

A full-page photograph of two female housekeepers in a hotel room. They are both smiling and focused on their work. The housekeeper on the left is wearing a light-colored uniform and is smoothing a white towel on a bed. The housekeeper on the right is wearing a dark vest over a light-colored shirt and is also smoothing the bed. In the background, there is a balcony with a railing, a wicker chair, and a table with a bowl of fruit (bananas and apples). Large windows with dark frames and light-colored curtains are visible, offering a view of a lush green landscape. The overall atmosphere is bright and professional.
