OLD BUSINESS

A motion was made by Pam King and seconded by Janie Franco to accept the February Board minutes as corrected.

FINANCIAL: Treasure's report will not be approved today. Hard copy attached.

New Port Richey Theater Quilt: Still need volunteers for March 21 and March 22 shows. Julie will send request to members.

Sound System: Existing sound system working well with new microphones.

NEW BUSINESS:

MEMBERSHIP: Pat Donohoo made a request that we donate $300 to the Veterans Center for their Easter Program. Motion was made by Penny Black and Seconded by Mary Parkin. She also requested a donation for the Summer Day Camp Program of Pasco County. This was declined.

Julie meeting with Chandler on March 7 to discuss new contract and set up for future meetings.

YARD SALE: will be held April 17. Tables will be $10 a piece. Alma Tilley and Penny Black are in charge. The Spring Party will be held the same day.

CHARITY OUTREACH: Bundles are available for quilts for charity for kids.

SCHOLARSHIPS: Applications being accepted.

FOOD BANK: Welcome to Kim and Sandra. Openings still available for May, June, August, October and December.

BABY BOUTIQUE: Would like more baby blankets. They have the fabric, just call .

EDUCATION: Next class for March will be Phyllis Cullen who will be teaching a class in fabric portraits. There are still openings for this two day class.

FAT QUARTER/ART CHALLENGE: Trish Wallick will be starting a new program in May.

PARLIAMENTARIAN: Laura Vernola will assist/cover Rose Ann Verheyen.

HISTORIAN: Janie Franco has all Guild pictures from Guild on her hard drive. It was suggested we use them as a slide show at our annual meeting. Kathie Beaty also has some photo albums.

WAYS AND MEANS: Penny Black is in need of a gift basket for the April meeting

QUILT SHOW: Next meeting March 13 @ 9 am at Rhonda Koning's. There is still no one for the Opportunity Quilt. It was suggested that we require members to take tickets to sell for the Quilt.

SOUP AND SEW: Will be held at Audrey Bucaro's home. We will work on Membership Blocks if you haven't already made one.

Respectfully submitted,
Arlene DiGregorio
