First Four Trumpets
  - What happens when the seventh seal is opened (v. 1)?
  - What are the events that take place when the first four trumpets are sounded (vv. 7-12)?
  - How can we apply these visions of the seventh seal and the first four trumpets to our lives today?
2. Revelation 9:1-21 - The Fifth and Sixth Trumpets
  - What is the significance of the fifth trumpet and the release of the demonic locusts (vv. 1-12)?
  - What is the significance of the sixth trumpet and the release of the four horsemen (vv. 13-21)?
  - How can we apply these visions of the fifth and sixth trumpets to our lives today?
3. Revelation 10:1-11 - The Mighty Angel with the Little Scroll
  - Who is the mighty angel with the little scroll (vv. 1-3)?
  - What is the significance of the seven thunders (v. 4)?
  - What is the message of the little scroll (vv. 8-11)?
  - How can we apply this vision of the mighty angel with the little scroll to our lives today?
4. Revelation 11:1-14 - The Measuring of the Temple and the Ministry of the Two Witnesses
  - What is the significance of measuring the temple (vv. 1-2)?
  - Who are the two witnesses (vv. 3-6)?
  - What happens to the two witnesses (vv. 7-14)?

This week, focus on the woman and the dragon in chapter 12, the two beasts in chapter 13, and the Lamb and the 144,000 in chapter 14. These chapters offer a symbolic look at the spiritual warfare that is taking place behind the scenes and the ultimate victory of the Lamb. As you study these chapters, consider how they relate to your own battles against evil and the hope that we have in Christ.

NOTES:

Book of Revelation Bible Study Plan

- How can we apply this vision of the measuring of the temple and the ministry of the two witnesses to our lives today?
5. Revelation 11:15-19 - The Seventh Trumpet and the Kingdom of God
- What happens when the seventh trumpet is sounded (vv. 15-18)?
  - What is the significance of the opening of the temple in heaven (v. 19)?
  - How can we apply this vision of the seventh trumpet and the kingdom of God to our lives today?

Conclusion:

The visions in Chapters 8-11 of Revelation continue to provide a glimpse into the end times and the events that will take place. They remind us of the need to repent and turn to God, the reality of spiritual warfare, and the hope that we have in the coming of the kingdom of God. As we seek to apply these visions to our lives today, may we be encouraged to live in readiness for the return of Christ, to stand firm in our faith, and to share the good news of salvation with others.

Week 4: Revelation Chapters 12-14

This week, focus on the woman and the dragon in chapter 12, the two beasts in chapter 13, and the Lamb and the 144,000 in chapter 14. These chapters offer a symbolic look at the spiritual warfare that is taking place behind the scenes and the ultimate victory of the Lamb. As you study these chapters, consider how they relate to your own battles against evil and the hope that we have in Christ.

Introduction:

In Chapters 12-14 of Revelation, John continues his vision of the end times. In Chapter 12, John sees a woman and a dragon, symbolizing the conflict between God and Satan. In Chapter 13, John sees two beasts, representing political and religious powers that oppose God. In Chapter 14, John sees the Lamb on Mount Zion and the vision of the three angels, announcing judgment on the earth. In this study, we will examine each of these chapters, seeking to understand their significance and application for our lives today.

1. Revelation 12:1-17 - The Woman and the Dragon
  - Who is the woman in this vision (v. 1)?
  - Who is the dragon (v. 3)?
  - What is the significance of the male child (v. 5)?
  - What is the significance of the war in heaven (vv. 7-9)?

Week 6: Revelation Chapters 19-22

This week, focus on the triumphant return of Christ in chapter 19, the final judgment in chapter 20, the new heaven and earth in chapters 21-22. These chapters offer a glimpse into the ultimate victory of God's kingdom and the hope that we have in Christ. As you study these chapters, consider how they inspire us to live with a sense of urgency and hope in the midst of a broken world.

Introduction:

In Chapters 19-22 of Revelation, John's vision continues with the final events of the end times. In Chapter 19, John sees the triumphal entry of the King of Kings, followed by the destruction of the beast and false prophet. In Chapter 20, John sees the binding of Satan, the millennial reign of Christ, and the final judgment. In Chapter 21, John sees the new heaven and earth, and the new Jerusalem. In Chapter 22, John concludes his vision with the promise of Christ's return and a final call to repentance. In this study, we will examine each of these chapters, seeking to understand their significance and application for our lives today.

During this week, focus on the seven trumpets, which are sounded in chapters 8-11. These trumpet blasts herald the coming of judgment and the culmination of God's plan. As you study these chapters, consider what they reveal about the nature of God's judgment and the importance of repentance.
