Mission Statement: The West Pasco Quilters Guild, Inc. provides charity within our community and quality education to the public about quilts and quilting.

OLD BUSINESS

A motion was made by Mary Parkin and seconded by Lori Romanosky to accept the March Board minutes.

FINANCIAL: Treasure's report is attached.

Thank you to Lori Romanosky for being our Dip n Dot Lady. She collected $554 to go to storage fees for Charity Sew.

REC CENTER CONTRACT: Still Pending

YARD SALE: Balance of Jacquie Currey's material will be sold. The proceeds will go to the scholarship fund.

NEW BUSINESS:

SPRING FLING: Yard Sale will be held the same day, April 17th. We are trying to have groups open up tables to people not in small groups. We will be providing table cloths, runners, plates, cups, hot and cold tea, lemonade and water. One goodie will be supplied to each table and we are going to have a SURPRISE GUEST.

AV EQUIPMENT: Roseann and Lady Andrea are working with sound system. Speakers need to be moved back which should help with the frequency and improve hearing ability.

A discussion was had regarding purchasing tables for our use and giving them to the Rec Center so we will have extra tables when we need them. Decision to be made at a future time.

Dot and Bethany Price are in need of help with Brigittes "Stash" They will be having a sale the weekend of April 25, 26 and 27. Everything is up for sale.

CHARITY OUTREACH:

SCHOLARSHIPS: Penny has 6 applicants. She would like to be able to award all of the a scholarship. We have $6378 available. Mary Parkin made a motion to give each applicant $1,000. It was seconded by Pam King. Motion passed.

FOOD BANK: We still have 4 months open for this year.

BABY BOUTIQUE: There is a lot of flannel available. They will have kits available at the next meeting.

EDUCATION: Marsha Layton will give a presentation at the May Membership Meeting and will hold a class on Friday. In June the Hen House will be hosting Demomania.

MEMBERSHIP: There are currently a large number of members delinquent in their dues. Pat will call each member this month to remind them they need to pay their dues. Mary Borders made a motion that the May Board meeting is the final day for payment of dues. Anyone not paid by this date will be deleted from the membership roles. The motion was seconded by Mary Parkin and passed.

PUBLIC RELATIONS:

Sue Kolczak is planning a new mystery quilt possibly for September.

SPECIAL EVENTS:

QUILTERS RETREAT: Balance at the end of the Retreat was $537. The contract for the next Retreat is prepared. It will cost approximately $326 per person, double occupancy. Handicapped will be more. The sewing room will open at 1 pm instead of 4 pm. Rooms will be available at 3 pm on Thursday.

AUDIT: Audit was done by Mary Borders and Mary Parkin and is completed to the end of March.

QUILT SHOW: Next meeting on May 8 at 9am at Rhondas' house.

OPPORTUNITY QUILT: We would like to start giving tickets out at the May Membership Meeting for members to sell. It was suggested each member be asked to sell $20 in tickets.

Motion to adjourn at 11:35 by Kathie Beaty, seconded by Susanna Brannon.

Respectfully submitted,
Arlene DiGregorio
