

Formidable Force... : Titania

The black sheep

The tall poppies

The quiet achievers

The ugly ducklings

The late bloomers

The rebels

The rabble rousers

The visionaries

The weird and wonderful ones

The crazy ones

United we stand

A formidable force

Peaceful warriors

Are we

Come to awaken, enliven and enlighten mankind

Black sheep; more interesting

Who sings 'Baa Baa White Sheep?'

Tall poppies have something to say

Listen and rise up yourself

Ugly ducklings

Transform into beautiful swans

And often, late bloomers

Are beautiful; resplendent

Diamonds in the rough

Rebels rebel against tyranny

Rousing the rabble to awaken

Sleeping masses
Visionaries propel mankind forward
Do the masses see what they see now?
Did they see those far-sighted visions when
They thought we were morons?
And tried to shout and shut us down?
Diversity is the spice of life, people
We'd be a race of brainwashed zombies
Had we all been the same
Fancy that?
Nope; thought not

I urge you to begin
If you haven't already
To think outside limiting confines
Of confounded, stifling boxes
Come out for a much-needed
Breath of fresh, crisp, clean air
If I am rattling your cage;
I encourage you not to get the
Sh!ts
Instead, thank me
For I have just reminded you
That you are in one
Well thanks, you may say
Dripping with sarcasm
Hear me out, precious
I'm going somewhere with this
Think of it as a magical
Side quest
On a grand adventure
As I also lovingly remind you

That you and only you hold that key
To unlock your magnificence
Freeing yourself
Once and for all
To shine
Encouraging others
To shine their beautiful, unique starlight
Brightening the sky
Of our infinite
Internal universes

The next time you want to scream 'weirdo'
To someone who is different
To that creative soul
To ADHD and Autistic people
Think on that before you yell
We have feelings
Just like you
It is cool to be different
Unique

Always remember the crazy ones
And come join our heartfelt cause
The more the merrier
No hard feelings, promise
Normal is so effing overrated anyway
Yesterday's news
So, let's lovingly recycle
Those old, virulent beliefs
Letting bygones be bygones

For it is well known that

Those who are crazy
Enough to think they
Can change the world
Are the ones who do

Boom shaka laka!

Namaste
{My spirit greets your spirit in peace}
