B. Unit Boundaries.

Each Unit shall consist of the following:

(a) the volumes of space enclosed by the unfinished inner surfaces of perimeter walls, floors and ceilings reflected on the Condominium Plat, including vents, doors, windows and such other structural elements as are ordinarily considered to be enclosures of space;

(b) all interior dividing walls and partitions (including the space occupied by such interior walls and partitions), excepting load-bearing interior walls and partitions; and

In addition, any utility lines which are located within a Unit and which provide service to more than one Unit shall be considered to be Common Elements, notwithstanding their physical location being within the Unit's boundaries. If a wall or roof surface overhangs or part of a Unit encroaches onto the Common Elements, the overhanging or encroaching specific portion of such Unit shall be a part of the Unit.

C. Phase Condominium; Property Which May Be Submitted to Condominium Form of Ownership.

The Condominium is a phase condominium. The Developer, pursuant to the provisions of Section 718.403, Florida Statutes, hereby retains the right at any time prior to seven (7) years after the recording date of this Declaration to submit to the condominium form of ownership, by amendment to this Declaration, the additional proposed phases depicted on the Condominium Plat and as described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto.

Subject to unforeseen delays beyond the control of the Developer, the estimated latest date of completion of constructing, finishing and equipping Phase 1 is December 31, 2002. All future phases, if submitted to the Condominium, shall be constructed, finished and equipped on or before seven (7) years from the date of recording this Declaration. The above dates of completion are estimates only and subject to sales performance or building delays, except as otherwise required by applicable law.

Phase 1 shall contain six (6) buildings, each containing four (4) Units, for a total of twenty-four (24) Units in Phase 1. It is contemplated that proposed Phase 2, if added to the Condominium, shall contain twelve (12) buildings, each containing four (4) Units, for a total of forty-eight (48) Units in Phase 2. It is contemplated that proposed Phase 3, if added to the Condominium, shall contain seventeen (17) buildings, each containing four (4) Units, for a total of sixty-eight (68) units in Phase 3. There shall be a maximum of one hundred forty (140) Units, if all phases are added to the Condominium.

The total square footage of each unit in a proposed phase will depend upon the model to be constructed therein. The Developer hereby reserves the right to alter the size of the models to be constructed as Units in proposed phases, provided that such models shall have no less than one thousand (1,000) square feet of air conditioned living area and no more than two thousand (2,000) square feet of air conditioned living area. The Condominium Plat shows the legal descriptions and the approximate locations of the proposed phases and improvements proposed to be constructed thereon. The Developer reserves the right to make nonmaterial changes in the legal descriptions of the proposed future phases.

The Developer is under no obligation to add any proposed phase to the Condominium. If and when a proposed phase is added to the Condominium, each Unit Owner's undivided share of the Common Elements will change according to the provisions of Section 6 hereof, and the number of members in the Association will increase in accordance with Section 6 hereof.

Except for Phase 1, the Developer is under no obligation to develop or add to the Condominium any additional phase or phases in the numerical order presented.

D. Amendment of Declaration Adding Phases. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or the provisions of Section 718.110, Florida Statutes, the Developer, pursuant to this Section 3.D. and Section 718.403(6), Florida Statutes, expressly reserves the right to amend this Declaration so as to submit to condominium ownership any additional proposed phase or phases described in Section 3.D. herein, together with improvements thereon constructed or to be constructed as part and parcel of this Condominium, without consent of the Association, Unit Owners (other than the Developer) or their mortgagees.

In order to submit any proposed phase to condominium ownership, the Developer shall amend this Declaration as aforescribed by filing an Amendment to Declaration among the public records of the County, which amendment shall describe and submit to condominium ownership any such proposed phase and which amendment shall have attached thereto such certificates, surveys, plans and sketches as are required by the Act. Such amendment need be executed and acknowledged only by the Developer and need not be approved by the Association, Unit Owners, or lienors or mortgagees of Units of the Condominium whether or not elsewhere required for amendments, save and except that so long as any recognized lending institution has any interim and permanent financing on any of the properties of the Developer which have been submitted to condominium ownership, then only in that event shall it be mandatory for the Developer to obtain the approval of said recognized lending institution to the amendment as provided for herein.

NOTHING CONTAINED HEREIN SHALL REQUIRE THE DEVELOPER TO SUBMIT ANY ADDITIONAL PHASE TO CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP.

E. Timeshare Estates. Timeshare estates or interests shall not be created with respect to any Units in the Condominium.

F. Limited Common Elements.

(a) Definition of Certain Limited Common Elements. To the extent applicable and subject to the provisions of this Declaration, each Unit may have, as Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto, such portions of the Common Elements as are defined herein and/or shown on the Condominium Plat, including, but not limited to, the following:

(i) any area labeled as a Limited Common Element on the Condominium Plat and contiguous to a Unit or identified as being appurtenant to a Unit, such as, but not necessarily limited to, balconies, driveways, lanais and garage areas;

(ii) light and electrical fixtures outside the Unit or attached to the exterior walls of the building in which the Unit is located, which fixtures are designed to exclusively serve and benefit the Unit;

(iii) the structure(s) located on or adjacent to the exterior of the building on which is located any air-conditioning equipment serving the Unit;

(iv) any and all hurricane shutters which are attached to the exterior of the Unit and which are designed and constructed solely for the benefit and protection of such Unit;

(v) the mailbox which exclusively serves a Unit; the mailboxes may not be on Condominium Property, however, Unit Owners will have access to their mailbox;

(vi) any and all installations for security purposes contained within a building which are designed to exclusively serve the Units contained within such building; and

(vii) the outside entrance area for each Unit.

G. Easements. The following easements are hereby created (in addition to any easements created under the Act and any other provisions of this Declaration):

(a) There shall be an easement of support in every portion of a Unit which contributes to the support of any building or Common Elements of the Condominium or the other Units within the same building.

(b) An exclusive easement for the use of the air space occupied by the Unit as it exists at any particular time and as the Unit may lawfully be altered or reconstructed from time to time, which easement shall be terminated automatically in the event the Unit vacates such air space.

(c) Non-exclusive easements are hereby reserved unto the Developer and also granted to the respective utility providers under, through and over the Condominium Property as may be required from time to time for the construction, use and maintenance of all utilities (whether public or private), cable television, communications and security systems, and other services which may serve the Condominium; provided, however, that these easements shall not permanently interfere with the residential use of the Units. A non-exclusive easement is also reserved unto the Developer and granted to the County over and across the Common Elements for the purpose of providing drainage and for the installation, operation, use and maintenance of drainage facilities; provided, however, that the Association shall be responsible for the continuous maintenance of the easements and rights-of-way of the drainage system located on the Condominium Property, if required by the local governing authority. This obligation shall run with the land as do other provisions of the Declaration, and any Unit Owner may enforce this covenant and will be entitled to costs and fees which result from such enforcement. A Unit Owner shall do nothing within or outside his Unit that interferes with or impairs, or may interfere with or impair, the provision of such utility, cable television, communications and security systems, or other service or drainage facilities or the use of these easements.

(d) If (a) any portion of the Common Elements encroaches upon any Unit, (b) any Unit encroaches upon any other Unit or upon any portion of the Common Elements, or (c) any encroachment shall hereafter occur as a result of (i) construction of the improvements, (ii) settling or shifting of the improvements, (iii) any alteration or repair to the Common Elements made by or with the consent of the Association or Developer, as appropriate, or (iv) any repair or restoration of the improvements (or any portion thereof) or any Unit after damage by fire or other casualty or any taking by condemnation or eminent domain proceedings of all or any portion of any Unit or the Common Elements; then, in any such event, a valid easement shall exist for such encroachment and for the maintenance of the same so long as the improvements shall stand.

(e) A non-exclusive easement in favor of each Unit Owner and resident and their guests and invitees shall exist for pedestrian traffic over, through and across sidewalks, streets, paths, walks, and other portions of the Common Elements as from time to time may be intended and designated for such purpose and use and for vehicular and pedestrian traffic over, through and across such portions of the Common Elements as from time to time may be paved and intended for such purposes. None of the easements specified in this subparagraph shall be encumbered by any leasehold or lien other than those on the Condominium Parcels, unless such lien is subordinate to the rights of Unit Owners and the Association with respect to such easements.

(f) The Developer (including its designees, contractors, successors and assigns) shall have the right, in its (and their) sole discretion from time to time, to enter the Condominium Property and take all action necessary or convenient for the purpose of completing the construction thereof (including, but not limited to, any proposed phase), or any part thereof, or any improvements or Units located or to be located thereon (including, but not limited to, any proposed phase), and for repair, replacement and maintenance purposes or where the Developer, in its sole discretion, determines that it is required or desires to do so.

(g) For as long as there are any unsold Units, the Developer, its designees, successors and assigns, shall have the right to use any such Units and parts of the Common Elements for model units and sales, management and construction offices, to show model Units and the Common Elements to prospective purchasers and tenants of Units within the overall Condominium, and to erect on the Condominium Property signs and other promotional material to advertise Units for sale or lease.

(h) Easements over, under, across, and through Units for conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring and other facilities for the furnishing of utility and other services to the Units and the Common Elements.

(i) All easements described or shown on the Condominium Plat or created under the Act.

(j) Until such time as the Developer (i) completes and sells all of the Units in Phase 1 and (ii) either (A) completes and sells all of the Units in proposed Phases 2 through 3, inclusive, (B) completes and sells all of the Units in one or more of the proposed phases of the Condominium and notifies all Unit Owners of Developer's intention not to add the remaining phases of the Condominium, or (C) notifies the Unit Owners in Phase 1 of its intention not to add any proposed phases to the Condominium, the Developer reserves the right to prohibit access to any portion of the Common Elements of the Condominium Property or uncompleted Units to any of the occupants of the Condominium, and to utilize various portions of the Common Elements or the Units in connection with such construction and development; provided, however, that no such actions by the Developer shall serve to deny a unit owner the right of access to his Unit or the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements that provide such access. No Unit Owner or his guests or invitees shall in any way interfere or hamper the Developer, its employees, successors or assigns, in connection with such construction. Thereafter, during such time as the Developer, its successors or assigns, owns any Units and is carrying on any business in connection therewith, including the selling, renting or leasing of such Units, the Unit Owners, their guests and invitees, shall in no way interfere with such activities or prevent access to such Units by the Developer, its employees or its successors or assigns.

A Unit Owner shall do nothing within or outside his Unit that interferes with or impairs, or may interfere with or impair, the provision of services contemplated or the use of the easements created under this Section. The Association and its authorized agents shall have the irrevocable right of access to each Unit during reasonable hours, when necessary, to maintain, repair or replace those items and areas contemplated herein for which the Association is responsible, and to remove any improvements interfering with or impairing such facilities or easements herein reserved pursuant to the Declaration or as necessary to prevent damage to the Common Elements or to a Unit or Units.

Wherever in this Section or elsewhere in this Declaration an easement is granted or reserved to any party, such easement shall also benefit such party's successors, grantees, assigns, agents, employees, licensees, invitees and guests. Unless specifically stated otherwise, all easements referred to herein shall be non-exclusive easements.

H. Special Easements and Rights to Grant Easements.

(a) Developer hereby reserves unto itself and its successors and its assigns, and grants to the Association with the power to assign, non-exclusive easements over, under and through the Condominium Property for the construction, maintenance and operation of electric, gas and other utility systems, cable television, security systems, communications service and other easements pertaining to the construction, maintenance and operation of such equipment, conduits, pipes, lines and similar installations servicing the Condominium Property or other property, with the power to relocate any such existing easements in any portion of the Condominium Property and/or Association Property, provided that such easements or the relocation of easements will not prevent or unreasonably interfere with the reasonable use of the Units for residential purposes.

(b) Developer hereby reserves unto itself and its successors and its assigns, and grants to the Association with the power to assign, non-exclusive easements over, under, upon and through the Condominium Property for the purposes of access to, constructing or maintaining improvements upon, providing utility services to or across, or providing drainage to or from the Condominium Property, any other property which may become part of the Condominium Property pursuant to this Declaration, or any other property adjacent to the Condominium Property, provided that any such easement shall not interfere with the reasonable use of the Units for residential purposes.

(c) Developer hereby reserves unto itself and its successors and its assigns nonexclusive easements over, upon, and through the Condominium Property for vehicular and/or pedestrian traffic by the Developer, its designees, successors, assigns, licensees, lessees, invitees and guests, within the Condominium Property, provided that any such easement shall not interfere with the reasonable use of the Units for residential purposes.

I. Easements to Master Association. There is hereby created in favor of the Master Association (as defined in Section 25 below), and its successors, assigns and designees, non-exclusive perpetual easements over, under and across the Condominium Property for the purposes of operation, control, maintenance, repair, and replacement of those portions of the Common Elements which are the responsibility of the Master Association, and for any and all other functions and responsibilities of the Master Association, as set forth elsewhere herein or in the Master Declaration (as defined in Section 25 below). Non-exclusive, perpetual easements are hereby created in favor of the Master Association, its successors, assigns and designees, for installation, maintenance, repair and replacement of utilities, pipes, wires and systems serving the Master Association property. The above easements granted to the Master Association shall not be exercised in such a manner as to interfere with the residential use of the Units in the Condominium.

J. Incidental Damage. Any damage to any Unit caused by, or as a result of, the negligent carrying out of the maintenance responsibilities of the Association or another Unit Owner, shall be repaired promptly by the Association as a Common Expense, or the Unit Owner, as the case may be.

K. Intentional Damage. Any damage to any part of the Common Elements caused by, or as the result of, any intentional act of a Unit Owner, the Unit Owner's family, agents, contractors, invitees, licensees or tenants, or by such Unit Owner in carrying out his maintenance responsibilities, if any, shall be repaired promptly at the expense of such Unit Owner.

4. Recreational Facilities.

Developer does not intend to construct any recreational facilities as a part of the Condominium.

The Condominium Property is located within the Development known as Majestic Golf and Country Club which is owned by Majestic Golf Club, L.L.C., a Florida limited liability company ("MGC"). All Unit Owners, their guests and invitees shall have use of certain recreational facilities owned by MGC. Said recreational facilities are the following: 12,000 square foot clubhouse containing a fitness center, a pool, and a pool deck. The Clubhouse shall have the capacity for 600 people. The fitness center shall be approximately 32 feet by 22 feet; and will contain a television, two (2) stair steppers, two (2) treadmills, three (3) exercise bikes, a Nordic Track, a weight machine, a weight bench, and an abdominal machine. The swimming pool shall be approximately 21 feet by 42 feet; will be 3.5 feet deep in the shallow end and 7 feet deep in the deep end; and will be heated. The pool deck will be approximately 667 square feet and will have the capacity for 44 people. The Association shall pay to MGC, as part of the Common Expenses, the Association's pro rata share of the maintenance and operating expenses for use of said recreational facilities. A copy of the Use Agreement between MGC and the Association is attached hereto as Exhibit "D".

5. Restraint on Separation and Partition of Common Elements.

The undivided share in the Common Elements and Common Surplus which is appurtenant to a Unit, and the exclusive right to use all appropriate appurtenant Limited Common Elements, shall not be separated from such Unit and shall pass with the title to the Unit, whether or not separately described. The appurtenant share in the Common Elements and Common Surplus, and the exclusive right to use all Limited Common Elements appurtenant to a Unit, cannot be conveyed or encumbered, except together with such Unit. The respective shares in the Common Elements appurtenant to Units shall remain undivided, and no action for partition of the Common Elements, the Condominium Property, or any part thereof, shall lie, except as provided herein with respect to termination of the Condominium.

6. Ownership of Common Elements and Common Surplus and Share of Common Expenses; Voting Rights.

A. Ownership Shares. The undivided share in the Common Elements and Common Surplus appurtenant to each Unit, as well as the undivided share of the Common Expenses to be paid with respect to each Unit, shall be computed on the following basis:

(a) Upon recordation of the Declaration submitting Phase 1 to condominium ownership, each Unit in Phase 1 shall have attributable thereto an undivided share in the Common Expenses and ownership of the Common Elements and the Common Surplus equal to a fraction, the numerator of which is one (1), and the denominator of which is the total number of all Units submitted to the Condominium.

(b) If and when any proposed additional phase is completed and submitted to condominium ownership, the undivided share in the Common Expenses and ownership of the Common Elements and the Common Surplus attributable to each Unit submitted shall be automatically adjusted to reflect the ownership interest of all Units submitted to the condominium form of ownership on the following basis: Upon submission of each additional phase, each Unit shall have attributable thereto an undivided share in the Common Expenses and ownership of the Common Elements and Common Surplus equal to a fraction, the numerator of which is one (1), and the denominator of which is the total number of all Units submitted to the Condominium. The adjusted percentage of the undivided share in the Common Expenses and ownership of the Common Elements and the Common Surplus attributable to each Unit shall automatically take effect on the recordation of the amendment submitting any proposed phase to condominium ownership pursuant to this Declaration. The adjusted percentage of the undivided share in the Common Expenses and ownership of the Common Elements and Common Surplus attributable to each Unit shall be binding upon the Unit Owners, their grantees, assigns, successors, executors and heirs.

B. Voting. Each Unit Owner shall be a member of the Association. Each Unit shall be entitled to one (1) vote to be cast by its Owner in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation of the Association. The total number of votes shall at all times be equal to the number of Units submitted to the condominium form of ownership under this Declaration and amendments hereto. Membership in the Association shall automatically terminate upon the termination of ownership of a Condominium Parcel in this Condominium, and the subsequent owner(s) taking title shall automatically become entitled to membership, subject to the approval of the Association.

7. Amendments.

A. Amendment by Unit Owners. Except as otherwise provided in this Declaration, the Condominium Act or the exhibits attached hereto, this Declaration (including the Condominium drawings constituting Exhibits hereto) may be amended by affirmative vote of the Owners of not less than Fifty-one (51%) percent of all the Units at an Association meeting duly called for such purpose pursuant to the Bylaws; provided, however, that (1) no amendment to this Declaration shall be made which affects any of the rights and privileges provided to the Developer as defined herein without the written consent of such Developer, and (2) no amendment may change the configuration or size of a Unit in any material fashion without the written consent of the affected Unit Owner(s). All amendments under this Section shall be recorded and certified as required by the Act.

B. Amendment by Developer.

(a) Amendment to Condominium Plans and Declaration. The Developer reserves the right to make whatever changes it may deem necessary or appropriate to the Condominium drawings recorded herewith and this Declaration until such time as fifty-one percent (51%) of the Units that will ultimately be conveyed to purchasers have been sold. The amendment reflecting such changes need only be executed by the Developer; provided, however, that no such amendment unilaterally approved by the Developer shall change the configuration or size of any Unit in any material fashion, materially alter or modify the appurtenances to the Unit, or change the proportion or percentage by which the Unit Owner shares the Common Expenses and owns the Common Surplus, unless such amendment is also approved by such Unit Owner and at least a majority of the total voting interests of the Association.

(b) Special Amendment. Developer reserves the right and power to record a special amendment ("Special Amendment") to this Declaration at any time and from time to time which amends the Declaration and any provision herein (i) to comply with requirements of the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Government National Mortgage Association, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Federal Housing Administration, the Veteran's Administration, or any other governmental agency or any other public, quasi-public or private entity which performs (or may in the future perform) functions similar to those currently performed by such entities; (ii) to induce any of such agencies or entities to make, purchase, sell, insure, guarantee or otherwise deal with first mortgages covering Units; and (iii) to bring this Declaration into compliance with applicable laws, ordinances or governmental regulations. In furtherance of the foregoing, a power coupled with an interest is hereby reserved and granted to the Developer to make or consent to a Special Amendment on behalf of each Unit Owner and the Association. Each deed, mortgage, trust deed, other evidence of obligation, or other instrument affecting a Unit and the acceptance thereof shall be deemed to be a grant and acknowledgement of, and a consent to the reservation of, the power of the Developer to make, execute and record Special Amendments. The right and power to make Special Amendments hereunder shall terminate either on such date when Developer has sold all Units and has transferred control of the Condominium to the Association or on December 31, 2008, whichever shall occur first.

(c) Unilateral Amendments by Developer. This Declaration and all exhibits hereto, where applicable, may be amended unilaterally by the Developer for the purposes set forth and pursuant to Section 718.110(5), Florida Statutes, to correct scrivener's errors, and Section 718.403(l), Florida Statutes, to add phases as provided for herein.

C. Amendment Pertaining to Storm Water Management System. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained herein, any amendment which will affect the storm water management system, including the management portion of the Common Elements, serving the Condominium must have the prior written approval of the South Florida Water Management District in order to be effective and binding.

D. Execution and Recording. An amendment, other than amendments made by the Developer alone pursuant to the Act or this Declaration, shall be evidenced by a certificate of the Association which shall include recording data identifying the Declaration and shall be executed with the same formalities required for the execution of a deed. Amendments by the Developer must be evidenced by a similar certificate executed by the Developer alone. An amendment of the Declaration is effective when the applicable certificate is properly recorded in the public records of the County.

E. Limitation. No amendment may be adopted which would eliminate, modify, prejudice, abridge or otherwise adversely affect any rights, benefits, privileges or priorities granted or reserved to the Developer without the consent of said Developer in each instance. The provisions of this paragraph may not be amended in any manner.

Responsibility for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the Condominium Property is as follows:

A. Common Elements.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Declaration, the Association shall manage, maintain, repair and replace, as part of the Common Expenses, all of the Common Elements as defined herein, including, but not limited to, the following:

(i) all water and waste water lines and piping, electric and other utility lines and systems serving the Common Elements or more than one (1) Unit exclusively;

B. Master Association. C. Units. The maintenance, repair and replacement of the Units shall be shared by the Association and the Unit Owners as follows:

(a) By the Association. The Association shall be responsible for maintaining, repairing and replacing all load-bearing walls contained within the Unit except for the finished surfaces thereof. The Association shall maintain all of the Units mailboxes, wherever situated. However it will be the responsibility of the Unit Owner to replace any lost mailbox keys. The cost of such maintenance shall constitute a Common Expense.

(b) By the Unit Owner. Each Unit Owner shall maintain, repair and replace everything within the confines of the Owner's Unit which is not to be maintained by the Association pursuant to this Section, including, but not limited to the following:

- (i) all exterior doors, windows, screens and frames of any permitted improvement, which surfaces shall be maintained in such manner as to preserve a uniform appearance among the Units of the Condominium;

(viii) all furniture, furnishings and personal property contained within the Unit; and

(ix) all other maintenance or repair of or replacements involving a Unit as contemplated and authorized hereunder.

D. Maintenance of Limited Common Elements. Except as set forth otherwise herein, the Limited Common Elements shall be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Association as part of the Common Expenses of the Condominium; provided, however, that:

(a) each respective Unit Owner may utilize the portions of the lanais which are constructed adjacent to and connected with a Unit for the exclusive use of such Unit Owner, and the Unit Owner shall be responsible for the maintenance of all items placed within such lanais;

(b) in the event such lanais contain screening and structures associated therewith, the Unit Owner shall be solely responsible for the maintenance, repair, replacement and reconstruction of all portions of such screening and the structures associated therewith in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Association; provided, however, the screening of any balcony shall be permitted only in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Declaration and with the prior written approval of the Association;

(c) each Unit Owner shall maintain the interior portions of the garage area which is permanently assigned for the exclusive use of the Unit Owner in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Association and as follows:

(i) each Unit Owner shall be responsible to maintain, repair and replace all portions of such garage area bounded as follows:

a. the volumes of space enclosed by the unfinished inner surfaces of perimeter walls, floors, and ceilings of such garage area, including vents, interior doors, windows and such other structural elements as are ordinarily considered to be enclosures of space;

b. all dividing walls and partitions (including the space occupied by such interior walls and partitions) located within such garage area, excepting load-bearing interior walls and partitions; and

c. the decorated inner surfaces of the perimeter and interior walls (including decorated inner surfaces of all interior load-bearing walls), ceilings and floors consisting of wallpaper, drywall, paint, plaster, carpeting, tiles, and all other finishing materials affixed or installed as part of the physical structure of the garage area;

(ii) no installations (excluding construction or installation of shelving or installation of freezer equipment) may be made by a Unit Owner without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors or an architectural control committee created by the Board of Directors pursuant to the Bylaws;

(iii) the Unit Owner shall be solely responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the automatic garage door opener which is designed to provide access to and from such garage area, and all equipment and appurtenances related thereto (for purposes of reference herein, the Unit Owner shall be the owner of such automatic garage door opener regardless of the fact that such opener is not located within the physical boundaries of the Unit);

(iv) the Unit Owner shall be solely responsible for the maintenance of all installations and tracks upon which the garage door will rise in order to provide ingress and egress to and from the garage area and all equipment and appurtenances related thereto;

(v) the Unit Owner shall be solely responsible for the maintenance, repair, replacement and reconstruction of the garage door, which responsibility shall include, but shall not be limited to, the painting and general upkeep of the garage door and maintenance of all locks contained therein. Only paint of a type and color designated by the Board may be used to paint garage doors;

(vi) the Unit Owner shall be solely responsible for the payment of all costs for providing electric service to the garage area which is permanently assigned to the Unit Owner for such Unit Owner's exclusive use, and shall be solely responsible for the maintenance, repair, replacement and reconstruction of all installations related thereto;

Should any maintenance, repair or replacement of a portion of the Limited Common Elements which is the responsibility of the Association be caused by the lessees, servants, guests, invitees or licensees of a Unit Owner, then such Unit Owner shall be responsible therefor and the Association shall have the right to levy a fine against the Owner of said Unit to ensure compliance herewith.

In the event a Unit Owner fails to adequately maintain, as determined by the Board, those items for which such Unit Owner is responsible, said Unit Owner shall adequately maintain said items after notice from the Association.

9. Additions, Alterations or Improvements by the Association.

Whenever, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the Common Elements, or any part thereof, shall require capital additions, alterations or improvements (as distinguished from maintenance, repairs and replacements) costing in excess of $25,000.00 in the aggregate in any calendar year, the Association may proceed with such additions, alterations or improvements only if the making of such additions, alterations or improvements shall have been approved a majority of the voting interests represented at a meeting at which a quorum is attained. Any such additions, alterations or improvements to such Common Elements, or any part thereof, costing in the aggregate $25,000.00 or less in a calendar year may be made by the Board of Directors without approval of the Unit Owners. The cost and expense of any such additions, alterations or improvements to such Common Elements shall be a "Capital Improvement Assessment" of the Unit Owners as provided in Section 13.B. hereof. For purposes of this Section, "aggregate in any calendar year" shall include the total debt incurred in that year, if such debt is incurred to perform the above-stated purposes, regardless of whether the repayment of any part of that debt is made beyond that year.

10. Additions, Alterations or Improvements by Unit Owner.

A. To the Common Elements. After the completion of the improvements included in the Common Elements which are set forth in this Declaration, or which are contemplated by the Developer in the completion of the development as set forth herein, there shall be no material alterations or substantial additions to Common Elements or Limited Common Elements of this Condominium, other than those specifically allowed elsewhere herein, except as authorized by the Board of Directors and approved by not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the total voting interests of the Condominium, provided that no alterations or additions may be made to the Limited Common Elements of any particular Unit if such alteration or addition will adversely affect or prejudice the rights of such Unit Owner, unless his consent first has been obtained. The cost of the foregoing shall be assessed as Common Expenses unless otherwise provided herein. No Unit Owner shall make, or allow to be made, any addition, alteration or improvement of any manner (specifically including, but not limited to, satellite dishes, antennas and the like), to or on any Common Element or Limited Common Element without the prior written consent of the Association.

B. Open Space. All open space areas contained within the Common Elements shall be preserved and developed solely as open space areas by the Developer, the Association or the Unit Owners in a manner detailed or contemplated herein or on the Condominium Plat. Neither the Association, the Developer nor the Unit Owners, without an appropriate amendment to the Development Order by the County, may utilize such areas for purposes other than as landscaped open spaces.

C. To the Units. Except as otherwise reserved by the Developer, no Unit Owner shall make any alteration or improvement to such Unit Owner's Unit except in accordance with this Section 10.C. A Unit Owner may make alterations and improvements to a Unit so long as such alterations or improvements are not visible from the outside of the Unit, do not impair the structural integrity of the building in which such Unit is contained, do not otherwise violate the terms of this Declaration, and are in compliance with all applicable building codes and laws. A Unit Owner may not expand, enlarge or relocate the boundaries of such Owner's Unit. Other alterations or improvements to a Unit which are not discussed in this Declaration may be made only if prior approval in writing is obtained from the Board or a committee designated by the Board in accordance with the Bylaws. As a condition to approval, the Board may require the Unit Owner to submit plans and specifications and a time frame for the alterations or improvements. The Board may refuse to approve alterations or improvements based on, among other things, aesthetic considerations.

D. Floor Coverings. Hard and/or heavy surface floor coverings, including, without limitation, tile, marble, or wood, in any area of a Unit, may not be installed without the prior written consent of the Association, except for in kitchen, bathroom and entry areas which have not been relocated or expanded to areas above the living rooms or bedrooms in the Units below, based on the locations shown in the floor plans attached hereto. The Association shall not approve the installation of hard and/or heavy surface floor coverings for which approval is required, unless the aggregate sound isolation and acoustical treatment carries a minimum Sound Transmission Classification (STC) of fifty (50) and a minimum Impact Isolation Classification (IIC) of forty eight (48) . The installation of the foregoing materials shall be performed in a manner that provides proper mechanical isolation of the flooring materials for any ridged part of the building structure, whether of the concrete subfloor (vertical transmission) or adjacent walls and fittings (horizontal transmission).

E. Indemnification by Unit Owner. A Unit Owner making or causing to be made any additions, alterations or improvements to the Unit or the Limited Common Elements as contemplated herein agrees, and shall be deemed to have agreed, for such Owner, and his heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, as appropriate, to hold the Association and all other Unit Owners harmless from and to indemnify them for any liability or damage to the Condominium Property and expenses arising therefrom, and shall be solely responsible for the maintenance, repair and insurance thereof from and after that date of installation or construction thereof as may be required by the Association.

11. Additions, Alterations or Improvements by Developer.

The foregoing restrictions of Section 10 shall not apply to Developer-owned Units. The Developer shall have the additional right, without the consent or approval of the Board of Directors or other Unit Owners, to make alterations, additions or improvements, structural and non-structural, interior and exterior, ordinary and extraordinary, in, to and upon any Unit owned by it, to the proposed or already constructed Units and the Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto. Such work shall include, without limitation (i) the removal of walls, floors, ceilings and other structural portions of the Unit; (ii) changes to the layout or number of rooms in any Developer-owned Units; and (iii) changes to the size and/or number of Developer-owned Units by combining separate Developer-owned Units or otherwise. Any amendments to this Declaration or the Condominium Plat required by actions taken pursuant to this Section may be effected by the Developer alone without the consent of any other person; provided, however, if any such amendment shall change the configuration or size of any Unit in any material fashion, materially alter or modify the appurtenances to the Unit, or change the proportion or percentage by which the Unit Owner shares the Common Expenses and owns the Common Surplus, the execution of the amendment to the Declaration effecting such change must be joined in by the record owners of the Unit, all record owners of liens on the affected Unit, and at least a majority of the total voting interests in the Association. The provisions of this Section may not be added to, amended or deleted unless by, or with the prior written consent of, the Developer.

12. Operation of the Condominium by the Association; Powers and Duties.

A. Powers and Duties. The Association shall be the entity responsible for the operation of the Condominium. The powers and duties of the Association shall include those set forth in the Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation, as amended from time to time. In addition, the Association shall have all the powers and duties set forth in the Act, as well as all powers and duties granted to or imposed upon it by this Declaration, including, without limitation, the following:

(a) The irrevocable right to have access to any portion of each Unit and its Limited Common Elements from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of such portions thereof as required by this Declaration or the Act, or at any time and by force, if necessary, for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the Common Elements or to any other Unit or Units.

(b) The power to make and collect Assessments and other related expenses authorized under the Act and this Declaration against Unit Owners, to lease, maintain, repair and replace the Common Elements, and to grant, modify or cancel easements pertaining to the Common Elements.

(c) The duty to maintain accounting records, according to good accounting practices, which shall be open to inspection by Unit Owners or their authorized representatives at reasonable times upon prior request.

(d) The power to contract for the management and maintenance of the Condominium Property and to authorize a duly licensed management agent (who may be an affiliate of the Developer) to assist the Association in carrying out its powers and duties by performing such functions as the submission of proposals, collection of Assessments, preparation of records, enforcement of rules and regulations, and perform the maintenance, repair and replacement required of the Association with such funds as shall be made available by the Association for such purposes. The Association shall also have the power to join with other condominium associations and entities in contracting for the maintenance and repair of the several condominium properties and other type properties, and may contract for or may join with other condominium or other associations in contracting for the management of the several condominium properties and other type properties.

(e) The power to borrow money, execute promissory notes and other evidences of indebtedness and to give as security therefor mortgages and security interests in property owned by the Association, if any, including, without limitation, the right to receive assessments.

(f) The power to adopt and amend rules and regulations concerning the details of the operation and use of the Condominium Property.

(g) The power to acquire, lease, mortgage, and convey real and personal property and to grant, modify and cancel easements regarding such property, provided that such action may be done only (i) upon the approval of a majority of the Board of Directors, and (ii) upon a finding by the Board that such action is for the benefit of the members of the Association. The requirements of Section 9 pertaining to the Unit Owners' approval of costs in excess of the threshold amount stated therein (including the provision as to the debt incurred) shall also apply to this provision dealing with acquisition of property; provided, however, that the acquisition of a Unit as a result of a foreclosure of the lien for Assessments shall be exempt from these requirements.

(h) The power to enter into bulk service cable contracts on behalf of all Units in the Condominium, and the same shall be a Common Expense.

(i) The power to acquire or enter into agreements acquiring leaseholds, memberships or other possessory or use interests in lands or facilities for recreational purposes.

(j) All of the powers which a corporation not-for-profit in the State of Florida may exercise pursuant to this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, Chapter 617, Florida Statutes and the Act, in all cases except as expressly limited or restricted in the Act or the documents of the Condominium.

B. Conflict. In the event of conflict among the powers and duties of the Association or the terms and provisions of this Declaration or the exhibits attached hereto, this Declaration shall take precedence over the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and applicable rules and regulations; the Articles of Incorporation shall take precedence over the Bylaws and applicable rules and regulations; and the Bylaws shall take precedence over applicable rules and regulations, all as amended from time to time. Notwithstanding anything in this Declaration or its exhibits to the contrary, the Association shall at all times be the entity having ultimate authority over the Condominium, consistent with the Act.

C. Limitation of Liability of Association. Notwithstanding the duty of the Association to maintain and repair parts of the Condominium Property, the Association shall not be liable to Unit Owners for injury or damage, other than for the cost of maintenance and repair, caused by any latent condition of the Condominium Property. Further, the Association shall not be liable for any such injury or damage caused by defects in design or workmanship or any other reason connected with any additions, alterations or improvements done by or on behalf of any Unit Owners, regardless of whether or not the same shall have been approved by the Association pursuant to the provisions hereof.

NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING CONTAINED HEREIN OR IN THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION, BYLAWS, ANY RULES OR REGULATIONS OF THE ASSOCIATION OR ANY OTHER DOCUMENT GOVERNING OR BINDING THE ASSOCIATION (COLLECTIVELY, THE "ASSOCIATION DOCUMENTS") , THE ASSOCIATION SHALL NOT BE LIABLE OR RESPONSIBLE FOR, OR IN ANY MANNER BE A GUARANTOR OR INSURER OF, THE HEALTH, SAFETY OR WELFARE OF ANY OWNER, OCCUPANT OR USER OF ANY PORTION OF THE CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, RESIDENTS AND THEIR FAMILIES, GUESTS, INVITEES, AGENTS, SERVANTS, CONTRACTORS OR SUBCONTRACTORS OR FOR ANY PROPERTY OF ANY SUCH PERSONS. WITHOUT LIMITING THE GENERALITY OF THE FOREGOING:

(a) IT IS THE EXPRESS INTENT OF THE ASSOCIATION DOCUMENTS THAT THE VARIOUS PROVISIONS THEREOF WHICH ARE ENFORCEABLE BY THE ASSOCIATION AND WHICH GOVERN OR REGULATE THE USES OF THE CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY HAVE BEEN WRITTEN, AND ARE TO BE INTERPRETED AND ENFORCED, FOR THE SOLE PURPOSE OF ENHANCING AND MAINTAINING THE ENJOYMENT OF THE CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY AND THE VALUE THEREOF;

(b) THE ASSOCIATION IS NOT EMPOWERED, AND HAS NOT BEEN CREATED, TO ACT AS AN ENTITY WHICH ENFORCES OR ENSURES THE COMPLIANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, STATE OF FLORIDA, LEE COUNTY AND/OR ANY OTHER JURISDICTION OR THE PREVENTION OF TORTUOUS ACTIVITIES; AND

(c) ANY PROVISIONS OF THE ASSOCIATION DOCUMENTS SETTING FORTH THE USES OF ASSESSMENTS WHICH RELATE TO HEALTH, SAFETY AND/OR WELFARE SHALL BE INTERPRETED AND APPLIED ONLY AS LIMITATIONS ON THE USES OF ASSESSMENT FUNDS AND NOT AS CREATING A DUTY OF THE ASSOCIATION TO PROTECT OR FURTHER THE HEALTH, SAFETY OR WELFARE OF ANY PERSON(S) , EVEN IF ASSESSMENT FUNDS ARE CHOSEN TO BE USED FOR ANY SUCH REASON.

EACH UNIT OWNER (BY VIRTUE OF HIS ACCEPTANCE OF TITLE TO HIS UNIT) AND EACH OTHER PERSON HAVING AN INTEREST IN OR LIEN UPON, OR MAKING ANY USE OF, ANY PORTION OF THE CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY (BY VIRTUE OF ACCEPTING SUCH INTEREST OR MAKING SUCH USES) SHALL BE BOUND BY THIS PROVISION AND SHALL BE DEEMED TO HAVE AUTOMATICALLY WAIVED ANY AND ALL RIGHTS, CLAIMS, DEMANDS AND CAUSES OF ACTION AGAINST THE ASSOCIATION ARISING FROM OR CONNECTED WITH ANY MATTER FOR WHICH THE LIABILITY OF THE ASSOCIATION HAS BEEN DISCLAIMED IN THIS PROVISION.

AS USED IN THIS SECTION, "ASSOCIATION" SHALL INCLUDE WITHIN ITS MEANING ALL OF THE ASSOCIATION'S DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, COMMITTEE AND BOARD MEMBERS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, CONTRACTORS (INCLUDING MANAGEMENT COMPANIES) , SUBCONTRACTORS, SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ARTICLE SHALL ALSO INURE TO THE BENEFIT OF THE DEVELOPER AND ITS AFFILIATES, WHICH SHALL BE FULLY PROTECTED HEREBY.

D. Restraint Against Assignment of Shares in Assets. The share of a Unit Owner in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his Unit.

E. Approval or Disapproval of Matters. Whenever the decision of a Unit Owner is required upon any matter, whether or not the subject of an Association meeting, that decision shall be expressed by the same person who would cast the vote for that Unit if at an Association meeting, unless the joinder of all record Owners of the Unit is specifically required by this Declaration or by law.

F. Acts of the Association. Unless the approval or action of Unit Owners, and/or a certain specific percentage of the Board of Directors, is specifically required in this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of the Association, applicable rules and regulations or applicable law, all approvals or actions required or permitted to be given or taken by the Association shall be given or taken by the Board of Directors, without the consent of Unit Owners. When an approval or action of the Association is permitted to be given or taken hereunder or thereunder, such action or approval may be conditioned in any manner the Association deems appropriate, and the Association may refuse to take or give such action or approval without the necessity of establishing the reasonableness of such conditions or refusal.

G. Binding Effect of Condominium Documents. Every Unit Owner, whether having acquired such ownership by gift, conveyance or transfer by operation of law, or otherwise, shall be bound by the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and this Declaration. Membership in the Association shall automatically terminate upon the termination of ownership of a Condominium Parcel in this Condominium, and the subsequent owner(s) taking title shall automatically become entitled to membership, subject to the written approval of the Association.

13. Determination of Assessments.

A. General Assessment. The Board of Directors shall from time to time, and at least annually, prepare and adopt a budget for the Condominium, determine the amount payable by the Unit Owners to meet the Common Expenses of the Condominium, and allocate and assess such expenses among the Unit Owners in accordance with the provisions of this Declaration and the Bylaws ("General Assessment"). The Board of Directors shall advise all Unit Owners promptly in writing of the amount of the General Assessment payable by each of them as determined by the Board of Directors. The Budget for Common Expenses shall include the reserves required by law or determined appropriate by the Board, the costs of carrying out the powers and duties of the Association and any other expenses designated as Common Expenses by the Act, this Declaration, the Articles or Bylaws of the Association, applicable rules and regulations or by the Association. Any adopted Budget of Common Expenses shall be subject to change by the Board of Directors, and the amount of the General Assessment shall be changed in accordance with such revised Budget for Common Expenses to cover actual expenses at any time.

B. Special and Capital Improvement Assessments. In addition to General Assessments, the Board of Directors may levy Special Assessments and Capital Improvement Assessments upon the following terms and conditions:

(a) Special Assessments shall mean or refer to amounts levied against each Owner and his Unit, representing a portion of the costs incurred by the Association for specific purposes of a nonrecurring nature which are not in the nature of capital improvements.

(b) Capital Improvement Assessments shall mean and refer to amounts levied against each Owner and his Unit, representing a portion of the costs incurred by the Association for the acquisition, installation or construction (as distinguished from maintenance, repairs and replacement) of any capital improvements located or to be located within the Common Elements.

(c) Special Assessments and Capital Improvement Assessments may be levied by the Board of Directors and shall be payable in lump sums or installments, in the discretion of the Board; provided that if such Special Assessments, in the aggregate in any year, exceed $25,000.00, or if such Capital Improvement Assessments, in the aggregate in any year, exceed $25,000.00, the Board must obtain approval of a majority of the voting interests represented at a meeting at which a quorum is attained.

14. Collection of Assessments.

The General Assessments, Special Assessments and Capital Improvement Assessments (collectively, the "Assessments") shall be collected as follows:

A. Liability for Assessments. A Unit Owner, regardless of how title is acquired, including by purchase at a judicial sale or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, shall be liable for all Assessments coming due while he is the Unit Owner. Additionally, a Unit Owner shall be jointly and severally liable with the previous owner for all unpaid Assessments that came due up to the time of the conveyance, without prejudice to any right such Unit Owner may have to recover from the previous owner the amounts paid by such Unit Owner. The liability for Assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any Common Elements or by the abandonment of the Unit for which the Assessments are made or otherwise.

B. Default in Payment of Assessments. Assessments and installments thereof not paid within ten (10) days from the date when they are due shall bear interest at the rate established from time to time by the Board of Directors from due date until paid (provided, however, that no such rate shall exceed the maximum allowed by law) . In the event the Board has not established such rate, the interest rate shall be eighteen percent (18%) per annum or the maximum amount allowed by law, whichever is less. Each delinquent payment shall be subject to an administrative late fee in an amount not to exceed the greater of Twenty-Five and No/100 Dollars ($25.00) or five percent (5%) of each delinquent installment. The Association has a lien on each Condominium Parcel for any unpaid Assessments on such Parcel, with interest thereon and for reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by the Association incident to the collection of the Assessment or enforcement of the lien. The lien shall be effective on the earliest date allowed by law, which shall be no later than as of the recording of the claim of lien in the public records of the County. Such lien shall be evidenced by the recording of a claim of lien in the public records of the County, stating the description of the Condominium Parcel, the name of the record Owner, the name and address of the Association, the amount(s) due and the due dates. The claim of lien shall not be released until all sums secured by it (or such other amount as to which the Association shall agree by way of settlement) have been fully paid or until it is barred by law. The claim of lien shall secure (whether or not stated therein) all unpaid Assessments, interest thereon, the administrative late fee, and costs and attorneys' fees which are due and which may accrue subsequent to the recording of the claim of lien and prior to the entry of a final judgment of foreclosure thereof. A claim of lien shall be signed and acknowledged by an officer or authorized agent of the Association. Upon payment, the person making the payment is entitled to a satisfaction of the lien in recordable form. The Association or its assignee may bring an action to foreclose a lien for unpaid Assessments in the manner a mortgage of real property is foreclosed in Florida, and may also bring an action at law to recover a money judgment for the unpaid Assessments and other amounts due without waiving any claim of lien. The Association is entitled to recover its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in a lien foreclosure action or an action to recover a money judgment for unpaid Assessments.

As an additional right and remedy of the Association, upon default in the payment of Assessments as aforesaid and after fourteen (14) days prior written notice to the applicable Unit Owner, the Association may declare the balance of General Assessment installments due for the remainder of the fiscal year and payments of other known Assessments to be accelerated and the same shall there-upon be due and payable upon filing a Claim of Lien in the public records. In the event that the amount of such accelerated installments or payments changes, the Unit Owner or the Association, as appropriate, shall be obligated to pay or reimburse to the other the amount of increase or decrease within ten (10) days of same taking effect.

Any payments received by the Association from a delinquent Unit Owner shall be applied first to any interest accrued as provided above, then to any administrative late fee, then to any costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in collection as aforesaid and then to the delinquent and any accelerated Assessment. The foregoing application of funds received shall be applicable despite any restrictive endorsement, designation, or instruction placed on or accompanying a payment.

C. Notice of Intention to Foreclose Lien. Unless otherwise required by the Act or other applicable law, no foreclosure judgment may be entered until at least thirty (30) days after the Association gives written notice to the Unit Owner of its intention to foreclose its lien to collect the unpaid Assessments. If this notice is not given at least thirty (30) days before the foreclosure action is filed, and if the unpaid Assessments, including those coming due after the claim of lien is recorded, are paid before the entry of a final judgment of foreclosure, the Association shall not recover attorneys' fees or costs. The notice must be given by hand delivery or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Unit Owner at the last known address, and upon such mailing, the notice shall be deemed to have been given. If after diligent search and inquiry the Association cannot find the Unit Owner or a mailing address at which the Unit Owner will receive the notice, the court may proceed with the foreclosure action and may award attorneys' fees and costs as permitted by law. The notice requirements of this subsection are satisfied if the Unit Owner records a Notice of Contest of Lien as provided in the Act.

D. Appointment of Receiver to Collect Rental. If the Unit Owner remains in possession of the Unit after a foreclosure judgment has been entered, the court in its discretion may require the Unit Owner to pay a reasonable rental for the Unit. If the Unit is rented or leased during the pendency of the foreclosure action, the Association is entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rent, the expenses of such receiver to be paid by the party which does not prevail in the foreclosure action.

E. First Mortgagee. In the event a First Mortgagee shall obtain title to a Unit by foreclosure, or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, such First Mortgagee, its successors and assigns, shall be liable for prior Assessments or other related expenses authorized under the Act to the maximum extent provided by the Act. If, due to the applicable provisions of the Act, any unpaid share of the Assessments or other related expenses authorized under the Act are not required to be paid, then such unpaid share or other related expenses authorized under the Act shall be deemed to be a Common Expense collectible from all of the Unit Owners, including such acquirer, and such acquirer's successors and assigns.

F. Certificate of Unpaid Assessments. Within fifteen (15) days after request by a Unit Owner or mortgagee of a Unit, the Association shall provide a certificate stating all Assessments and other moneys owed to the Association by the Unit Owner with respect to his Unit. Any person other than the Unit Owner who relies upon such certificate shall be protected thereby.

G. Installments. General Assessments shall be collected monthly or quarterly, in advance, as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors. Initially, General Assessments will be collected monthly.

H. Developer's Guarantee. Developer hereby guarantees that the annual Assessments to be assessed against each Unit for the fiscal year January 1, 2003 through December 31, 2003 shall not exceed $1,620.00 per Unit. Developer hereby guarantees that the annual Assessments to be assessed against each Unit for the fiscal year January 1, 2004 through December 31, 2004 shall not exceed $1,680.00. Developer hereby guarantees that the annual Assessments to be assessed against each Unit for the fiscal year January 1, 2005 through December 31, 2005 shall not exceed $1,740.00 per Unit. Thereafter, the Developer has the option to extend the above guaranty for one (1) or more additional years. So long as the Developer owns any Units in the Condominium, and subject to the limitations set forth in the Act, Developer shall not be required to pay any Assessments of any nature for the Units owned by Developer; provided, however, that the Developer shall be obligated to pay any amount of Common Expenses incurred during the above guaranteed periods not produced by the Assessments at the guaranteed levels set forth above, including any extensions thereof. Pursuant to Section 718.112(2)(e), Florida Statutes, Assessments shall not exceed 115% of assessments for the prior fiscal year unless approved by a majority of all voting interest.

15. Insurance.

Insurance covering the Condominium Property and the Association Property shall be governed by the following provisions:

A. Insurance Trustee. The Board of Directors shall have the option, in its sole discretion, of appointing an Insurance Trustee hereunder. If the Board of Directors fails or elects not to appoint such Trustee, the Board of Directors will perform directly all obligations imposed upon such Trustee by this Declaration. Fees and expenses of any Insurance Trustee are Common Expenses.

B. Purchase, Custody and Payment.

(a) Purchase. All insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in Florida meeting all criteria established by the Board or the Act and any rules promulgated thereunder.

(b) Named Insured. Under all insurance policies purchased by the Association, the named insured shall be the Association, individually, and as agent for Owners of Units covered by the policy, without naming them, and as agent for their mortgagees, without naming them. The Unit Owners and their mortgagees shall be deemed additional insureds.

(c) Custody of Policies and Payment of Proceeds. All insurance policies purchased by the Association shall provide that payments for losses made by the insurer shall be paid to the Insurance Trustee (if appointed) or Association, and such policies and endorsements thereto shall be deposited with the Insurance Trustee (if appointed) or Association.

(d) Copies to Mortgagees. One (1) copy of each insurance policy, or a certificate evidencing such policy, and all endorsements thereto, shall be furnished by the Association upon request to each Institutional First Mortgagee who holds a mortgage upon a Unit covered by the policy. Copies or certificates shall be furnished not less than ten (10) days prior to the beginning of the term of the policy, or not less than ten (10) days prior to the expiration of each preceding policy that is being renewed or replaced, as appropriate.

(e) Exceptions from Association Responsibility; Unit Owner's Personal Coverage. Except as specifically provided herein or by the Act, the Association shall not be responsible to Unit Owners to obtain insurance coverage upon any property lying within the boundaries of their Unit (i.e. personal property and permitted fixtures contained therein) , or for their personal liability and living expense or for any other risks not otherwise insured in accordance herewith.

Unit Owners may be required to purchase flood insurance for their respective Units if such insurance is required by their mortgagees. In the event flood insurance is required, such insurance shall be for the lesser of one hundred percent (100%) of the current replacement cost of the Unit as contained within the building, or the maximum amount of flood insurance available with regard to such property.

The Association may obtain flood insurance on the buildings and any other improvements constructed on the Condominium Property.

The Unit Owner shall be responsible for insuring any and all air-conditioning equipment and wiring and piping related thereto which is located on the Common Elements appurtenant to the Unit and all Unit floor, wall and ceiling coverings, including, but not limited to, electrical fixtures, appliances, air conditioning and heating equipment, water heaters and cabinets.

It shall be the obligation of the individual Unit Owner, if such Unit Owner so desires, to purchase and pay for insurance as to all such and other risks not covered by insurance carried by the Association.

C. Coverage Responsibilities of Association. The Association shall use its best efforts to obtain and maintain adequate insurance covering the following:

(a) Casualty. Insurance covering loss or damage to the Common Elements and all other portions of the Condominium Property which the Association is responsible to maintain under the terms of this Declaration, and all items for which the Association is required under applicable provisions of the Act to insure against loss or damage by fire and against loss or damage by risks now or hereafter embraced by standard extended coverage, and vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements (collectively, the "Insured Property"). Such policies may contain reasonable deductible provisions as determined by the Board of Directors. Such coverage shall afford protection against such other risks as from time to time are customarily covered with respect to buildings and improvements similar to the Insured Property in construction, location and use, including, but not limited to, vandalism and malicious mischief.

(b) Liability. Comprehensive general public liability and automobile liability insurance covering loss or damage resulting from accidents or occurrences on or about or in connection with the Insured Property or adjoining driveways and walkways, or any work, matters or things related to the Insured Property, with such coverage as shall be required by the Board of Directors of the Association, and with a cross liability endorsement to cover liabilities of the Unit Owners as a group to any Unit Owner, and vice versa, if such endorsement is obtainable.

(c) Worker's Compensation. Worker's Compensation Insurance and other mandatory insurance, when applicable.

(d) Fidelity Insurance. Fidelity Insurance as required by the Act, covering all persons who control or disburse Association funds, such insurance to be in the amount required by Law and determined by the Board.

(e) Association Property. Appropriate additional policy provisions, policies or endorsements extending the applicable portions of the coverage described above to all Association Property, where such coverage is available.

(f) Other Insurance. Such other insurance as the Board of Directors of the Association shall determine from time to time to be desirable.

When appropriate and obtainable, each of the foregoing policies shall waive the insurer's right to: (i) subrogation against the Association, its officers, members of the Board, the Developer, any management firm and its respective employees and agents, and against the Unit Owners individually and as a group; (ii) to pay only a fraction of any loss in the event of coinsurance or if other insurance carriers have issued coverage upon the same risk; and (iii) avoid liability for a loss that is caused by an act of the Board of Directors, a member of the Board of Directors, any management firm or its respective employees and agents, one (1) or more Unit Owners or as a result of contractual undertakings. Additionally, each policy shall provide that any insurance trust agreement will be recognized, that the insurance provided shall not be prejudiced by any act or omissions of the management firm or the individual Unit Owners that are not under the control of the Association, and that the policy shall be primary, even if a Unit Owner has other insurance that covers the same loss.

Every casualty insurance policy obtained by the Association shall have the agreed amount and inflation guard endorsement unless the Board finds such endorsement is unobtainable or economically infeasible.

D. Additional Provisions. All policies of insurance shall provide that such policies may not be canceled or substantially modified without at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to all of the named insureds. Prior to obtaining any policy of casualty insurance or any renewal thereof, the Board of Directors may wish to obtain an appraisal from a fire insurance company, or other competent appraiser, of the full insurable replacement value of the Insured Property (exclusive of foundations), without deduction for depreciation, for the purpose of determining the amount of insurance to be effected pursuant to this Section.

E. Premiums. Premiums upon insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be paid by the Association as a Common Expense, except that the costs of fidelity bonding for a management firm employee may be paid by the management firm pursuant to a Management Agreement. Premiums may be financed in such manner as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

F. Insurance Trustee; Share of Proceeds. All insurance policies obtained by or on behalf of the Association shall be for the benefit of the Association, the management firm, the Unit Owners and their mortgagees, as their respective interests may appear, and shall provide that all proceeds covering losses to the Insured Property shall be paid to the Association or Insurance Trustee, which Insurance Trustee may be designated by the Board of Directors and which, if so appointed, shall be a bank or trust company in Florida with trust powers, with its principal place of business in the State of Florida. The Insurance Trustee shall not be liable for payment of premiums, nor for the renewal or the sufficiency of policies, nor for the failure to collect any insurance proceeds. The duty of the Insurance Trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and to hold the same in trust for the purposes elsewhere stated herein, and for the benefit of the Unit Owners and their respective mortgagees in the following shares, but shares need not be set forth on the records of the Insurance Trustee:

(a) Insured Property. Proceeds on account of damage to the Insured Property shall be held in undivided shares for each Unit Owner, such shares being the same as the undivided shares in the Common Elements appurtenant to each Unit; provided, however, that prior to any distributions to the Unit Owners, such proceeds shall first be distributed in accordance with the provisions of this Section.

(b) Mortgagees. No mortgagee shall have any right to determine or participate in the determination as to whether or not any damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, and no mortgagee shall have any right to apply or have applied to the reduction of a mortgage debt any insurance proceeds, except for actual distributions thereof made to the Unit Owner and mortgagee pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration.

G. Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Insurance Trustee shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the beneficial owners thereof in the following manner:

(a) Expenses of the Trustee. All expenses of the Insurance Trustee shall be paid first or provision shall be made therefor.

(b) Reconstruction or Repair. If the damaged property for which the proceeds are paid is to be repaired or reconstructed, the remaining proceeds shall be paid to defray the cost thereof as elsewhere provided herein. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such costs shall be distributed to each Unit Owner, by check made payable jointly to such Unit Owner and its respective mortgagee(s).

(c) Failure to Reconstruct or Repair. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the damaged property for which the proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the remaining proceeds shall be allocated among the beneficial owners as provided herein, and distributed to each Unit Owner by check made payable jointly to such Unit Owner and its respective mortgagee(s). If there is no mortgage on the Unit, all distributions shall be made directly to the Unit Owner.

(d) Certificate. In making distributions to Unit Owners and their mortgagees, the Insurance Trustee (if appointed) may rely upon a certificate of the Association made by its President and Secretary as to the names of the Unit Owners and their mortgagees and their respective shares of the distribution.

H. Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed as agent and attorney-in-fact for each Unit Owner and for each owner of a mortgage or other lien upon a Unit and for each owner of any other interest in the Condominium Property to adjust all claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association and to execute and deliver releases upon the payment of claims.

16. Reconstruction or Repair After Fire or Other Casualty.

A. Determination to Reconstruct or Repair. Subject to the immediately following subsection, in the event of damage to or destruction of the Insured Property as a result of fire or other casualty, the Board of Directors shall arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of the Insured Property, and the Insurance Trustee (if appointed) shall disburse the proceeds of all insurance policies to the contractors engaged in such repair and restoration in appropriate progress payments. If the Insurance Trustee has not been appointed, then the Board of Directors shall act as if it were the Insurance Trustee hereunder.

If seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the Insured Property is substantially damaged or destroyed and if eighty percent (80%) of the total voting interests duly and promptly resolve not to proceed with the repair or restoration thereof, the Condominium Property shall not be repaired and the net proceeds of insurance resulting from such damage or destruction shall be distributed to each Unit Owner, by check made payable to such Unit Owner and its respective mortgagee(s).

Whenever in this Section the words "promptly repair" are used, it shall (except in the case of a disaster of regional impact) mean that repairs are to begin not more than sixty (60) days from the date the Insurance Trustee (if appointed) notifies the Board of Directors that it holds proceeds of insurance on account of such damage or destruction sufficient to pay the estimated cost of such work, or not more than ninety (90) days after the Insurance Trustee (if appointed) notifies the Board of Directors that such proceeds of insurance are insufficient to pay the estimated costs of such work. The Insurance Trustee (if appointed) may rely upon a certificate of the Association made by its President and Secretary to determine whether or not the damaged property is to be reconstructed or repaired. In the case of a disaster of regional impact, "promptly repair" shall mean in a reasonable amount of time based on the circumstances as determined by the Board of Directors.

B. Plans and Specifications. Any reconstruction or repair must be made substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for the original improvements and the then applicable building and other codes; or if not, then in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the Board of Directors and the then applicable building and other codes.

C. Disbursement. The proceeds of insurance collected on account of a casualty, and the sums collected from Unit Owners on account of such casualty, shall constitute a construction fund which shall be disbursed in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair in the following manner and order:

(a) Association - Lesser Damage. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair which are the responsibility of the Association is less than or equal to $100,000.00, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs upon the order of the Board of Directors.

(b) Association - Major Damage. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair which are the responsibility of the Association is more than $100,000.00, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the manner contemplated by subparagraph (a) above, but then only upon the further approval of an architect or engineer qualified to practice in Florida and employed by the Association to supervise the work.

(c) Unit Owners. If there is a balance of insurance proceeds after payment of all costs of reconstruction and repair that are the responsibility of the Association, this balance shall be distributed to each Unit Owner, by check made payable jointly to such Unit Owner and its respective mortgagee(s) or, at the direction of the Board, such balance may be considered Common Surplus.

(d) Certificate. Notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Insurance Trustee shall not be required to determine whether or not sums paid by Unit Owners upon Assessments shall be deposited by the Association with the Insurance Trustee, nor to determine whether the disbursements from the construction fund are to be made upon the order of the Association alone or upon the additional approval of an architect, engineer or otherwise, nor to determine whether a disbursement is to be made from the construction fund, nor to determine the payees nor the amounts to be paid. The Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association, made by its President and Secretary, as to any or all of such matters and stating that the sums to be paid are due and properly payable, and stating the names of the payees and the amounts to be paid.

D. Assessments. If the proceeds of the insurance are not sufficient to defray the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair to be effected by the Association, or if at any time during reconstruction and repair, or upon completion of reconstruction and repair, the funds for the payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair are insufficient, Assessments shall be made against the Unit Owners in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such costs. Such Assessments on account of damage to the Insured Property shall be in proportion to all of the Owners' respective shares in the Common Elements.

E. Responsibility of Unit Owners. If damage occurs to the Units, the maintenance and responsibility of which lies solely upon the respective Unit Owners, then each Unit Owner shall be solely responsible for all necessary reconstruction and repair to its respective Unit, which reconstruction and repair shall be effected promptly and in accordance with guidelines established by the Board of Directors. Each Unit Owner shall have the absolute responsibility of applying insurance proceeds, arising as a result of flood, fire or other casualty damage to the Unit, to the repair and/or reconstruction of such Unit; provided, however, that no Unit Owner shall have the responsibility of applying insurance proceeds to the repair and/or reconstruction of the respective Units if the Condominium is terminated in accordance with the provisions of Section 21 herein.

F. Benefit of Mortgagees. Certain provisions in this Section are for the benefit of mortgagees of Units and may be enforced by any of them.

17. Condemnation.

Any condemnation of any portion(s) of the Condominium Property shall be governed by the following provisions:

A. Deposit of Certain Condemnation Awards with Insurance Trustee. Condemnation awards pertaining to the taking of Common Elements shall be paid over by each Unit Owner to the Insurance Trustee, if appointed, or to the Board of Directors, for use as noted hereinafter in this Section. In the event the Unit Owner fails to turn over such award as required, the defaulting Unit Owner shall be charged the maximum interest which does not constitute usury under Florida law until such amount is fully paid.

Condemnation awards pertaining to the condemnation of Units shall not be the property of the Association.

B. Determination Whether to Continue Condominium. Whether the Condominium will be continued after condemnation will be determined in the manner provided for in Section 16 herein for determining whether damaged property will be reconstructed and-repaired after casualty. For this purpose, the taking by eminent domain also shall be deemed to be a casualty.

C. Disbursement of Fund. If the Condominium is terminated following a condemnation, the proceeds of the awards pertaining to the condemnation of Common Elements will be deemed to be insurance proceeds and shall be owned and distributed in the manner provided with respect to the ownership and distribution of insurance proceeds if the Condominium is terminated after a casualty. If the Condominium is not terminated after condemnation, the size of the Condominium will be reduced and the property damaged by the taking will be made usable in the manner provided below. The proceeds of any such awards shall be used for these purposes and shall be disbursed in the manner provided for disbursement of funds by the Insurance Trustee (if appointed) after a casualty, or as elsewhere in this Section 17 specifically provided.

D. Condemnation of Common Elements. Awards for the taking of portions of the Common Elements shall be used to render the remaining portion of the Common Elements usable in the manner approved by the Board of Directors of the Association; provided, however, that if the cost of such work shall exceed the balance of the funds from the awards for the taking, the work shall be approved in the manner elsewhere required for capital improvements to the Common Elements. The balance of the awards for the taking of Common Elements, if any, shall be distributed, after adjustments to these shares effected pursuant hereto by reason of the taking, to each Unit Owner by check made payable jointly to such Unit Owner and its respective mortgagee(s).

E. Condemnation of a Unit. If there is a taking of a Unit, the respective Unit Owner shall not be required to utilize any portion of the condemnation award with regard to reconstruction of the Unit. Following such taking of a Unit and the recording of a deed to the condemning authority, (1) the affected Unit Owner shall no longer have an ownership interest in the Unit or an undivided ownership interest in the Common Elements, and (2) such Unit Owner shall no longer be responsible for the payment of Common Expenses.

The following changes shall be made in the Condominium following a taking as described in this Section 17:

(a) Addition to Common Elements. The remaining portion of the Unit, if any, shall become part of the Common Elements and shall be placed in a condition allowing, to the extent possible, use by all of the Unit Owners in the manner approved by the Board of Directors.

(b) Adjustment of Shares. The shares in the Common Elements, Common Expenses and Common Surplus appurtenant to the Units that continue as part of the Condominium shall be adjusted to distribute the shares in the Common Elements, Common Expenses and Common Surplus among the reduced number of Unit Owners. This distribution shall be determined in accordance with the formula contained in Section 6 herein.

(c) Assessments. In the event the Association does not have the funds necessary to alter the remaining portion of the condemned Unit for use as a part of the Common Elements, the additional funds for such purposes shall be raised by Assessments against all of the remaining Unit Owners after the changes in the Condominium effected by the taking. The Assessments shall be made in proportion to the applicable percentage shares of those Owners after all adjustments to such shares effected pursuant hereto by reason of the taking.

F. Amendment of Declaration. The changes in Units, in the Common Elements and in the ownership of the Common Elements and share in the Common Expenses and Common Surplus that are effected by the taking shall be evidenced by an amendment to this Declaration of Condominium that is only required to be approved by, and executed upon the direction of, a majority of all members of the Board of Directors.

18. Occupancy and Use Restrictions.

In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Condominium Property and for the protection of the values of the Units, the use of the Condominium Property shall be restricted to and shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

A. Occupancy. Each Unit shall be used as a single family residence only, except as may be otherwise herein expressly provided. The provisions of this subsection shall not be applicable to Units used by the Developer for model Units, guest accommodations, sales or other offices or management services.

B. Nuisances. No nuisances (as reasonably determined by the Association) shall be allowed on the Condominium Property, nor shall any use or practice be allowed which is a source of annoyance to residents or occupants of Units or which interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the Condominium Property by its residents or occupants. No activity specifically permitted by this Declaration shall be deemed a nuisance.

C. No Improper Uses. No improper, offensive, hazardous or unlawful use shall be made of the Condominium Property or any part thereof, and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereover shall be observed. Violations of laws, orders, rules, regulations or requirements of any governmental agency having jurisdiction thereover, relating to any portion of the Condominium Property, shall be corrected by, and at the sole expense of, the party obligated to maintain or repair such portion of the Condominium Property, as elsewhere herein set forth. Notwithstanding the foregoing and any provisions of this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, the Association shall not be liable to any person(s) for its failure to enforce the provisions of this Section. No activity specifically permitted by this Declaration shall be deemed a violation of this Section.

D. Rules and Regulations. All Unit Owners, their guests, tenants and invitees, shall abide by the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium, as amended by the Board from time to time.

19. Selling, Leasing and Mortgaging of Units.

Units may be made subject to mortgages without restrictions, but sales and leases thereof shall be subject to the provisions of this Section.

A. Sales. No Unit Owner may sell, transfer, devise or otherwise transfer his Unit without the express written consent of the Association, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. At least twenty (20) days prior to any proposed transfer of a Unit, the Owner shall provide the Association with the name, address and telephone number of the proposed transferee, and shall provide the Association with any other information it may request. The Association may require the personal appearance of the proposed transferee and his family as a condition of approval. The Association shall approve or disapprove the proposed transfer within twenty (20) days of receipt of all information to which the Association is entitled. The failure of the Association to approve or deny the proposed transfer within thirty (30) days set forth above shall be deemed an approval of the transfer. In the event the Association approves the transfer, or fails to disapprove the transfer within twenty (20) days of receipt of all information, said approval must be evidenced by a written Consent to Transfer executed by an officer or agent of the Association, which Consent to Transfer must be recorded in the public records of the County.

B. Leases. No lease or rental of a Unit may be for a period of less than thirty (30) days. Any proposed lease must be preapproved in writing by the Association. At least thirty (30) days prior to any proposed lease, the Unit Owner desiring to so lease the Unit shall provide the Association with the name, address and telephone number of the proposed tenant, and shall provide the Association with any other information it may request. The Association may require the personal appearance of the proposed tenant and his family as a condition of approval. The Association shall approve or disapprove the proposed lease within thirty (30) days of receipt if all information to which it is entitled. The failure to render a decision within said thirty (30) days shall be deemed approval. No Unit Owner may lease or rent his Unit if he is delinquent in the payment of any Assessments. The sub-leasing or sub-renting of a Unit Owner's interest shall be subject to the same limitations as are applicable to the leasing or renting thereof. The Association shall have the right to require that a substantially uniform form of lease or sub-lease be used by all Unit Owners intending to rent or lease and to provide such form as a Common Expense of the Condominium. Entire Units only may be rented, and no individual rooms may be rented and no transient tenants may be accommodated.

A tenant of a Unit shall have all of the use rights in the Association Property and Common Elements otherwise readily available for use generally by Unit Owners, and the Owner of the leased Unit shall not have such rights, except as a guest. This shall not, however, interfere with access rights of an Owner as landlord pursuant to applicable law.

C. Continuing Liability. The liability of the Unit Owner under these covenants shall continue, notwithstanding the fact that he may have sold, transferred, leased, rented or sub-let said interest as provided herein. Every purchaser, tenant or lessee shall take title to his Unit subject to this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the Association, as well as the provisions of the Act.

D. No Severance of Ownership. No part of the Common Elements may be sold, conveyed or otherwise disposed of, except as an appurtenance to the Unit in connection with a sale, conveyance or other disposition of the Unit to which such interest is appurtenant, and any sale, conveyance or other disposition of a Unit shall be deemed to include that Unit's appurtenant interest in the Common Elements.

E. Committee or Outside Contractor. The Board may designate a committee or may engage the services of an outside consulting firm to carry out the approval and disapproval obligations of the Association hereunder. In the event the Board engages the services of an outside firm, the cost of such firm shall be a Common Expense.

F. Transfer Fees. The Association may charge a fee to any Unit Owner requesting approval of a proposed transfer or lease of a Unit, said fee to be in an amount determined by the Board from time to time and not to exceed the maximum amount permitted by the Act.

G. Factors Which May Be Considered. The Board or its designee may consider the following factors in making its decision, and any other factors it deems appropriate, any one of which shall be grounds for disapproval:

(a) The proposed transferee or Tenant has been convicted of a felony involving violence to persons or property, or demonstrating dishonesty or moral turpitude.

(b) The proposed transferee or tenant has a record of financial irresponsibility.

(c) The application for approval indicates on its face that the proposed transferee or tenant or any proposed occupant intends to act in a manner inconsistent with the covenants and restrictions applicable to the Condominium.

(d) The proposed transferee or tenant has a history of disruptive behavior or disregard for the rights and property of others.

(e) The Association has not received all information to which it is entitled.

(f) Any false statements made by the applicant on any documents required by the Association.

20. Compliance and Default.

Each Unit Owner and every occupant of a Unit and the Association shall be governed by and shall comply with the terms of this Declaration of Condominium and all exhibits annexed hereto, and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to those documents, as the same may be amended from time to time. The Association (and Unit Owners, if appropriate) shall be entitled to the following relief in addition to the remedies provided by the Act:

A. Negligence. A Unit Owner shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement made necessary by his negligence or by that of any member of his family or his or their guests, employees, agents or lessees, but only to the extent such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance actually collected in respect of such negligence by the Association.

B. Compliance. In the event a Unit Owner or occupant fails to maintain a Unit or fails to cause such Unit to be maintained, or fails to observe and perform all of the provisions of the Declaration, the Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, applicable rules and regulations, or any other agreement, document or instrument affecting the Condominium Property or administered by the Association, in the manner required, the Association shall have the right to proceed in a court of equity to require performance and/or compliance, to impose any applicable fines and to sue in a court of law for damages. No fine may be levied except after giving reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing to the Unit Owner, and, if applicable, its licensee or invitee, and otherwise in accordance with Section 718.303(3), Florida Statutes.

C. Costs and Attorneys' Fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged failure of a Unit Owner or the Association to comply with the requirements of the Act, this Declaration, the Articles or Bylaws of the Association, or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to said documents, as the same may be amended from time to time, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorneys' fees (including appellate attorneys' fees and costs).

D. No Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association or any Unit Owner to enforce any covenant, restriction or other provision of the Act, this Declaration, the Articles or Bylaws of the Association, or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to said documents, as the same may be amended from time to time, shall not constitute a waiver of their right to do so thereafter.

E. Association's Rights Cumulative. All rights, remedies, and privileges granted to the Association or Unit Owners pursuant to this Declaration or any of the Condominium Documents shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of any one or more of such rights, remedies, or privileges shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party exercising the same from exercising any other or additional rights, remedies, or privileges.

21. Termination of Condominium.

The Condominium shall continue until (i) terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain, as more particularly provided elsewhere in this Declaration, or (ii) such time as termination of the condominium form of ownership is authorized by a vote of Owners owning one hundred percent (100%) of the Units. Upon such termination, the former Condominium Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Owner, and the net proceeds of sale shall be divided among all Owners in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements; provided, however, that no payment shall be made to an Owner until all mortgages and liens on his Unit, in the order of their priority, have been satisfied out of his share of such net proceeds. Upon such termination, all funds of the Association, including, but not limited to, reserves, insurance proceeds, and condemnation awards, shall be divided among all Owners in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements; provided, however, that no payment shall be made to an Owner until all mortgages and liens on his Unit, in the order of their priority, have been satisfied out of his share of such net proceeds. The termination of the Condominium shall be effective upon a certificate of the Association, executed by its President and Secretary, certifying the basis of the termination, being recorded among the public records of the County. The Association shall notify the Division of Florida Land Sales, Condominiums and Mobile Homes, within thirty (30) business days of such recordation, of the termination and the date of the recordation of the termination, and in accordance with Section 718.117 (1), Florida Statutes.

22. Additional Rights of Mortgagees and Others.

The following provisions are intended for the benefit of each holder of a first mortgage upon a Unit, and, to the extent that any other provisions of this Declaration conflict with the following provisions, if at all, the following provisions shall control:

A. Upon request in writing, the Association shall furnish, within thirty (30) days of such request, to each Institutional First Mortgagee of a Unit and any holder, insurer or guarantor of a first mortgage a written notice of any default by the Unit Owner of such Unit in the performance of such Unit Owner's obligations under this Declaration that has not been cured.

B. Upon request in writing, each Institutional First Mortgagee of a Unit and any holder, insurer or guarantor of a first mortgage on a Unit shall have the following rights:

(a) to examine current copies of this Declaration, the Bylaws, rules and regulations and the books, records and financial statements of the Association during normal business hours;

(b) to receive, without any charge and within a reasonable time after such request, the annual financials which is prepared and distributed by the Association to the Unit Owners at the end of its fiscal year;

(c) to receive written notices of all meetings of the Association and to designate a representative to attend all such meetings;

(d) to receive written notice of any decision by the Unit Owners to make a material amendment to the Declaration, Bylaws or Articles of Incorporation of the Association;

(e) to receive written notice of any lapse, cancellation or material modification of any insurance policy or fidelity bond maintained by the Association; and

(f) to receive written notice of any action which would require the consent of a specified number of Institutional First Mortgagees.

C. No provision of this Declaration or the Articles of Incorporation or any similar instrument pertaining to the Condominium Property or the Units therein shall be deemed to give a Unit Owner or any other party priority over any rights of the Institutional First Mortgagees of Units pursuant to their mortgages in the case of distribution to Unit Owners of insurance proceeds or condemnation awards for losses to or a taking of the Units, and/or the Common Elements, or any portion thereof or interest therein. In such event, the holder of any first mortgage on a Unit shall be entitled, upon specific written request, to timely written notice of any such loss.

D. If any Unit or portion thereof or the Common Elements or any portion thereof is made the subject matter of any condemnation or eminent domain proceeding or is otherwise sought to be acquired by a condemning authority, then the holder, insurer or guarantor of any first mortgage on a Unit will be entitled to timely written notice, upon specific written request, of any such proceeding or proposed acquisition and no provisions of any document will entitle a Unit Owner or other party to priority over such holder with respect to the distribution to such Unit Owner of the proceeds of any award or settlement.

E. Any holder of a first mortgage on a Unit who receives a written request to approve additions or amendments and fails to deliver or mail to the requesting party a negative response within thirty (30) days shall be deemed to have approved such request.

F. As required by Section 718.110, Florida Statutes, any mortgagee consent required under this Section shall not be unreasonably withheld.

23. Disclaimer of Warranties.

DEVELOPER HEREBY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES AS TO DESIGN, CONSTRUCTION, FURNISHING AND EQUIPPING OF THE CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY, EXCEPT ONLY THOSE SPECIFICALLY REQUIRED IN SECTION 718.203 OF THE ACT. AS TO SUCH WARRANTIES WHICH CANNOT BE DISCLAIMED, AND TO OTHER CLAIMS, IF ANY, WHICH CAN BE MADE AS TO THE AFORESAID MATTERS, ALL INCIDENTAL AND CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING THEREFROM ARE HEREBY DISCLAIMED.

ALL UNIT OWNERS, BY VIRTUE OF THEIR ACCEPTANCE OF TITLE TO THEIR RESPECTIVE UNITS (WHETHER FROM THE DEVELOPER OR ANOTHER PARTY), SHALL BE DEEMED TO HAVE AUTOMATICALLY WAIVED ALL OF THE AFORESAID DISCLAIMED WARRANTIES AND INCIDENTAL AND CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES.

24. Mediation and Arbitration.

All issues or disputes which are recognized by the Act or by administrative rules promulgated under the Act as being appropriate or required for mediation or arbitration shall be resolved through such alternative resolution procedures instead of civil litigation. Notwithstanding the above, this Section 24 shall not limit or abridge the rights and remedies of Unit Owners provided by Sections 718.111(3), 718.303 and 718.506, Florida Statutes

25. Master Association.

The Condominium is located within a larger development known as Majestic Golf and Country Club (the "Development"). All Unit Owners in the Condominium, by virtue of ownership of their Units, shall automatically become members of the Cypress Pines Property Owners' Association, Inc., a Florida not-for-profit corporation (the "Master Association"), shall be obligated to pay assessments to such Master Association, and shall be subject to all of the terms, conditions, restrictions, limitations and other matters set forth in the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for Cypress Pines (the "Master Declaration"), the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Master Association, and the Rules and Regulations of the Master Association, as any or all of the same may be amended from time to time. The Master Association and its designees shall have various easements over, under, and through the Condominium Property as set forth herein and in the Master Declaration.

26. Additional Provisions.

A. Notices. All notices to the Association required or desired hereunder or under the Bylaws of the Association shall be sent by first class mail to the Association in care of its office at the Condominium, or to such other address as the Association may hereafter designate from time to time by notice in writing to all Unit Owners. Except as provided specifically in the Act, all notices to any Unit Owner shall be sent by first class mail to the address of such Unit Owner appearing in the Association's records at the time the notice is transmitted. Where a Unit is owned by more than one (1) person, the Association shall provide notice, for meetings and all other purposes, to that one (1) address which the Developer initially identifies for that purpose and thereafter as one (1) or more of the Owners of the Unit shall so advise the Association in writing, or if no address is given or the Owners of the Unit do not agree, to the address provided in the deed of record.

All notices to mortgagees of Units shall be sent by first class mail to their respective addresses, or such other address as may be designated by them from time to time in writing to the Association.

All notices shall be deemed to have been given when mailed in a postage prepaid sealed wrapper, except notices of a change of address, which shall be deemed to have been given when received or five (5) business days after proper mailing, whichever shall first occur.

B. Interpretation. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for interpreting the provisions hereof and of any of the exhibits attached hereto. Such interpretation shall be binding upon all parties unless wholly unreasonable. An opinion of legal counsel to the Association, or the legal counsel having drafted this Declaration, that any interpretation adopted by the Association is not unreasonable shall conclusively establish the validity of such interpretation.

C. Binding Effect of Section 718.303, Florida Statutes. The provisions of Section 718.303, Florida Statutes, shall be in full force and effect and are incorporated herein.

D. Right of Developer to Add Recreational Facilities to Master Association. If the Developer elects to construct, add to or expand recreational facilities or any other portion of the Common Elements of the Master Association, Developer shall pay all the expenses relating to the construction or the providing of such addition or expansion and shall record an amendment to the Master Declaration and this Declaration describing such property. The amendment shall be executed with the formalities of a deed and recorded in the public records of the County. No approval or action of the Association, Unit Owners or mortgagees shall be necessary for adding such additional recreational facilities. All costs of maintenance, repair and replacement relating to the addition or expansion of the recreational facilities shall be a common expense of the Master Association. No recreational facilities shall be added to this Condominium by the Developer.

E. Right of Developer to Convey Property to the Association. The Developer hereby reserves the right to convey to the Association any portion(s) of the real property constituting all or a part of any proposed phase(s) of the Condominium or other areas contiguous to the Condominium Property free and clear of liens and encumbrances, including, but not limited to, wetlands or other parcels more suitable to become Association Property rather than Common Elements of the Condominium. All costs and expenses associated with such Association Property shall be Common Expenses. The Association shall be required to accept any such conveyance from Developer.

F. Exhibits. There are hereby incorporated in this Declaration all materials contained in the exhibits annexed hereto. In the event of any conflicting provisions between the exhibits and this Declaration, the provisions of this Declaration shall control.

G. Signature of President and Secretary. The invalidity in whole or in part of any covenant or restriction, or any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or word, or other provision of this Declaration, the exhibits annexed hereto, or applicable rules and regulations adopted pursuant to such documents, as the same may be amended from time to time, shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof which shall remain in full force and effect.

I. Waiver. No provisions contained in this Declaration shall be deemed to have been waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, without regard to the number of violations or breaches which may occur.

J. Ratification. Each Unit Owner, by reason of having acquired ownership (whether by purchase, gift, operation of law or otherwise) , and each occupant of a Unit, by reason of his occupancy, shall be deemed to have acknowledged and agreed that all of the provisions of this Declaration, and the Articles and Bylaws of the Association, and applicable rules and regulations, are fair and reasonable in all material respects.
