MISSION STATEMENT: The West Pasco Quilters Guild, Inc. provides charity within our community and quality education to the public about quilts and quilting.

Present: Julie Gohring, Arlene DiGregorio, Karen Oertel, Mary Parkin, Kathie Beaty, Elaine Plourde, Pat Donohoo, Kim Smith, Sandra Teclaw, Valerie Stanton, Nancy Meinhardt, Janie Franco, Kathy Robertson, RoseAnn Verheyen, Lori Romanosky, Ann Marshall, Mary Borders, Pam King, Susanna Branon, Penny Black, and Barbara Manning.

OLD BUSINESS: A motion was made by Susanna Branon and seconded by Mary Parkin to accept the minutes of the December Board and Membership Meetings. Motion was passed.

TREASURERS REPORT: attached. A motion was made by Karen Oertel and seconded by Ann Marshall to accept the Treasurers Report. Motion Passed.

MEMBERSHIP: Remainder of the renewal forms will be sent out today.

NEW BUSINESS: LIBRARY: Valerie Stanton still needs an assistant for sales and donations. Position requires person only be at meetings when Library is open and no other times.

CHARITY OUTREACH: Lori Romanosky and Ann Marshall stated all quilts were given out for Christmas. Will give Julie and Rhonda a list of who received them. This summer 200 quilts will be given to Wheel Chair for Kids to be used for beds for their summer camp.

SCHOLARSHIPS: Penny Black will put an article in the Guild newsletter about Scholarships.

FOOD BANK: Still have open months. It was suggested we pick a few food banks to be designated charities. Will be brought up to membership.

BABY BOUTIQUE: Mary Parkin stated we just have Oasis at present. She going to contact other resources.

EDUCATION: Pam King informed us there is going to be a presentation at the January meeting by Krissy Brawner from Love Quilting. She will be talking about batting, needles and thread.

ART CHALLENGE: This month's challenge will be Valentines and the fat quarter color is green.

PARLIAMENTARIAN: Voting is next month. Nominating Committees work is complete.

SPECIAL EVENTS: Quilt Retreat Committee will have an article in next month's newsletter. March Membership Meeting will be sign ups.

HOSPITALITY: We will be having our Anniversary Tea Party. This year the Guild will provide dessert or something of that nature instead of the main part of the meal.

WAYS AND MEANS: Penny Black said no one is volunteering to do the monthly basket. January is being done by Sew Much Fun and someone has signed up for later in the year. She states people are just not happy with the contents of the baskets. It will be discussed further at the February meeting.

YARD SALE: will be held at the February 19th Membership Meeting. Tables are $10 each.

AUDIT: Mary Parkin states the Audit will be completed. She is putting together a new team.

Meeting was adjourned at 11:24 am.

Respectfully submitted,
Arlene DiGregorio
