Light Up The Bridge

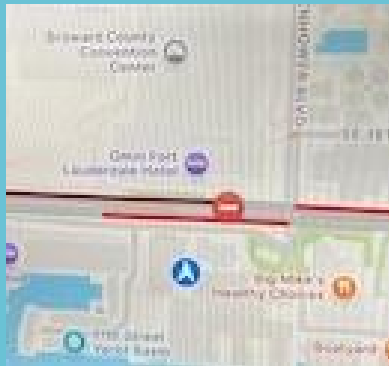

Join us in person on June 3. Our guest will be Rickelle Williams, Fort Lauderdale's City Manager. The City Charter is changing. What will that mean for city parks and public land? And there is so much more.

The meeting starts at 7:00 pm, at the Police Substation in the Harbor Shops shopping center.

1815 Cordova Road Suite B207.

Take the elevator to the second floor

Captain Vetancourt, District 3 Command, will do a post IPW Conference evaluation. Bring you observations about the traffic, what worked and what didn't, so improvements can be made.

Special Report regarding the IPW Convention and FLPD Traffic Control

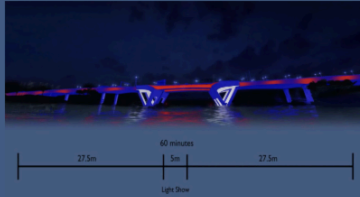

The Convention Center operators took over a city street, Grande Avenue, to accommodate the IPW Convention. They didn't tell the neighborhood. Even Google Maps knew the road was closed. .

Phill Dunlap Director, Broward County Cultural Division, will preview the proposal to "Light up the 17th Street Bridge. T-UP for the full presentation at a virtual meeting on June 5. To register for the meeting go to
