

What Famous Means to my Family and Me: Trina Ehsan

I researched about the meaning of the word famous and also, I asked my family and friends to express their opinions about the meaning of famous.

Below is the meaning of the famous I found.

Famous means popular, outstanding, distinguished, praised, commendable, praiseworthy, laudable, glorious, honorable, excellent, great, high, supreme, specified, determined, well-known, wonderful, known about by many people.

Famous means something or someone liked or admired by many people or by a particular person or group.

Famous means a belief or attitude held by the majority of the general public.

Famous is a political activity carried on by the people as a whole rather than restricted to politicians or political parties.

Also famous means known by many people. For example, the country is famous for its natural beauty. Here are my friends and my family opinions:

My friend Lynsey said:

'Famous' for me means 'well known to a wide circle of people for something positive, though it might not be important.'

My mother was famous among her friends for her strawberry cream cakes. Zelenskyy is a famous political and military leader. Some lazy people might use 'famous' for a negative characteristic or evil action. When people are widely known for very negative actions or characteristics, they are 'famous.' The Wagner Group is a private Russian army that is infamous for war crimes.

My son Mustafa said:

'Famous means known and recognized by many people.'

My daughter in- law Negin said:

In my opinion, famous means someone who is very well known by many people, or something which is very popular by its quality or brand and benefits, and a big amount of population using it, and it can be whatever you can think of. Also, I think everyone or everything which is famous would be different in every culture or community or country. Something can be famous world-wide and something can be famous just in a community, which means it depends on the type of it.

My daughter Lema said:

Famous to me means someone who has accomplished or achieved a high level of work. I also think someone who is famous lives a rich lifestyle with a big house and lots of money. I feel a famous person would struggle to feel humble and always trying to be perfect. It would affect their identity to feel anything other than famous. That they are nothing of a person if they lose their fame so they might try and try to be famous so people don't forget them. I think everyone is famous to themselves because they hold themselves to a high level and importance.
