

Together in Excellence

Dear Members of the IANA-NC,

It is with immense honor and excitement that I step into the role of President of Indian American Nurses Association North Carolina (IANANC) chapter. As I embark on this journey, I am filled with profound admiration and respect for each one of you, whose dedication and passion define the very essence of nursing.

Our profession stands as a beacon of hope, compassion, and resilience. Each day, you make a difference in the lives of countless individuals, bringing comfort and healing in their most vulnerable moments. It is this unwavering commitment to care that I am proud to champion as your President.

As we look towards the future, our mission remains clear: Creates a community of excellence in nursing through professional development and networking. Together, we will tackle the challenges ahead and seize every opportunity to enhance our practice and impact.

Key areas of focus in my tenure will include:

Professional development: Offering programs, workshops, and certifications to help nurses stay up-to-date with the latest medical knowledge and skills. Connecting experienced nurses with newer members of the profession to provide guidance and support.

Evidence-Based Practice: Supporting and conducting research.

Innovation: Encouraging the adoption of new technologies and innovative approaches in nursing.

Health and Wellness: Providing resources and programs to support the mental and Physical well-being of nurses, addressing issues such as burnout and stress. Promoting healthy lifestyles and offering wellness programs to ensure the overall health of nursing professionals.

Outreach and Education: Educating the public about health issues and the role of nurses in the healthcare system.

I am eager to hear your ideas, feedback, and aspirations. Our strength lies in our unity, and I am committed to fostering an environment where every voice is heard and valued.

Thank you for your trust and for your unwavering dedication to the noble profession of nursing. Together, we will continue to achieve excellence and make a profound impact on the health and well-being of our communities.

With heartfelt gratitude and enthusiasm,

Mini Dominic, RN MSN, CCRN, CMC
President, IANA-NC
