FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Québecor Stingray Women's Cycling Team kicks off its 2019 season and announces its roster for the coming year.

Montreal, February 28, 2019 – While many of its riders have already started their season with projects sponsored by Cycling Canada and Team Quebec, the Québecor Stingray women cycling team officially begins its activities for the 2019 season this week with a two-week camp in the Temecula area in California.

This year, the Team welcomes three rookies from the U17 ranks, Adèle and Florence Normand from Chicoutimi and Adèle Desgagnés from Montreal, the current Canadian Jr Road Champion.

“In 2018, the Team took off with exceptional results. This year, we want to confirm our status of leading team in the Junior ranks and make our mark in the Elite category. Beginning the year with the Maple Leaf jersey is obviously a great source of motivation for all to do well” said Yannick Bédard, Sporting Director.

The Team is also pleased to confirm the return of its sponsors: Québecor, Stingray, Banque Nationale du Canada, TFI International, KPMG and Victoriaville Volkswagen.

Again this year, the riders will wear Jakroo kits and Kask helmets and will ride FELT performance bikes maintained with tools and products from Pedros.

The 2019 roster for Québecor Stingray Women's Cycling Team are:

U23 Cat.

Joséphine Péloquin

Junior Cat.

Adèle Desgagnés

Adèle Normand

Florence Normand

Lily Plante

Magdeleine Vallières-Mill
