

Free, Flamboyant, Feisty, Fierce: Titania

Free, flamboyant, feisty, fierce

Me to a tee

Not just through colourful

And earthy tones I wear

Or expressive costume jewellery

My spirit, defiant

Buoyant as a bumblebee

Fierce against injustice

Feisty; can't keep

A good girl down

Oh no!

Up, up, up she rises

Not so early in the morning

A bona fide night-owl I am

Hoo Hoo Hoo

Twinkling like the evening stars

Free as the Four Winds

Ever grateful for freedom

That feisty, flamboyant, fierce spirit

Flamboyance abounding in words

And artistic expression,

Writing the stories in my soul,

Creating the art in my heart

Enlightening, awakening, freeing,

Inspiring, enlivening

Caution: Within these walls a writer dwells

Abandon all preconceived ideas

Those who enter here

You too can be flamboyant,

Dress your soul

Sadly, some people

Think frumpy is a go

No, precious,

Value yourself

Wear that which makes you come alive

Not shallow;

An outward expression of

Your wonderful spirit

A poor young man I saw

Wore a t-shirt

"I just wanna die"

It said.

His devastated look

Broke my heart

Seeing his tears roll

Silent love I sent

To uplift his aching soul

What you wear says a great deal

Clothes and jewels

Don't have to be designer made

My favourite jewellery;

Earthy and tribal, shells and wood

A colourful enamel whale

A bronzed telephone box with pretend coins

An open silver parachute

Reminding me I am safe and loved

Enhancing my aura

My favourite accessories

A crocheted belt,

And 'Unicorns Are Real'

'Shimmer & Shine'

Genie bags.

"Magic in the Stars"

It says.

Defy the norm I do

Never grew up

Many who show off

With expensive clothes

And jewellery

Are shallow beneath

You can be flamboyant

And humble to boot

Not making a song and dance

Or hoot

Like some egoic celebrity

Oh no

Be real, precious

Be authentic

Be you

Be flamboyant, free, feisty and fierce

In all that you do

Express yourself

In that magical way only you can
The world needs your unique gifts
You do deserve to shine,
Precious one
Yes, you do

Calling creative spirits
To enhance our world
Into one of joy, love, vibrant health
Freedom, prosperity, justice and Peace

I'll leave you with a purple bumper sticker
I once saw.
"Be yourself.
There's nobody better qualified."
And on what set of wheels did I spy this?

A snazzy black Lamborghini.

Vroom shakalaka!
