Matthew 14, Mark 6, Luke 9 and John 6

The early morning had been a blur - John the Baptist had been executed, the disciples had joyfully completed their short-term mission trip and the multitudes were pressing Jesus with their demands for teaching and healing. To sort out his feelings and spend time with his disciples, Jesus led the twelve to get into a boat and set sail for the other side of the Galilean Sea. They landed on the other side only to be unexpectedly interrupted.

What can we learn?
