

Quilt Show Committee Meeting

West Pasco Quilters' Guild, Inc.

September 11, 2025

The Coop (Rhonda Koning's House)

Mission Statement: The West Pasco Quilters' Guild, Inc. provides charity within our community and quality education to the public about quilts and quilting

Attendance: Pat Utecht, Pam King, Rhonda Koning, Julie Gohring, Nancy Meinhardt, Susanna Branon, Elaine Plourde, Colleen Beckett, Mary Borders, Sharon Wigglesworth, Carol Buonomo, Kathy Robertson, Roberta Cash, Arlene DiGregorio, Mary Parkin, Janie Franco, Anne Templeton, Cheryl Faucak, Diane Bounds, Genie Betts

Publicity: notices will be placed on Facebook. We will send fliers to other guilds in the area and send email to our members to put notices in their community newsletters. The month of February will be named quilt month by New Port Richey. Sue Kolczak has lots of quilts for the Art Guild. Churches, Historical Society are to be determined. Media kits are now available.

Youth Challenge: Materials donation requests are going out this week. We will have two or three machines available. Each kid will receive a gift bag.

Opportunity Quilt: 1000 tickets have already been sold

Small Quilts: Approximately 50 pieces so far

Basket Walk: Need more storage after creation. A list of basket themes is in the newsletter

Food Concession: Asking the Recreation Center to use their service. Chicken Salad Chicks was also suggested.

Admissions: Each sponsor will receive 2 vouchers.

Outdoor Signage: Snipe signs will be used and we are also looking at other options.

Program Design: Pictures will be taken at October Membership meeting.

Catalogue Design: Ongoing

Pins and Mementos: A sample of the pins was shown to us

Vendors: All slots are full

Quilt Registration: A clarification of "panel" definition on the registration form

BOUTIQUE

Day Camp - Rope bowls will be featured. All items will be for the boutique

Demomania – Every other year will be only for boutique item creation.

Marketing for items was discussed

Quilts for sale: Our board approved the concept. Process details need to be worked out. The bed-turning area will need to be made smaller to accommodate the sale area.

Photo Op: Back drop for the pictures will be in the hallway.

There was a discussion regarding making an ATM available at the show.

Submitted by Pat Utecht