

HTX Guide to Drinks, Eats, & Local Favorite Spots

Food scene

The Pit Room

1201 Richmond Avenue

125 locals recommend

Can't come to Houston without trying our world famous barbecue

Uchi

904 Westheimer Rd

219 locals recommend

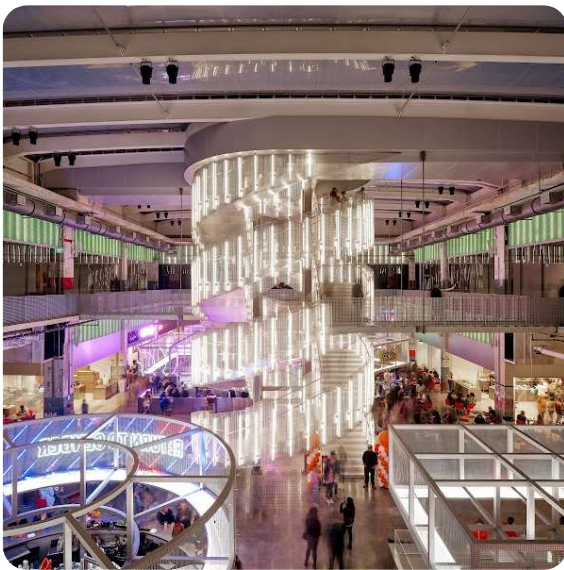

James Beard Award-winning Chef and Owner Tyson Cole is one of few American Sushi masters

Rosie Cannonball

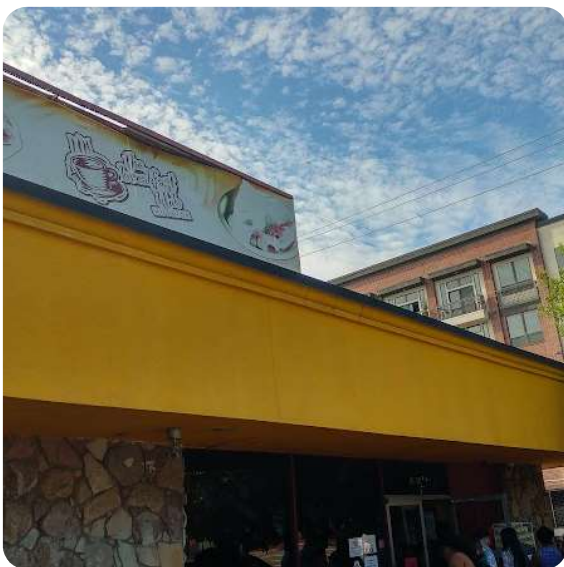

1620 Westheimer Rd

20 locals recommend

POST Market (Food Hall)

Visit this bustling food hall, and you're bound to encounter the many walks of Houston life and cuisine, thanks to dozens of food stalls. From a blend of West African food ways at Chopnblok with heartwarming curry rice bowls, budget-friendly sushi, decadent cakes at Lucy Pearl's, and Filipino cuisine at Soy Pinoy, there's something for everyone.

The Breakfast Klub

3711 Travis St

494 locals recommend

Don't let the line out the door intimidate you — the chicken and waffles at this legendary Houston breakfast joint are a must, delivering the perfect balance of sweet and salty. With a stamp of approval from Beyonce, this Midtown staple is a casual spot for crispy catfish and grits, cheesy breakfast sandwiches, and an excellent eggs Benedict served on a biscuit.

Damian's Cucina Italiana

3011 Smith St

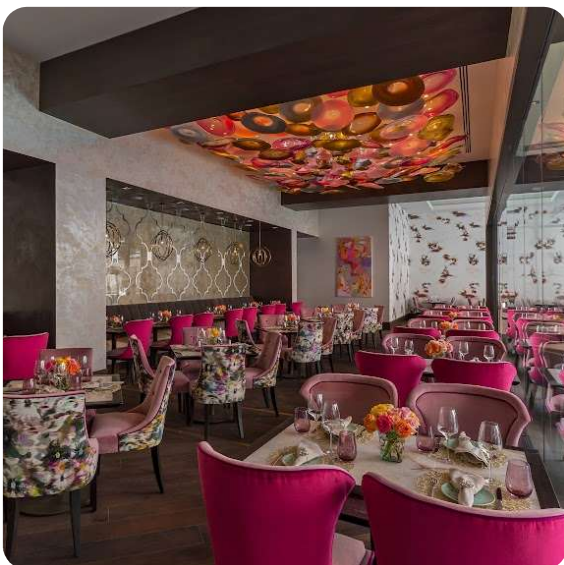

8 locals recommend

MAD

4444 Westheimer Rd

20 locals recommend

Bloom & Bee

1600 W Loop S

14 locals recommend

Flora

Sightseeing

The Menil Collection

1533 Sul Ross St

491 locals recommend

The Houston Museum of Natural Science

5555 Hermann Park Dr

863 locals recommend

Children's Museum of Houston

1500 Binz St

377 locals recommend

Shopping

River Oaks District

4444 Westheimer Rd

141 locals recommend

The Galleria

5085 Westheimer Rd

1869 locals recommend