

Farewell is never having to say goodbye: Jens Ward

Everything is done on reflection

Even in a darkened room

We cannot escape

An image

On reflection

The thought of you

Is etched forever in my mind

It can never be erased

Just softens over time

I know you are here

I sense it

I truly feel it

I know you are very near

The memory of you

So bright, so ever clear

One day

I know

One day

We'll meet again

And again and again...
