Public Relations: A Brainstorm for advertising will be held in July/August.

New Port Richey city will declare Quilt week in February. Also looking to have an electronic sign in NPR

Creating a coffee mug for NPR city council was discussed.

We discussed creating a sandwich board for Admission cost at entrance

Media kits are being prepared.

Catalog and Program designs should be ready in September and October respectively.

We are still looking for church , art guild and historical society displays

Facebook will carry a weekly mention of the quilt show on our public page

Vendors: All are in place and Martelli is coming

Patriotic Honor: We have 57 completed quilts – 44 that need quilting – and 13 that need binding. So far we have received 50 requests for awarding

Judging: We will be adding an explanation of the rating on the form

Quilt Show Passport: Still discussing

Quilt Appraiser: Still Looking

A sharpener will be at the show at 8:00 a.m. for pick up

The committee discussed allowing quilt owners to have their quilts for sale. This will be taken to the board for consideration.
