

The Garden Club of DeLand

In conjunction with its 54th Pageant of Crosses
Palm Sunday, April 5th, 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.
At the Garden Club's Clubhouse
865 S. Alabama Ave, DeLand FL 32724

Presents

Children's Dish Garden Workshop Sponsored by EFG Orchids
Story-Telling with Cheryl Floyd, & Art activity, 12 - 2 p.m.

Children, 4 and up with their adult assistant are invited to pre-register for this creative gardening experience. All materials are provided - pot, soil, drainage stones, plants, a variety of decorations and spray bottle for watering at home.

Additionally, professional story-teller Cheryl Floyd will be telling her "Moni the Butterfly" story. Look also for a small art area with coloring and scratch art.

Please plan to go inside the Clubhouse to see the wonderful display of floral designs with stage design by Select Growers, enjoy live music including Elaine Barritt on the Celtic harp (12:30—2:30), and light refreshments or find out more about the Garden Club. There will be tours of our garden, designed and maintained by members, every half hour (12-2). Activities are rain or shine. Please note the children's activities and garden tours are within a shortened time frame (11-2) from the overall Pageant (11-3). Admission is free.
