Dear Sir or Madam,

INTRODUCTION TO THE ORCHESTRATED ATTACK AGAINST THE PLAINTIFF

12. This action arises from a deliberate, coordinated campaign of online harassment, defamation, and reputational sabotage orchestrated by Defendant Jeremy Hales and his associates, including, but not limited to, Defendants Megan Fox, Jay Hip, and others. Plaintiff, a retired attorney who now assists her husband's law firm, became the target of this campaign after participating in a neutral interview regarding ongoing litigation involving Defendant Hales. What began as a single Facebook post about a mutual acquaintance escalated rapidly, as Defendants weaponized their significant online following to publish and amplify hundreds of false, malicious statements about Plaintiff.

13. These attacks, carried out across public Facebook groups and live YouTube broadcasts, included defamatory claims about Plaintiff's professional status, personal life, and mental health, and were calculated to destroy her reputation and livelihood.
14. Despite Plaintiff's repeated efforts to correct the record and halt the harassment—including providing sworn affidavits from the Florida Bar—Defendants persisted, recruiting followers, encouraging hate sites, and profiting from live donations rooted in the continued dissemination of these falsehoods. The conduct at issue has caused severe, ongoing harm to Plaintiff's personal and professional life, necessitating judicial intervention and redress.

INTRODUCTION TO DEFENDANT(S) SUBSCRIBER SCHEME

15. Defendants are misleading the public while presenting themselves as advocates for transparency and truth. Defendant Hales has orchestrated a concerted scheme designed to manipulate viewership analytics, silence dissent, and financially benefit those who participate in his campaign. This operation is not a matter of speculation—it is a calculated effort that rewards loyalty to Hales with inflated followers, increased visibility, and monetary compensation, while punishing those who refuse to participate.
16. Data analysis shows that creators who align themselves with Hales, including Megan Fox, “That Umbrella Guy,” and Jay Hipp, have experienced dramatic spikes in their online metrics soon after joining his circle and promoting his narrative. This is not mere coincidence. The evidence indicates that these creators have been incentivized to support

Hales' agenda and, in return, have reaped significant online and financial benefits. Those who decline to participate or who attempt to expose the scheme have faced targeted harassment, defamation, and orchestrated attacks intended to damage their reputations and silence their voices.

17. This pattern of behavior extends beyond simple online rivalry. It constitutes a systematic campaign to manipulate public opinion and stifle free expression. The coordinated use of fake accounts, cyber harassment, and intimidation tactics demonstrates an intention to suppress dissent and maintain control over the narrative. The goal is not just personal profit, but the creation of an environment where truth-telling is punished and misinformation is rewarded.
18. The consequences of this scheme are far-reaching. When public discourse is subject to manipulation through coordinated misinformation and intimidation, the integrity of online platforms—and by extension, the rights of individuals to express themselves freely—is fundamentally undermined. This is not merely “YouTube drama”; it is a matter of public concern that warrants legal scrutiny and redress.
19. Evidence supporting these claims includes timelines, digital communications, and analytics data that clearly illustrate the existence and operation of this scheme. While some material is reserved for ongoing litigation, the available public evidence is sufficient to establish a pattern of conduct that is both deliberate and damaging. The public deserves transparency, and those responsible for orchestrating and benefiting from such schemes must be held accountable.
20. It is essential for the court to recognize the seriousness of this conduct and its impact on both individuals and the broader public. Only through legal action can we ensure that those who manipulate, intimidate, and profit at the expense of honest discourse are brought to justice. The pursuit of truth and the protection of free expression depend on the willingness to expose and address such schemes wherever they appear.

FACTS

21. On or about April 26, 2025, Plaintiff, a retired lawyer who assists her husband with his law firm and is not in the business of reporting, observed a disturbing post on Facebook concerning a mutual acquaintance who was an investigative reporter. Out of concern, Plaintiff notified the acquaintance about the post. Subsequently, the acquaintance requested that Plaintiff interview him regarding lawsuits filed by Defendant Hales, as Plaintiff was a retired attorney who could better understand the legal issues.
22. Plaintiff agreed to conduct the interview, maintaining neutrality and posing questions to the acquaintance in his capacity as a reporter. At the acquaintance's request, Plaintiff also attempted to contact another reporter, Defendant Fox, who holds herself to be an investigative reporter, often providing legal commentary on public issues and who had previously reported favorably on issues involving Defendant Hales, seeking to present a balanced perspective.
23. On April 27, 2025, Plaintiff emailed Defendant Fox to schedule an interview but received no response. On April 29, 2025, Plaintiff conducted the interview with the acquaintance, maintaining neutrality and objectivity throughout. On or about May 5, 2025, Plaintiff's acquaintance, undisclosed to Plaintiff until after it was published, published the interview with Plaintiff in a Facebook group titled "What the Hales." [EXHIBIT A – timeline exhibits]

24. On or about May 6, 2025, Ania Waterman, working for Defendant Hales from Ireland, began targeting and attacking Plaintiff online, while commenting she is in touch with Defendant Hales. Additionally, Defendant Hales made statements during live broadcasts that Plaintiff was sending Ania Waterman harassing emails. [EXHIBIT A – Timeline]
25. On or about May 13, 2025, Plaintiff was directed to a Facebook public group titled “What the Hales,” using Defendant Hales’ logo, where she observed herself being attacked by group members who are supporters and followers of Defendants Hales and Rizk. It is important to note, Defendant Hales proactively reports any usage of his logo without permission to be taken down and has maintained this Facebook group with over 5,000 members responsible for the online harassment against Plaintiff and others.
26. From May 5, 2025, until present, on this Facebook group, false and defamatory statements were published about Plaintiff, including assertions that she was “knocked up by her acquaintance” (despite being a married woman), that she was “an idiot,” “mental and off her meds,” and that she was “a disbarred attorney,” among many other false and harassing comments. These comments exceed hundreds of publications on this public Facebook group, which comes up in Google searches under Plaintiff’s legal name. Additionally, these posts, upon search, are registered as international accounts, containing no true photographs, and only muppet or animal depictions. [EXHIBIT A – timeline exhibits]
27. On or about May 15, 2025, members of the Facebook group began posting that Plaintiff is a disbarred attorney, among voluminous insults and harassment. This has continued to date. Comments imply Plaintiff is a transsexual, Plaintiff is crazy and off her meds, and Plaintiff just wants to grow her YouTube channel. Clients began calling Plaintiff to inform her they are seeing the online attack against her and feel bad for her. Within a day, over 500 people subscribed to Plaintiff's YouTube channel and began making berating comments to Plaintiff about being a failed, disbarred attorney. Additionally, Plaintiff began receiving harassing emails from those endorsing Defendant Hales. Plaintiff provided all parties with the sworn affidavit from the Florida Bar; however, they continued to falsely state Plaintiff retired to evade disbarment and falsely posted the reasons for her retirement. These harassing emails continue to date. [EXHIBIT A – timeline exhibits][EXHIBIT E]

28. Plaintiff also witnessed parties Defendant Hales is suing in a federal lawsuit filed by Hales, Case No. 1:25cv58/RH/ZCB, being targeted by this Facebook "hate group" titled "What the Hales" with hateful language, threats, and posts intended to damage their reputations. These included accusations of criminal conduct, ridicule of their appearance, and anti-Semitic remarks, among other hateful content. Despite voluminous attempts to report made by those being attacked, Facebook to date refuses to take this group down. [EXHIBIT B – Notice of Google search, etc.]

29. Plaintiff was provided with extensive video footage of Defendant Hales and Defendant Rizk, which had been published on Hales's YouTube channel, titled "What the Hales." In these videos, Defendant Hales stated that he was not filing lawsuits for justice against various parties, did not care about court opinions, and was filing lawsuits solely to keep parties in his lawsuits tied up in court and to "drain and ruin them financially." Defendant Hales expressly stated that litigation was about destroying the lives of those he sues, and he broadcast these statements and his ridicule of various targeted parties to his audience of over 730,000 followers. Additionally, Defendant Hales' YouTube channel "What the Hales" included thumbnails and video coverage where Hales referred to parties he is suing in his lawsuits as criminals, mocked their appearance, and made anti-Semitic remarks, among other hateful statements.

30. On or about May 16, 2025, Megan Fox, That Umbrella Guy, and Jay Hip began to go live in front of thousands of people, stating and mocking Plaintiff as a failed attorney who retired to evade disbarment. Plaintiff was subsequently invited by YouTube reporters, who were also named as defendants in Defendant Hales' federal lawsuits, to participate in their shows following the online harassment attack she had been victim of. Plaintiff conducted another interview in which these YouTube reporters, and during interviews, notified Plaintiff that they were being attacked by Defendant Hales, causing them harm and needing to voice their side of the events publicly to provide rebuttal material to that which was circulating throughout online forums.
31. Following Plaintiff's participation in these interviews, the Facebook group "What the Hales" continued publishing false written statements that Plaintiff was a disbarred attorney and made fun of her appearance, among other insults. These publications continue to date.
32. On or about May 16, 2025, in response to the attacks, and Facebook's refusal to take down this hate group and in hopes it would get them to stop. Plaintiff began to create a satirical video series called the "HoDunk Hillbillies" and gave it to Lisa Weeks, Supa Dave, Bruce, Rich Luthmann, Attorney Bruce, and Michael Volpe to post after seeing how they were all being attacked by Jeremy Hales and his supporters, to depict how she was viewing this situation and attacks against her, not using anyone's names and making it clear it was satire.
33. On May 18, 2025, Defendant Hipsher hosted a live YouTube broadcast during which he mocked Plaintiff's appearance and falsely stated that she retired to avoid disbarment.

34. On May 19, 2025, Defendant Hales and Defendant Rizk hosted a live video on their YouTube channel, soliciting and receiving donations, while publishing false statements about Plaintiff, including the claim that she retired only to avoid disbarment. During this same week, Defendant Hip participated and discussed Plaintiff, repeating defamatory statements. Immediately following this live broadcast, Plaintiff emailed Defendant Hales and Defendant Hip a cease and desist letter, attaching an affidavit from her state bar confirming that her retirement from legal practice was not to avoid disbarment. Defendant Hales responded, “See you in Court.”
35. On May 19, 2025, Plaintiff filed a lawsuit, later amending it to name Jeremy Hales, Jay Hip, and George Hales after sending Defendant Fox a cease and desist in which Fox responded by calling the attorney a “Dummy.” [EXHIBIT B – Notice of Google search, etc.]
36. On or about May 21, 2025, hate groups mocking Plaintiff were created on Facebook, where Plaintiff’s physical appearance was mocked, with her name tagged publicly. Megan Fox hosted a live broadcast making a mockery out of Plaintiff’s lawsuit against everyone, encouraging an audience, while posting personal family law cases involving Plaintiff. [EXHIBIT C]
37. On or about May 21, 2025, during Jay Hip’s live broadcast with Megan Fox, Jeremy Hales made it known he was watching and participated through written comments. The broadcast included several jabs and references directed at someone described as a “disbarred” attorney. Jeremy Hales made a remark: “it’s amazing how the felons, disbarred, wig-wearing, Botox, botched plastic surgery people flock together,” clearly lumping the “disbarred” person in with a group he’s mocking. There was also a live chat comment referring to “the disbarred Florida attorney,” further singling out Plaintiff. Regarding “lips,” the conversation turned to mocking someone nicknamed “Legally Liable Lips,” joking she used to work as a puppet or a Muppet, specifically comparing her to Janice from the Muppets, and stating her character was made to look just like her, calling it “uncanny” and a “disservice to the Muppets,” clearly using “lips” as a target for ridicule related to her appearance and possibly manner of speaking.

38. From May 21, 2025, until May 27, 2025, Plaintiff became debilitated, depressed, and almost hospitalized due to all defendant(s) actions which exacerbated by her ADA protected disability. Plaintiff deleted every one of her social media accounts to evade the attack. However, they continued to attack her on multiple social media forums during live and Facebook posts and emails directly sent to her following this. [EXHIBIT A – Timeline]
39. On or about May 26, 2025, and subsequent to Plaintiff filing her initial complaint against Defendants Hales, Rizk, and Hip, Defendant Fox and Defendant Umbrella Guy began publishing comments about Plaintiff’s private life for an audience on YouTube and continued to promote the narrative that Plaintiff is a disbarred attorney. They continued to publish daily broadcasts in which they insulted, belittled, demeaned, and made false statements about Plaintiff, spending the majority of their broadcasts discussing Plaintiff’s life, referring to Plaintiff as being “mental, crazy, off her meds, a crazy bitch,” etc.
40. Defendant Fox stated that Plaintiff created revenge porn about Defendant Fox, resulting in Plaintiff receiving voluminous hate emails to her work.[1] ¹

41. On May 27, 2025, Plaintiff amended her complaint to add Megan Fox and That Umbrella Guy after witnessing them making statements to imply she retired to evade disbarment.
42. On May 27, 2025, Plaintiff opened a YouTube channel for the purpose of having her own voice against those who were attacking her. Plaintiff began making satirical videos mocking those who were attacking and spreading false statements about her. [EXHIBIT A – Timeline]
43. All Defendants recruited supporters and followers to create online “hate sites” about Plaintiff and continued to harass Plaintiff daily through these social media posts, hate sites, and YouTube live streams. Plaintiff was forced to delete all her social media accounts to avoid seeing these “hate sites,” and clients began to ask her why such sites were being published against her. All Defendants assisted and recruited followers to alter Plaintiff’s photographs—making her appear as a clown, with exaggerated lips—and located childhood pictures of Plaintiff, which they used to further mock her appearance. Plaintiff was branded by the name “LIPS” and “LEGALLY LIPS.” All Defendants profited pursuant to live donations they received during these live streams, using Plaintiff’s image, reporting on Plaintiff’s private life, personal information, false statements, and using international third parties to harass Plaintiff all over the internet, essentially ruining her online reputation and professional image.
44. On or about June 3, 2025, supporters of Hales, in contact with him, began to harass Plaintiff’s children and family. [EXHIBIT A – Timeline]
45. On June 7, 2025, YouTube influencer DJ Rattis, who is endorsed by Hales and makes money from his YouTube channel, and who is domiciled in Australia, published a video where he used Plaintiff's image and voice and created a false interview depicting her in a demeaning light, while tagging her legal name as the heading. [EXHIBIT A – Timeline]

46. Plaintiff reported this to YouTube and created a satirical video tagging DJ Rattis' name and challenging him to a dance off to try and make humor from the situation. DJ Rattis then created an insulting song where he published it, using Plaintiff's name, while calling her a fail, loser, among other insulting language. [EXHIBIT A – Timeline]

47. On or about June 5, 2025, Plaintiff reached out to Jay Hip in an attempt to settle everything and to gain confirmation that he and others would not keep falsely reporting about the status of her retirement. In this conversation, she said insults are one thing, but false statements affecting her professional reputation and livelihood cannot be tolerated because she works for her husband's law firm and has clients who are seeing these posts and questioning whether or not she was disbarred. In this conversation, Jay Hip informed Plaintiff that he is in contact with Megan Fox and That Umbrella Guy and requested she drop them too. Plaintiff stated she would not be dropping the lawsuit, but as long as they would not continue to falsely report about her retirement status, she would drop both Megan Fox and That Umbrella Guy. However, the following week they continued to falsely report about Plaintiff's retirement status. [EXHIBIT A – Timeline]

48. On or about June 7, 2025, Ania Waterman, in contact with Defendant Hales, sent an email harassing Plaintiff, to which Plaintiff responded civilly, trying to get her to stop. After Plaintiff agreed to apologize because Ania Waterman told Plaintiff she had autism, Ania Waterman began posting publicly, clearly intended to make Plaintiff appear as if she was picking on a vulnerable person. [EXHIBIT A – Timeline]

49. From or about May 27, 2025, until present, Megan Fox and That Umbrella Guy continued to report that Plaintiff retired to evade disbarment, despite being emailed the Florida Bar's sworn affidavit that evidences this is false. Megan Fox claimed she spoke to the Florida Bar and that Plaintiff retired to evade disbarment. She proceeded to call Plaintiff a "crazy bitch," and both she and That Umbrella Guy made comments about Plaintiff's mental health, claiming she is off her meds and crazy. [EXHIBIT A – Timeline]
50. Plaintiff's reputation online has been completely ruined as a professional. [See EXHIBIT B] Defendant Hales refuses to be noticed in the aforementioned case as to the evidence and continues to tell the clerk of court to take him off the e-service list, claiming he is an interested party/attorney, failing to tell the clerk of court he is a named defendant. [Exhibit D]
51. To date, Plaintiff continues to receive harassing emails and has suffered substantial damages in result of the Defendants actions. [EXHIBIT E]
52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all Notices filed containing exhibits of evidence in support of this 2nd Amended Complaint.

CAUSE OF ACTION:

COUNT I(A): DEFAMATION (LIBEL AND SLANDER)
(Against Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and Others)

53. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 52 as if fully set forth herein.
54. Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Megan Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and other individuals identified in the preceding paragraphs, acting individually and in concert, intentionally published and/or republished false and defamatory statements about Plaintiff across multiple social media platforms, including but not limited to Facebook and YouTube.

55. On or about April 26, 2025, Plaintiff, a retired attorney assisting her husband's law firm and not in the business of reporting, became involved in an interview at the request of a mutual acquaintance, an investigative reporter, regarding lawsuits filed by Defendant Hales. Plaintiff maintained neutrality and objectivity during the interview and sought, at the acquaintance's request, to include Defendant Fox to ensure a balanced perspective.
56. On or about May 5, 2025, this interview was published without Plaintiff's prior knowledge in the Facebook group "What the Hales," a group maintained by Defendant Hales and known for targeting individuals involved in litigation with him.
57. Shortly thereafter, beginning on or about May 6, 2025, Defendants and their associates, including Ania Waterman, from Ireland, acting in coordination with Defendant Hales, initiated a coordinated campaign of online harassment and defamation against Plaintiff. This included public statements, both in Facebook groups and live YouTube broadcasts, falsely accusing Plaintiff of harassing behavior, being "knocked up by her acquaintance," "mental and off her meds," and, repeatedly and falsely, being "a disbarred attorney," "retired to evade disbarment" among numerous other derogatory and harassing characterizations.
58. On or about May 13, 2025, Plaintiff discovered that these defamatory and harassing statements were being widely disseminated among members of the "What the Hales" Facebook group, which Defendant Hales controls and in which he has a known practice of enforcing the use of his logo and maintaining a large, active membership. These statements, including the false claim that Plaintiff is a disbarred attorney, have persisted and multiplied, with hundreds of publications visible in Google searches under Plaintiff's legal name.

59. From May 15, 2025, and continuing to date, group members and Defendants further escalated their attacks, publishing additional false statements implying Plaintiff is a transsexual, is "crazy and off her meds," and suggesting that her professional motivations are fraudulent. These attacks have resulted in Plaintiff's clients contacting her with concern and confusion, and an influx of online harassment, including hundreds of berating comments and harassing emails from individuals aligned with Defendant Hales, even after Plaintiff provided a sworn affidavit from the Florida Bar substantiating that she was not disbarred.

60. Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Megan Fox, Umbrella Guy, and others, using their respective social media platforms and live broadcasts with substantial audiences, continued to publish, republish, and amplify these false claims. They falsely asserted that Plaintiff retired to evade disbarment, mocked Plaintiff's appearance and mental health, and accused her of criminal or unethical conduct, including but not limited to accusations of involvement in "revenge porn." These broadcasts and posts were frequently monetized through live donations and advertising revenue.

61. Defendants acted with actual malice, or at minimum, reckless disregard for the truth. Plaintiff repeatedly provided documentation, including a sworn affidavit from the Florida Bar, disproving the allegations of disbarment and responding to cease and desist requests; nevertheless, Defendants persisted in disseminating the defamatory statements.

62. These false and defamatory statements were published to large, international audiences and have caused significant and ongoing harm to Plaintiff's personal and professional reputation, subjected her to public ridicule and scorn, resulted in emotional distress, and caused economic harm, including loss of business relationships and clients. The defamatory conduct has also extended to attacks on Plaintiff's family, including her children, and the creation and proliferation of online "hate sites" utilizing Plaintiff's likeness and personal information to further harm her reputation.

63. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer damages, including but not limited to humiliation, mental anguish, loss of reputation, and economic harm.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants for compensatory and punitive damages, an injunction prohibiting further defamatory statements, costs of this action, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT I(B): DEFAMATION PER SE
(Against Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and Others)

Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

53. Under Florida law, a statement constitutes defamation per se if it imputes to another: (a) a criminal offense amounting to a felony, (b) a presently existing venereal or other loathsome and communicable disease, (c) conduct, characteristics, or a condition incompatible with the proper exercise of a lawful business, trade, profession, or office, or (d) serious sexual misconduct.

54. Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Megan Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and others, individually and acting in concert, repeatedly published and republished false, unprivileged statements of fact regarding Plaintiff, both verbally and in writing, to third parties throughout various social media channels—including but not limited to YouTube broadcasts, Facebook posts, and the public “What the Hales” Facebook group.

55. Defendants’ statements included, but were not limited to, assertions that Plaintiff was “a disbarred attorney,” that she “retired to avoid disbarment,” that she was “knocked up by her acquaintance,” “she is a transsexual” and that Plaintiff created “revenge porn,” and other statements alleging or implying criminal, unethical, and immoral conduct on the part of Plaintiff. Defendants further mocked Plaintiff’s mental health, accused her of professional incompetence and dishonesty, and made repeated derogatory comments about her personal life, appearance, and character.

56. These statements were published to extraordinarily wide audiences, with several of the relevant YouTube channels and Facebook groups boasting hundreds of thousands of subscribers or members, and with content being disseminated internationally and appearing in online search results for Plaintiff’s legal name. In particular, the “What the Hales” Facebook group, operated and maintained by Defendant Hales and used as a platform to coordinate online attacks, was a central vehicle for the publication and repetition of these defamatory statements.

57. The statements made by Defendants constitute defamation per se under Florida law because they directly impugn Plaintiff’s integrity, ethics, and fitness to practice law and engage in business, and falsely accuse her of conduct incompatible with her profession and of serious sexual misconduct. The repeated assertions that Plaintiff was disbarred, that she retired to evade disbarment, and that she engaged in criminal or morally reprehensible acts, strike at the heart of Plaintiff’s reputation as an attorney and a professional.

58. All such statements were false. Plaintiff has never been disbarred, nor did she retire to avoid disbarment. Her retirement from legal practice was voluntary and unrelated to any disciplinary proceeding, as evidenced by the sworn affidavit from her state bar, which was provided to Defendants. Defendants knowingly ignored this evidence and continued to publish and republish the false statements.

59. Defendants made these statements with actual malice, or at minimum, with reckless disregard for their truth or falsity. Plaintiff repeatedly notified Defendants of the falsity of these claims and provided documentary evidence, yet Defendants persisted in the defamatory conduct.

60. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' false and defamatory statements, Plaintiff has suffered presumed damages to her professional and personal reputation, standing in the community, severe emotional distress, loss of business and client relationships, and other damages to be proven at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendants for compensatory and punitive damages, together with costs, interest, and any further relief this Court deems just and appropriate.

COUNT II: INVASION OF PRIVACY

(False Light, Public Disclosure of Private Facts, Appropriation, Intrusion Upon Seclusion)
(Against Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzywiznut, and Others)

Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

53. Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Megan Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzywiznut, and others, individually and acting in concert, engaged in a sustained campaign of harassment, humiliation, and exploitation of Plaintiff's private life through various social media platforms, including but not limited to Facebook, YouTube, and associated online “hate sites.”

A. False Light

54. Defendants published and widely disseminated statements and content that placed Plaintiff in a false light before the public, including but not limited to: (a) falsely stating that Plaintiff was “knocked up by her acquaintance” despite her marital status; (b) repeatedly claiming Plaintiff was “a disbarred attorney” or that she “retired to avoid disbarment,” despite sworn affidavits from the Florida Bar to the contrary; and (c) falsely accusing Plaintiff of creating “revenge porn.” Referring to the Plaintiff as being a “Transsexual” and “Off her meds” These statements were calculated to subject Plaintiff to public ridicule, contempt, and to mislead the public as to the true facts of Plaintiff’s life and professional standing. Defendants further mocked Plaintiff’s appearance, mental health, and sexual identity, and encouraged their followers to do the same through coordinated group activity and live broadcasts.

55. Defendants knew or acted with reckless disregard as to the falsity of these statements and the damaging, false impression they would create about Plaintiff. Plaintiff repeatedly provided documentation disproving the statements, yet Defendants persisted and amplified the false narrative to hundreds of thousands of viewers and group members.

B. Public Disclosure of Private Facts

56. Defendants publicized private, non-newsworthy facts about Plaintiff, including details of her marital status, private communications, and aspects of her personal and family life. Defendants repeatedly discussed Plaintiff’s alleged personal relationships, career decisions, health status, and other sensitive matters in public broadcasts and posts accessible to a vast online audience. Defendants also encouraged and facilitated the sharing of Plaintiff's private information—including childhood photographs and other personal data—across hate groups and social media forums.

57. The public disclosure of these facts, which were not matters of legitimate public concern, would be highly offensive to a reasonable person, and resulted in Plaintiff's clients, acquaintances, and family members being exposed to and contacting Plaintiff about these online attacks. The ongoing exposure of Plaintiff's private life has caused significant embarrassment and distress.

C. Appropriation

58. Defendants, without Plaintiff's consent, used Plaintiff's name and likeness—including altered, humiliating photographs (such as images depicting Plaintiff as a clown, with exaggerated features, or as the character "Legally Lips"), and childhood images—to attract viewers, solicit donations, and drive engagement with their online content. Defendants and their followers exploited Plaintiff's identity to increase the reach of their social media platforms, monetize content, and profit from live donations during broadcasts in which Plaintiff was targeted and ridiculed.

59. Plaintiff's name, likeness, and personal story were deliberately appropriated and exploited by Defendants for their own commercial and reputational benefit, without any legitimate interest or consent from Plaintiff.

D. Intrusion Upon Seclusion

60. Defendants intentionally and egregiously intruded upon Plaintiff's solitude and private affairs by recruiting and encouraging followers to create and maintain "hate sites" dedicated to attacking Plaintiff, orchestrating the mass publication of private images, and engaging in coordinated harassment campaigns. Defendants and their supporters obtained and shared private photographs, including childhood images, without Plaintiff's authorization, and directly targeted Plaintiff and her family members through harassing emails and public posts.

61. These actions would be highly offensive to a reasonable person and caused Plaintiff to suffer severe emotional distress, humiliation, and the loss of her ability to safely participate in social media or conduct her professional affairs without fear of ongoing harassment and reputational harm. Plaintiff was ultimately compelled to delete all her social media accounts to escape the relentless attacks and preserve her mental health.

62. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has suffered substantial damages, including but not limited to mental anguish, loss of reputation, economic harm, diminished professional opportunities, and the loss of enjoyment of life.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants for compensatory and punitive damages, an injunction prohibiting further invasion of privacy, costs of this action, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT III: INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS (IIED)
(Against Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and Others)

Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

53. Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Megan Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzywiznut, and others, individually and in concert, engaged in a prolonged and coordinated campaign of harassment, ridicule, and humiliation directed at Plaintiff through various online and social media platforms, including—but not limited to—Facebook, YouTube, and associated “hate sites.”
54. Beginning on or about May 5, 2025, and continuing to the present, Defendants published and broadcast repeated false and inflammatory statements about Plaintiff, including but not limited to: claims that Plaintiff was “knocked up by her acquaintance” (when Plaintiff is a married woman), assertions that Plaintiff was “a disbarred attorney” or retired solely to avoid disbarment (contrary to official records and sworn affidavits provided by Plaintiff), and accusations that Plaintiff created “revenge porn.” Defendants also discussed and spread false and salacious rumors about Plaintiff’s mental health, gender identity, and career motivations, none of which had any basis in fact.
55. Defendants mocked and ridiculed Plaintiff’s appearance in live broadcasts and group chats, altered photographs of Plaintiff to depict her in a demeaning and humiliating fashion (including images portraying Plaintiff as a clown or with exaggerated features), and disseminated private and childhood images of Plaintiff to further subject her to public scorn. Defendants branded Plaintiff with derogatory nicknames such as “Lips” and “Legally Lips,” and encouraged their followers to do the same.
56. Defendants deliberately solicited and incited their large online audiences—numbering in the hundreds of thousands—to participate in the harassment of Plaintiff, including the creation, maintenance, and proliferation of “hate sites” and coordinated social media attacks. These actions resulted in hundreds of defamatory and harassing posts, emails, and comments targeting Plaintiff, which appeared in public search results and were seen by Plaintiff's clients, colleagues, and family. The harassment extended to Plaintiff's family members, including her children, and involved personal threats and continuous online stalking.

57. Defendants persisted in their conduct even after Plaintiff provided all parties with sworn documentation from the Florida Bar disproving the allegations of disbarment, and after Plaintiff issued cease and desist requests in writing. Defendant Hales responded dismissively to Plaintiff's efforts to halt the harassment, stating, "See you in Court," and continued to encourage the defamatory and harassing conduct.

58. Defendant Hales, in public videos and on his YouTube channel "What the Hales," expressly stated that his intent in initiating lawsuits against his perceived adversaries was not to seek justice, but to "ruin" and "destroy" them financially and emotionally. Hales openly mocked and threatened those he was suing, including Plaintiff, to an audience of over 730,000 followers, further exacerbating the campaign of humiliation and distress.

59. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff is a member of an ADA-protected class due to her disability. In spite of this knowledge, Defendants and their followers specifically targeted Plaintiff's disability in their broadcasts, posts, and online comments, mocking her mental health and accusing her of being "crazy," "off her meds," and "mental," and otherwise referencing her disability in a demeaning and stigmatizing manner. Defendants' conduct was not only extreme and outrageous, but also demonstrated a callous disregard for Plaintiff's federally protected rights and dignity.

60. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' extreme and outrageous conduct, Plaintiff suffered severe emotional distress, including humiliation, anxiety, depression, fear for her safety and the safety of her family, and loss of business relationships and professional opportunities. The ongoing harassment and humiliation caused Plaintiff to become debilitated, depressed, and nearly hospitalized, and resulted in her being forced to delete all of her social media accounts in an effort to escape the attacks. Plaintiff's reputation within her professional and personal communities has been irreparably damaged.

61. Defendants' conduct was intentional and malicious, or at a minimum, reckless, as they knew or should have known that their actions would cause Plaintiff severe emotional distress and would exacerbate Plaintiff's disability. Defendants acted with actual malice and a conscious disregard for Plaintiff's well-being and rights as an ADA-protected individual.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants for compensatory and punitive damages, an injunction prohibiting further harassment, costs of this action, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT IV: NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS
(Against Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and Others)

53. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

54. Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Megan Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and others, individually and collectively, owed Plaintiff a duty to exercise reasonable care in the statements and content they published about her, and in their handling and dissemination of her private information and images. Defendants breached that duty by negligently publishing, republishing, and amplifying false, harmful, and offensive statements about Plaintiff—including but not limited to claims that Plaintiff was “knocked up by her acquaintance,” that she was “a disbarred attorney” or had retired to avoid disbarment, and that she created “revenge porn”—without taking reasonable steps to verify the truth or accuracy of such statements.

55. Defendants further breached their duty of care by allowing, encouraging, and participating in online harassment campaigns, including but not limited to: the recruitment of followers to create and operate “hate sites” targeting Plaintiff; the alteration and widespread public sharing of Plaintiff’s photographs, including childhood images; and the persistent publication of private, non-newsworthy facts about Plaintiff’s life, marital status, disability, and family.
56. Defendants also failed to consider or safeguard Plaintiff’s well-being, including her status as a member of an ADA-protected class. Defendants and their followers repeatedly mocked Plaintiff’s disability, made stigmatizing comments about her mental health, and encouraged others to do the same—all without regard for the foreseeable harm such conduct would cause.
57. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ negligent conduct, Plaintiff suffered severe emotional distress, including humiliation, anxiety, depression, fear for her safety and well-being, and the loss of her ability to participate in social media or carry on her professional activities without threat of harassment and reputational harm. Plaintiff was compelled to delete all her social media accounts and has suffered tangible damage to her reputation, professional standing, and business relationships.
58. Defendants’ actions were the actual and legal cause of Plaintiff’s emotional harm, and such harm was reasonably foreseeable given the nature, volume, and intensity of Defendants’ conduct and the vulnerable position in which Plaintiff was placed.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants for compensatory damages, costs of this action, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT V: CYBERSTALKING / HARASSMENT
(Against Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and Others)
(Violation of Fla. Stat. § 784.048)

53. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

54. Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Megan Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and others, acting individually and in concert, engaged in a sustained pattern of willful, malicious, and repeated conduct directed at Plaintiff through electronic communications and social media platforms, including but not limited to Facebook, YouTube, and associated online “hate sites.”

55. Beginning on or about May 5, 2025, and continuing through the present, Defendants published and circulated false, defamatory, and highly offensive statements about Plaintiff, including but not limited to: accusations that Plaintiff was “knocked up by her acquaintance,” assertions that Plaintiff was “a disbarred attorney” or retired to avoid disbarment, and claims that Plaintiff created “revenge porn.” These statements were repeatedly broadcast to large audiences and disseminated through multiple online channels.

56. Defendants created, maintained, and encouraged the creation of “hate sites” and public social media groups—most notably the “What the Hales” Facebook group—which were dedicated to attacking and harassing Plaintiff. Within these groups, Plaintiff was relentlessly mocked, defamed, and insulted by both Defendants and their recruited followers, with hundreds of posts and comments appearing in internet searches under Plaintiff's legal name.

57. Defendants solicited, encouraged, and directed their broad online audiences—numbering in the hundreds of thousands—to participate in the harassment of Plaintiff. This included the alteration and repeated public dissemination of Plaintiff's photographs (including images depicting her as a clown, with exaggerated features, or as "Legally Lips"), the sharing of childhood images without consent, and the publication of private, non-newsworthy facts about Plaintiff's personal and family life.
58. Defendants used their online broadcasts and platforms to repeatedly and intentionally target Plaintiff. Defendants Hales, Rizk, and Hip hosted live YouTube videos and social media broadcasts in which they ridiculed, insulted, and defamed Plaintiff. Defendants Megan Fox and Umbrella Guy, among others, published daily content featuring ongoing ridicule, false statements, and personal attacks against Plaintiff, including attacks on her mental health, disability, and professional reputation.
59. Defendants' conduct escalated to include attacks on Plaintiff's family members, including her children, as well as direct harassment through emails and public posts, causing Plaintiff to experience fear for her safety and the safety of her family.
60. As a result of this extensive and ongoing harassment, Plaintiff was forced to delete all of her social media accounts to avoid further abuse, suffered emotional distress, humiliation, anxiety, depression, and tangible damage to her reputation, professional standing, and business relationships. Plaintiff's ADA-protected disability was specifically targeted and mocked by Defendants and their followers, exacerbating the harm caused.

61. The conduct of Defendants constitutes cyberstalking as defined in Fla. Stat. § 784.048(1)(d) and (2), in that Defendants knowingly, willfully, and maliciously harassed, cyberstalked, and repeatedly communicated with Plaintiff through electronic means, causing substantial emotional distress and serving no legitimate purpose.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants for compensatory and punitive damages, an injunction prohibiting further harassment and cyberstalking, costs of this action, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VI: CIVIL CONSPIRACY
(Against Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and Others)

53. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

54. Defendant Jeremy Hales operates a YouTube channel and social media presence built on provoking controversy with third parties, frequently targeting neighbors, opposing attorneys, and others involved in litigation against him. His content is characterized by disparagement, humiliation, and mockery of individuals' appearance, religious backgrounds, age, and other personal traits. As a result of this conduct, Defendant Hales has previously been the subject of stalking injunctions, including documented violations of such injunctions, and has faced public criticism and legal actions from various targets (see EXHIBIT B).

55. Defendant Hales' audience is primarily rural, ages 45-75, both male and female, and includes a significant international following. The thumbnails and promotional content used by Defendant Hales routinely depict neighbors and adversarial attorneys in a false and disparaging light (see EXHIBIT A), contributing to a climate of public harassment that has discouraged legal representation for parties involved in disputes with him.

56. This action arises from a deliberate, coordinated campaign of online harassment, defamation, and reputational sabotage orchestrated by Defendant Hales and his associates, including Defendants Megan Fox, Jay Hip, Rizk, Shizzywiznut, and others. Plaintiff, a retired attorney assisting her husband's law firm, became a target after participating in a neutral interview concerning ongoing litigation involving Defendant Hales. Defendants then weaponized their significant online following to publish and amplify hundreds of false, malicious statements about Plaintiff, escalating from a single Facebook post to a wide-reaching campaign.

57. These attacks, carried out across public Facebook groups and live YouTube broadcasts, included defamatory claims about Plaintiff's professional status, personal life, and mental health, calculated to destroy her reputation and livelihood. Despite Plaintiff's repeated efforts to correct the record—including providing sworn affidavits from the Florida Bar—Defendants persisted, recruiting followers, encouraging hate sites, and profiting from live donations and increased engagement rooted in continued dissemination of these falsehoods. The conduct has caused severe, ongoing harm to Plaintiff's personal and professional life, necessitating judicial intervention and redress.

58. In furtherance of the conspiracy, Defendants knowingly agreed and acted in concert to engage in this coordinated campaign, jointly and repeatedly publishing false and defamatory statements about Plaintiff—including that she was “knocked up by her acquaintance,” “a disbarred attorney,” and a creator of “revenge porn”—on Facebook, YouTube, and other platforms. Defendants regularly coordinated their conduct by appearing together in live video broadcasts, soliciting donations while repeating false claims, and encouraging audience participation in the harassment and defamation of Plaintiff.

59. Defendants recruited supporters and followers to create and maintain online “hate sites” targeting Plaintiff, altered Plaintiff’s photographs to ridicule her, and disseminated private and childhood images of Plaintiff for public mockery. Daily broadcasts by Defendants Megan Fox and Umbrella Guy focused on Plaintiff, spreading false statements and insults, while Defendants Hip, Hales, and Rizk participated in livestreams reiterating defamatory claims and mocking Plaintiff’s appearance.
60. These acts were not isolated, but part of a broader, orchestrated scheme masterminded by Defendant Hales to manipulate viewership analytics, silence dissent, and financially benefit those who participate in his campaign. Data analysis demonstrates that creators who align themselves with Defendant Hales—including Megan Fox, That Umbrella Guy, and Jay Hip—have experienced dramatic increases in online metrics and financial rewards, while those who refuse or attempt to expose the scheme are subjected to targeted harassment and reputational attacks.
61. This systematic campaign to manipulate public opinion and stifle free expression utilizes fake accounts, cyber harassment, and intimidation tactics, with the goal of punishing truth-telling and rewarding misinformation for personal profit. The consequences undermine the integrity of online platforms and the rights of individuals to express themselves freely, warranting legal scrutiny and redress. Evidence supporting these claims includes timelines, digital communications, and analytics data illustrating the existence and operation of the scheme (see EXHIBITS A and B).

62. Defendants' collective goal was to harm Plaintiff's reputation, cause her severe emotional distress, drive her from social media, disrupt her professional relationships, and "drain and ruin" her financially and emotionally, as expressly admitted by Defendant Hales in public statements and online broadcasts.

63. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' agreement and concerted actions in furtherance of the conspiracy, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer severe emotional distress, humiliation, economic harm, loss of enjoyment of life, loss of reputation, and damage to her business and professional relationships.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants for compensatory and punitive damages, an injunction prohibiting further unlawful acts in furtherance of the conspiracy, costs of this action, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT VII: TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE WITH BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS
(Against Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and Others)

53. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

54. At all relevant times, Plaintiff maintained valid, advantageous, and ongoing business relationships and expectancies with her clients, colleagues, and professional contacts, including through her work assisting her husband's law firm.

55. Defendants Hales, Rizk, Hip, Megan Fox, Umbrella Guy, Shizzlywiznut, and others, individually and acting in concert, had actual knowledge of Plaintiff's business relationships and professional reputation and intentionally, unjustifiably, and without privilege interfered with those relationships by engaging in a sustained campaign of defamation, harassment, and invasion of privacy aimed at Plaintiff.

56. Defendants repeatedly published and disseminated false, defamatory, and highly damaging statements about Plaintiff across multiple social media platforms, including Facebook and YouTube. These statements included, but were not limited to, false claims that Plaintiff was “knocked up by her acquaintance,” that she was “a disbarred attorney” or retired to avoid disbarment, and that she was involved in creating “revenge porn.” Defendants also repeatedly insulted and demeaned Plaintiff’s personal and professional character, including mocking her appearance and mental health.
57. Defendants created, maintained, and actively encouraged the creation and operation of online “hate sites” and social media groups specifically targeting Plaintiff. They altered and publicly disseminated Plaintiff’s photographs, including humiliating edits and childhood images, for the purpose of ridicule and harassment.
58. Defendants solicited, directed, and incited their large online audiences—numbering in the hundreds of thousands—to participate in the harassment campaign, amplifying the dissemination of false statements and defamatory content, thereby exponentially increasing the damage to Plaintiff’s reputation and business standing.
59. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ unlawful interference, Plaintiff was compelled to delete all of her social media accounts to avoid further harassment and protect her well-being. Nonetheless, Plaintiff’s clients and professional contacts became aware of the defamatory “hate sites” and online attacks. Numerous clients questioned Plaintiff about these false and damaging statements, resulting in the loss of business opportunities, diminished client confidence, and irreparable harm to Plaintiff’s professional relationships and reputation.

60. Defendants' conduct was intentional, malicious, without justification, and directly caused the damage and loss to Plaintiff's business relationships and professional standing.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants for compensatory and punitive damages, an injunction prohibiting further interference with Plaintiff's business relationships, costs of this action, and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable as a matter of right pursuant to Rule 1.430, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

- A. Award compensatory, special, and punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- B. Enter judgment in Plaintiff's favor on all claims;
- C. Order Defendants to retract all defamatory statements;
- D. Award Plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and
- E. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Hello Megan,

It's Leslie Ferderigos. I use to practice law as an attorney, but now I am working behind the scenes to consult attorneys on trial preparation, appeals, & federal lawsuits. I actually represented Gabe Shapior and Eric Satin, and I think you and Mike Volpe interviewed both of them in 2021.

Mike reached out to me because I have been doing a podcast on my new show. I'm going to have him on about What the Hales and the lawsuits he's filed. Mike said they are frivolous and he's using them for content. He mentioned you are going along and unethically reporting on things favorably to him because he helps you get more subscribers. I always like to hear from both sides, please advise as to your position.

Best Wishes,

Leslie Ferderigos, Esq.(Ret.)

BTW, Mr. Volpe, I'm sitting here in my office waiting, the next move is up to you. Just like I'm waiting for Michael Littles expose' on me. You know you are right in the middle, when both sides are trying to silence you.

Aaawwww, lookie here, I call out Michael Volpe for his treatment of the women in his life, and how he treated his own children after he tried to once again defame JH, and he couldn't take the heat so he deleted his post. What part did you not want to answer? The how if you are going to say things about Jeremy, we needed to talk about your past abuse? Or the part where I asked if you were willing to admit you Luthman and 5150 Leslie were crowd funded by Bruce and Lisa to be bullies?

Legally Leslie (aka "Hot Lips" LOL) · 5 hours ago

I just received a hate email with a link to a FB group making fun of me. It never ends.....Thank you all for your support. Pray for the light to conquer the darkness trying to influence people. This is a spiritual war and humans do not always understand this concept. No one is perfect, but we cannot be infiltrated by hate. IF ANYONE ATTEMPTS TO RESPOND TO THIS POST IN A HATEFUL OR INSULTING WAY, YOU WILL BE IMMEDIATELY BOOTED OFF THIS CHANNEL

Leslie, I'm not sure how to respond to this post. On 1 hand you maybe generally sorry for your actions, which lead to the posts and hate about you. But then on the other hand I feel you are only apologizing because you jumped into this mess head first and wanted publicity and when you didn't get it you started flip flopping. Unfortunately the hate won't stop until you drop all your cases and back out. I know you dropped Jay Hip, Megan and TUG but you are forgetting Jeremy and his businesses. You know you have done wrong. Until you are no longer a bleep on the radar the hate will continue. Don't take this as a threat, but more as a suggestion. You rolled with the wrong crew. I'm sure you were promised all kind of fame and fortune. Well you got the fame, but not the kind you wanted. How about join the group, use your real account and don't hide behind anonymous posts. If you show the members respect, you too in time will get respect back. However if you keep supporting people like Bruce Matzkin, Lisa Lee, Richard Luthmann, Michael Volmit and or any of the others from that group things will just continue. Hopefully we can see some REAL change from you.

Leslie Ferderigos reports this to YouTube, and creates a satirical video tagging DJ Rattis' name and challenging him to a dance off to try and make humor from the situation.

DJ Rattis then creates an insulting song where he publishes it, using Leslie Ferderigos name, while calling her a fail, loser, amongst other insulting language.

From or about May 6, 2025 until present, Ania Waterman, from Ireland, begins targeting and attacking Leslie Ferderigos, while commenting she is in touch with Jeremy Hales. Additionally, Jeremy Hales makes statements during LIVES that Leslie Ferderigos is sending Ania Waterman Harassing emails.

On or about June 5, 2025, Leslie Ferderigos reaches out to Jay Hip, in an attempt to settle everything to gain confirmation that he and the others will not keep falsely reporting about the status of her retirement. In this conversation, she says insults or one thing, but false statements affecting her professional reputation and livelihood cannot be tolerated because she works for her husband's law firm and has clients and clients are seeing these posts questioning whether or not she was disbarred. In this conversation, Jay Hip informed Leslie, he is in contact with Megan Fox and That Umbrella Guy, and requested she drop them to. Leslie stated she would not be dropping the lawsuit, but as long as they would not continue to false report about her retirement status, she would drop both Megan Fox and That Umbrella Guy. However, the following week they are continuing to falsely report about Leslie's retirement status.

On or about June 7, 2025, Ania Waterman, sends an email harassing Leslie Ferderigos, in which Leslie Ferderigos, responds civilly trying to get her to stop. However, after Leslie agreed to apologize, because Ania Waterman told Leslie Ferderigos, she had autism, Ania Waterman begin posting publicly, clearly intended to make Leslie Ferderigos appear as if she is picking on a vulnerable person.

Considering you initiated an attack against me and I had no idea who you were, you should only look to yourself to blame. You go around attacking people in the most hateful way and when someone you attack throw back the same punches you dished out, you play victim. Here is my advice, you do not want to be attacked, stop attacking people. I never knew you were nor would ever spend time attacking you. However, considering you began attacking me not knowing me, you should feel what your vile attacks against others feel like. Sad thing is I feel sorry for you.

Had you known me, I can promise you and I would have been friends. I truly do not know why you want to hurt me so bad. But I do not hate you nor wish harm for you. I truly hope one day, you might want to actually talk personally with me and we can both forgive each other for hurting each other.

I think I am being accused as I am because of those who I have interviewed or appeared on shows with. If you actually listen to my words, not their you will know I would never say what your suggesting.

If you believe this, please share where I did this, because I would never call people those names. And if I did say such a thing, I would absolutely publicly apologize. I can admit when I am wrong. No one is perfect and I refuse to be a hypocrite. So if I did such, yes I will apologize.

I am not going to re-hash my retirement. I know the truth and have an affidavit sworn by my state bar. I practice under my husband license behind the scenes,

That is the problem Leslie you just don't want to admit it to yourself. I get you didn't want a black mark of disbarment on your Legal Career. Thus why you requested the Florida Bar to let you permanently retire.

Do I need to remind you of the TOTALLY VILE things you've posted about me?

You hvve a LOT of apologizing to many people to do. Jeremy & George, TUG, Megan, Shara, Jay Hip to name a few.

People CAN NOT just go around calling people VILE & VULGAR things, KNOWING FULL WELL, IT IS MALICIOUS & FALSE

Calling people a PDF file, R'pist, Child SA'er etc, THAT is 100% defamation.

NOTHING I've said has been vile or vulgar. You may not like 'us' saying you permanently retired to avoid disbarment & calling you muppet etc. That is NOTHING like defamation.

If you can genuinely admit, YOU were the one who came into the shit show,

I would never do that to you after I admitted my mistake. I really wish you and I could actually talk verbally. BTW, I ran my DNA and I am 40% scottish, 20% Irish, 20% English. Are you from Ireland?

So, I guess I'm not understanding what is going on with this newcomer and permanently retired lawyer Leslie Ann Ferderigos. I've heard many rumors. The facts are clear to me. She permanently retired from the Bar, and is now banned from practicing law in Florida. She can not be re-admitted according to state bar rules, or Florida law? I'm unsure on the last one.

But, the rumors, I'm hearing is that she is mentally ill, or unstable or something. That she is so unstable that sh... See more

Lips think i have found the reason for your brain fog and general dumbFukery

Silicone implant toxicity, often associated with "Breast Implant Illness" (BII), refers to a range of systemic symptoms that some individuals attribute to their silicone breast implants. While the exact link between implants and these symptoms is still being researched and not fully understood, many patients report experiencing symptoms like fatigue, joint pain, brain fog, and skin rashes after receiving silicone or saline implants. Some experts believe these symptoms may be due to an autoimmune

Last thing, I really don't care at this point what Hales has going on elsewhere. But I do care about the defamation and online attack perpetrated against me that was initiated simply because I entertained a request to interview Michael Volpe about this, having no idea who Hales was nor cared. During that initial interview, I simply asked questions and was neutral. Immediately following Michael Volpe's publishing of that interview, I was brutally harassed. This was unwarranted and has continued ever since. Read the Court filed timeline, that I swear to with detailed evidence. You will see exactly when/date this campaign against me started and ever since I have been fighting back to stop it.

Please know your email is being turned over to law enforcement to demonstrate the harassment, as a case is being opened. You are welcome to follow the Court case with filings to see the truth in what is going on. I have extensive evidence with a timeline of the attack initiated against me. The evading service/notice, is evading e-service/notice of evidence connecting Hales to the online cyberbullying attack that he continues to take himself off e-service. Formal service of the lawsuit has not been initiated because I need to amend the complaint a 3rd time to add new evidence. Service/Notice is not confined to Formal Service and notice of a lawsuit. You are missing the distinction.

Leslie Ferderigos aka Legally Leslie:

When were Hales, Rizk and Elephant Shoes LLC served In 2025-CA-004528-O Ferderigos vs Hales et al? Do you have actual documentation from a process server that will verify that they were served? Or is this just more of your drama, drama, drama, drama?? So-called researcher "Hot Lips" did you ever get a copy of Hales' sworn statements in the petition (https://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/docs/JCS/domesticViolence/protection_forms/stalkingForms/10.03D.pdf) for CV-2023-09-3595 Hales vs Preston? If your claim is that Hales weaponizes litigation, then where is your proof that Hales obtained the Ohio injunction under false pretense? Press Release = Unsubstantiated Drama! Drama! Drama! designed to provoke and feed Hales' troll, correct? If you are such an "expert," then why aren't you filing amicus briefs in Ohio and Florida instead of all the Drama! Drama! Drama!? Hmm? Inquiring minds want to know, don't they?

P.S. Did you notice that neither of your good buddies Hales nor Fox have mentioned my name even once recently? But, then again neither has your no talent buddy Sean Martin, right?

On January 19th, 2025 at approximately 1440 hours, I responded to 6251 SW SR 24 in reference to a violation of injunction complaint. Upon arrival, contact with the complainant, Jeremy Hales, who was actively videotaping our interaction. ... Later I had another opportunity to review the video footage from the incident. Jeremy stated at the opening of the video that, "unfortunately, it's time to drive past these psychos”, however, there is an alternative route that Jeremy could travel, which would avoid Lynette’s residence completely (northbound on N Otter Creek Ave towards US 19). Jeremy’s Ohio protection order states that, “the court finds by a preponderance of evidence that 1) Respondent has knowingly engaged in a pattern of conduct that caused Petitioner to believe that Respondent will cause physical harm or cause mental distress; and 2) the following orders are equitable, fair, and necessary to protect the person named in this Order from stalking offenses”. Being Jeremy is apparently in fear that John Cook possibly cause “physical harm” or “mental distress”, it is peculiar why he would knowingly drive the most direct route toward their residence, instead of seeking an alternative direction to avoid them directly. ... Being that Jeremy is allegedly in fear that “physical harm” or “mental distress” may come to him as a result of interactions with John or Lynette, I found it odd that he would intentionally slow his driving speed while driving in front of the property. During the recording, it was witnessed that Jeremy was raising his recording device above his head/roof, outside of his vehicle. Lynette owns an approximate 6-foot tall privacy fence, which she uses to shield her property from the view of the public. Jeremy was witnessed intentionally trying to see over it, in order to garner a reaction from the inhabitants, and to witness elements within the property that were not easily witnessed from persons of the public at the roadway. ... Based upon Jeremy’s statements, the video provided, and the testimony of the subjects located at 151 N Otter Creek Ave, I have found no probable cause to believe a violation of the Ohio protection order has taken place. From all appearances, it seems as though Jeremy is trying to elicit a response from the parties involved, and is provoking them into possibly committing some type of violation. Jeremy does not seem to be in fear of physical attack, nor any type of mental anguish, as a result of being in such proximity to the subjects. From all evidence collected, Jeremy appears to be purposely interjecting himself into the lives of the other individuals. My interactions with all parties was recorded on my body-worn microphone, and my in-car video camera was operational as well. Those recordings are available through UDE if needed. A copy of the video footage collected was submitted to the “Files4Evid$” folder, and attached as evidence to this report. Pages 4, 5. Original Narrative Author: Corporal D. Hales has weaponized the court system, turning legal filings into fodder for his videos, all while soliciting and receiving tens of thousands of dollars in donations under the guise of defending himself from “attacks.” This is not the conduct of a wronged individual seeking justice—it is the calculated strategy of a digital provocateur exploiting the legal system for views, influence, and profit.
