

Quilt Show Committee Meeting
West Pasco Quilters' Guild, Inc.

October 9, 2025

The Coop (Rhonda Koning's House)

Mission Statement: The West Pasco Quilters' Guild, Inc. provides charity within our community and quality education to the public about quilts and quilting

Attendance : Pat Utecht, Rhonda Koning, Pam King, Julie Gohring, Sue Kolczak, Mary Borders, Michele Crary, Kathy Robertson, Kathie Beaty, Mary Parkin, Janie Franco, Ann Templeton, Susanna Branon, Pat Hazellief, Arlene DiGregorio, Nancy Meinhardt, Barbara Manning, Cheryl Faucak, Elaine Plourde

Boutique: All is going well. All quilts sold on the show floor or bed turning room will be charged 20% consignment fee and will have to follow the same process as consignment with form and tags. Michele Crary has the forms and green tags for these quilts.

Demos & Lectures: each will be two days. Handwork area going well.

Bed Turning: The space will be adjusted depending on the number of quilts for sale. All forms should be sent to Sue Kolczak.

Facebook: Only Pam King and Rhonda Koning have the ability to post on our public site. Both our public and private websites are current.

Members Opening Reception: Pete Altman will be there

Appraiser: Don't know yet

QOV: The goal for the ceremonies is 80 quilts. So far we have 50 completed and 18 more are being quilted.

NPR Trolley: will be available on Friday and Saturday, starting at 10 AM each day. Looking into valet service.

Hall Display: We will hang examples of items from our classes

Vendors: All are in place

Guild Challenge and Memento Pins : Both are ready

Program Design: Design layout is done

Outdoor signs: Working with the city

Food Concession: Chicken Salad Chicks discussed

Small Quilts Shop: All small quilts will be pre-priced. We have received 40 so far – need more

Kids' Corner and Youth challenge: Taking donations for participant's gift bags

Show Helpers: Sign -up will start at October Membership meeting

Church Displays : Methodist so far

Others: Art Guild, Historical Society

Next Meeting: November 13, 2025 -9AM at Rhonda Koning's house

Submitted by: Pat Utecht