

Dreamliner: M. Giles

Floating away, on a sea of stars, sailing away to a land afar,
Following the gently flowing stream, to a place I have never seen,
Far beyond all darkness, beyond the shades of Night,
To a land of endless sunshine, a world of shining Light,
All my dearest ones are with me, all my family and friends,
Aboard our Dreamliner cruise, on a voyage that never ends,
Smiling faces all around me, bringing comfort from my pain,
Softly soothing voices, that fall on me like rain,
I hear a joyful singing, like a pageant in my heart
As I apply my make-up, and make ready to depart
Now I think that I am prepared at last, to play my final scene
On my Dreamliner cruise, aboard my ship of Dreams.
